We have heard of a farmer who had a hen that persisted in sitting on the mail box. He could explain her conduct in no other way than that she was hatched from an egg sent by post.

Grandma Pittman and daughter Miss Ella of the Second Street extension spent Thursday and Friday of last week in the home of Mrs. Pittman's grand-daughter Mrs. Ella Secrist in the Cove.

David A. Black, of Waterfall, is another good citizen who stays at home and "saws wood," but during his quarterly trips to town makes every minute count. Our latch string is out to him at all times.

Mr. Ed Lumpkin, the popular Baltimore hat salesman, spent Sunday in this place. Mr. Lumpkin is a fine singer and never fails to receive more invitations to sing in our choirs than he can accept.

Russell Stevens came home from Philadelphia last week, to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Stevens. Russell is a student in the Dental College at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Blair W. Truax of Burr Oaks, Kans., and his uncle Martin, of Belfast township, were in town on business Tuesday. The Doctor was called home on account of the serious illness of his father Stillwell W. Truax.

Mrs. Leslie W. Seylar, Misses Gertrude Hoke, Emma Sloan and Ethel Hays, went to Shippensburg Tuesday, to attend the fortieth annual meeting of the alumni. Mr. O. L. Greathead took them to Shippensburg in an auto.

The United States is about to harvest the greatest wheat crop in its history—about one-fifth larger than last year, and one-half again larger than two years ago. This means six barrels of flour to every family in the United States.

Mrs. A. D. Peightel, west water street, has been very ill for several days. She underwent a surgical operation last Friday by Doctors Ramsey and Skinner, of Chambersburg. Her mother, Mrs. H. S. Daniels, is confined to her room.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Zimmerman and their two interesting children, Lois and Samuel Jr., of Connellsville, Pa., are out for a week's motoring trip. They spent Tuesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maun south of town.

Ex-County Commissioner D. W. Cromer, of Fort Littleton, was in town for a short time last Friday. What do you think? He said that Woodrow Wilson is responsible for the recent dry weather. Would you think it of such a fine fellow as Dan?

George C. Ensley and F. J. Wible, R. D. 1, Needmore, took advantage of the lull in haymaking on account of rain, Monday, to come to town. Mr. Ensley paid this office the kind of calls we like. We welcome him to our big family of NEWS readers.

William Daniels, of Licking Creek township, spent last Thursday in town calling on friends and relatives. Mr. Daniels has not been in good health for nearly a year, and he stays close to his home, and in consequence, has not been this far from his farm for a long time.

WEST DUBLIN.

Corn knee high in the field two weeks before the Fourth of July is a (matter) cause for gratitude for at least one of our farmers.

Last week while the sun shone some of our farmers made hay.

W. H. Ranck of Hustontown and Floyd Price have been busy the past two weeks cutting logs for Reichley Brothers and Ross King.

Bernard Foreman and Dallas Brant have finished enlarging David Black's barn and are now engaged in similar work for Thomas Reader of Dublin township.

Mr. Clark the horse dealer and veterinary dentist from Mt. Union was in this township from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Clark's maxim for driving seems to be:

Up hill and down hill urge me not.

But on the level, spare me not.

A number of our young people attended the Bush meeting at Dublin Mills on Sunday.

Mrs. Poliph Rotz and Mrs. Geo.

Finif visited at David Hershey's and Dawson Strait's on Saturday and Sunday.

David Hershey, Harvey Clevenger, and Howard Kirk spent last Wednesday in Upper Path-valley and Amberson Valley on business. A comparison of the roads which they traveled with our roads would be favorable to our roads.

Ernest and Lena Berkstresser of Waterfall visited their uncle David A. Laidig on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Maynard Unger and children of Ayr township spent a few days last week with relatives in this township.

"Tater" bugs are bad on some of the early potatoes.

Last Saturday was a cause of gratitude for Mrs. Susan King by the fact that for the first time in a period of over twenty-five years, her four sons: William of North Dakota, George, Albert, and Ross of this township were present with her at dinner.

Rev. McKechnie preached at Fairview on Sunday forenoon from Genesis 8:20. The teaching of the sermon was, that all saved persons should have altars for themselves as soon as saved.

William King and wife of Can-do, North Dakota, are visiting friends and relatives in this township. Besides their "ten quarters and an eighty," (1740 acres) they have a timber tract of 100 acres in that state.

Considering the fact that Mr. and Mrs. King began married life without many hundred dollars, they have done well in the getting of property. With the exception of a day's work on the "patch," Mr. King did all the work of seeding 300 acres to spring wheat this year on his farm. When possible, plowing for spring wheat is done in the fall.
