Published Every Thursday. B. W. PECK, Editor and Proprietor. McCONNELLSBURG, PA. JULY 9, 1914. Published Weekly. $1.00 per Annum in Advance.

The Rehoboth M. E. Sunday school will hold its annual picnic and Children's Service on Saturday the first day of August in Prof. W. M. Scott's grove.

Mrs. J. V. Royer and children, who had been visiting in Hagerstown, and Miss Mary Pittman, who was sojourning in Gettysburg, returned to their respective homes in this place Monday evening greatly pleased with their trips.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mellott, and daughter Edna, of Pittsburgh came to the home of Mrs. Mellott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sipes, of Licking Creek township Monday. Mr. Mellott is one of the Iron City's efficient letter carriers, and he and his family are off for their summer vacation. Their son Willis came a week in advance.

Walter Deshong, son of C. L. Deshong, of Wells Tannery, is in the employ of Reichley Bros. He spent the latter part of last week in the home of his uncle, Andrew Lamberson, at Jugtown. Walter "hoofed it" as far as Harrisonville where Doctor Mosser overtook him and brought him to town in his Ford. Walter deposited a dollar in our till Monday.

Mrs. Ed Shimer left on Monday for Oklahoma City, Okla., to nurse her sister, Mrs. George W. Cooper, who recently underwent a serious surgical operation. Mrs. Shimer was joined enroute by another sister, Mrs. Frank Sherman, of Auburn, N. Y., and together they traveled to destination. They will remain in that distant State until Mrs. Cooper gets well.

Mr. George C. Sipes called at the News office last Friday, and said that his uncle Abner Sipes, of Piercetown, Ind. had been in the hospital in a near-by town for a month; but was unable to give any particulars, as his last two letters to his uncle had not been answered. Mr. Sipes also gave us the account of the death of Harvey Sipes which will be found in our obituary column.

C. A. Ritz and little son Ambrose, of Union township, were in town Friday to take home with them Miss Lilly, Mr. Ritz's daughter, who attended Normal this term. They had thirty-two miles to cover before arriving in the County Seat, but did not drive the whole way in one day. However, they drove the thirty-two miles Friday. They spent a very pleasant few minutes in the NEWS office.

After having spent two weeks' vacation in the home of his father, Mr. John Gress, at Dane, Cloyd Gress left for Steubenville, Ohio, Tuesday morning where he has employment in a steel mill. Two friends from that place, Marion Cain and George E. Miser, came for him in a Ford auto. These two men left Steubenville at seven o'clock Sunday morning and were in McConnellsburg a few minutes after eight that evening.

Some time ago, Robert Mellott moved his blacksmith shop from Harrisonville to a point on Possum Hollow road, back of Green Hill, in Licking Creek township. For some time this summer he has been missing cabbage plants from a patch near his house. He saw a groundhog in the enclosure one day last week and followed it to its den. Securing a mattock he dug out three young "hogs" and the old one. This bunch of porkers" furnished a nice lot of "bacon" for his table in payment for the cabbage they had stolen. Mr. Mellott made a wagon this summer that is intended to carry several tons. One of our reporters saw it last week, and he said it looked like it would carry a whole freight train.

FACTS AND FICTION.

Experience of McConnellsburg Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of McConnellsburg is true. Read it and compare evidence from McConnellsburg people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of McConnellsburg endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

Riley Peck, shoemaker, Pleasant St., McConnellsburg, Pa., says: "Some years ago I was troubled with my kidneys and soreness in my back. I was dizzy at times and it affected my eyes. I had to get up often at night on account of the kidney secretions. I was tired out when I got up, and I didn't feel like doing any work. I had a doctor at the time, but he only gave me a little relief. A friend insisted upon me taking Doan's Kidney Pills, as he was cured by them. I got two boxes at Trout's Drug Store, and found great relief at once. I have never had any severe symptoms of kidney trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Peck had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WEST DUBLIN.

James Schenck and John Lipely, of Martel, Ohio, recently left Woodbury, Bedford county at 3 P. M. had supper with Joseph Edwards, near Fairview church west from there to Allen Deaver's south of Saluvia and came back to Joseph Edward's by dark where they spent the night. The next morning they started for their home in Ohio. They were traveling in a Studebaker car.

George Raker, wife and little son Willard recently visited the family of Mrs. Raker's parents, Joseph Laidig and wife at Minersville, Huntingdon county.

Charles Mort and wife of Finleyville, Bedford county, passed through this vicinity last Friday evening enroute to the home of Wm. Daniels in Licking Creek township.

David R. Mumma came down from Kearney last Tuesday and spent a few days with the family of his daughter Mrs. Alton Price. The latter part of the week he went to Hustontown to be present at the Independence Day celebration there.

Some of our people attended the Children's Day Services at Asbury and Green Hill on Sunday. They report a good attendance and a pleasing program.

A number of the people from the vicinity of the State Road, attended the bush meeting at Gracey and heard the U. B. evangelist Rev. Hummel preach three interesting sermons.

Mrs. Sherman Amick and Fannie Mack, of Wells Tannery, spent Monday with friends on this side of the mountain.

Among those at James Lyon's on Sunday were Dr. H. C. McClain and wife, Luemma and Norris Laidig, of Hustontown.

A number of our people attended the Independence Day celebration at Hustontown on Saturday.

SALUVIA

Mrs. Jennie Fore, of Breezewood, is visiting relatives in this section.

Edward Deshong, of Bemis, W. Va., has returned home for a few days.

John Barber, of Cooks Mills, a trackman on East Broadtop R. R., is visiting relatives in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McClure, of the Mountain House took in the Children's Day services at Green Hill on Sunday last.

Assistant, and Agricultural editor of the "Fulton County News," spent his 4th of July, fishing in Licking Creek. He caught a nice string of bass, and other fish. The great rise in prices of meats, wouldn't be so alarming, to the cook at Green Hill hostelry if Mr. Brattan could spend a few days fishing in Licking Creek—the table would be supplied with the most delicious of luxuries.

NEEDMORE.

The farmers in this section are done harvesting and hauling in grain and some are making hay.

The question about our town is, Where is the next picnic? and Are you going to the festival next Saturday evening? The picnics are not like they were in the days of yore. Instead of large wagon loads of people and provisions, we see them going now with two in a buggy and a little shoe box of provision. This is a result of the high cost of living and more for style.

The planer of B. F. Deshong operated by Mason and Shives, is in our village planing lumber for S. Logue Wink's new house.

The carpenters are busy at Dr. Palmer's new house.

Eli Peck has his wall ready for the carpenters. Watch the NEWS this year to see the progress our little village makes.

Ada Clark, who had been working in Bedford county, is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark, of this place.

Robert C. Dixon is placing a beautiful fence around his house. Mrs. Frances Hart has also placed a wire fence around her house—including the old school house ground. Instead of a lot of weeds in front of her house in the ground taken in, she has a nice potato patch.

Mrs. Kate Ott, of Bedford county, is spending some time with relatives and friends here.

WEBSTER MILLS

Mrs. J. Campbell Patterson has returned to her home after having spent some time with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Myrtle Stouteagle, of Altoona, is spending the summer vacation with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Warthin.

C. W. Crouse, the "Village Blacksmith," has been seen several times this summer walking with a cane. This is not because Cornelius wishes to be sporty, but because a horse made a misstep and landed on his foot, thus compelling him to use said cane.

Herbert Duffy has his "Studebaker 20" in "The Webster Mills Gas and Electric Co's shops" for an overhauling. This little roadster is not used for pleasure only, but it furnishes power for a "Krolls washing machine," and delivers "Best Yet" flour on rush orders.

Tobias Glazier and family, and Mrs. W. H. Duffy, autoed to Mercersburg on the Fourth. On their return trip Tobie broke the speed limit and also—a guinea's neck.

Joseph B. Mallott was kicked by a horse Friday and is confined to his bed.

W. S. Warthin and family motored over the hills to Bedford last Saturday.

SHARPE, PA.

Jacob Waltz and Andrew Kink expect to move into J. A. Keefer's tenant house during the coming week.

Mrs. W. C. Peck and daughters Amy and Margaret spent Sunday at Amos Sharpe's.

Jacob Powell lost a valuable driving horse last week.

Quite a number of our young people spent the day in Hancock. Mrs. Elizabeth Souders was robbed of her hand-bag which contained the key to her residence, a note, checks, and eight dollars in money. It is earnestly hoped that the guilty one will be apprehended and brought to justice as Mrs. Saders is an old lady and this is quite a loss to her.

League Straw Ride.

The Epworth League will take its annual straw ride this evening to Mr. A. J. Martin's, in the Cove, leaving the M. E. church at 6:30 o'clock. Mr. B. W. Logue will put the hayladders on his wagon, thus insuring a seat for all members who wish to ride. Provisions for refreshments has been made, and the usual delightful time is anticipated.

Nick Roettger, while working on a new building in Hagerstown recently, fell and injured himself so severely that he has been obliged to "knock off" work and spend some time at his home in this place.

Trespass notices at the NEWS office, 5 cents each, or six for 25 cents. Sent by mail when cash or stamps accompany order.

PASSES THE DAY IN TRANCE

Strange Freak of Nature is What is Known to Scientific World as the Stick Insect.

One of the most curious inhabitants of the insect world is what is known as the stick insect, about which Professor Schmidt of the Imperial university of St. Petersburg has been making some strange discoveries.

This insect remains in a quiescent state during the hours of daylight. Until now it has always been supposed that this was slumber, but Professor Schmidt says that this is really a state of catalepsy, or trance, which the insect has developed as a means of protection against its enemies. When in one of these trances the insects will remain for hours in the most abnormal positions—standing on their heads, flat on their backs or with legs extended high in the air and the body arched in the form of a bow. Only some prolonged excitement of the nervous system will rouse them from this rigid cataleptic state, but when the trance is over they show no signs whatever of muscular fatigue.

The stick insect passes all its days in a trance and feeds at night on the foliage of the plants where it lives.—Dayton Journal.

SOUNDS FOREIGN

Mrs. Gottschalk—When the count proposed to your daughter weren't you in ecstasies?

Mrs. Gadder—I can't quite remember the name of the place—those towns in Europe have such funny names, don't you know.

TREES LIGHTNING AVOIDS.

Lightning is said to have its preferences among different kinds of trees. Some years ago Mr. McNab, a fellow of the Botanical Society of Edinburgh, investigated into the generally received opinion that neither the beech nor the birch is ever struck by lightning. He collected information regarding lightning-struck trees throughout Great Britain, and found no single instance of these species being struck. Investigation in North America gave similar results. He found, indeed, that in the forest regions there a beech tree was regarded as the safest place in a thunder storm.

LABELED THE WRONG STUFF.

The door of the Seventy-second precinct police station was suddenly burst open and an excited individual bolted to the desk.

"Lieutenant!" he shouted. "Lieutenant, my office has been robbed—stripped of everything of value!"

"Who are you?" asked the officer, ringing for the reserves, "and where do you live?"

"I'm a doctor—right around the corner."

"And the thieves left no clew?"

"None. All they left was several articles labeled 'Not to Be Taken.'"

REBUKING SUSPICION.

"Isn't there a great deal of esprit de corps in your class?"

"Not a little bit. They've all taken the pledge."

AT THE LECTURE.

Professor—Thus you see, young gentlemen, that on one hand we have the syllogism and on the other—

Student (interrupting)—Warta.

GOOD THROW.

Ettie—That girl absolutely threw herself at Bob.

Nettie—Oh, well, I guess she knew he was a good catcher.—Judge.

CRITICAL.

Ex-Widow—Children, this is your new mamma.

The Toughest—Gee! Is dat de best you could do, dad?—Judge.

Children and Their Pets.

Never give a child any pet and let things "sort themselves out." It is futile to think children can manage pets by their own instinct; they must be taught how to do things in the right way.

Today and Tomorrow. A true man finds so much work to do that he has no time to contemplate his yesterdays, for today and tomorrow are here with their important tasks.—Mary Antin.

Courtesy and reciprocity. The old folks used to say that courtesy and unhappiness never wore the same coat. And it's equally true to-day. Just plain politeness is doing more to smooth the path for you and me and those around us than many of the so-called greater charities. Picture the courteous man at the telephone. His answering voice has a ring of welcome to it; his smile travels along the wires just as surely as do the words he utters. We're glad to hear from him—glad to call him. From the first tingle of the bell to the final "good-bye" we are alive to the fact that at the other end of the line sits a friend—a courteous, delightful friend. But, not only does he spread telephone enjoyment, but attains it as well. Telephone service is very largely of our own making. If we use it properly—courteously and thoughtfully—we and those who communicate with us find it GOOD service—up to the standards of Bell Service—the most efficient service in the world. When you telephone, smile! The Bell Telephone Co. of Pa. B. H. OVERPECK, Local Mgr. Chambersburg, Pa.
