DANIELS--HENRY NUPTIALS.

Former Fulton County People Happily Wedded in Huntingdon Last Week. Will Live in Harrisburg.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Henry and Jesse H. Daniels took place in the Reformed church, Huntingdon, Pa., at five o'clock, Tuesday evening, June 30th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. Master. The wedding march was played on the pipe organ by Miss Dorothy Foehl. The bride was dressed in a beautiful creation of white crepe meteor and carried a white prayer book.

After the ceremony the bridal couple and their immediate friends and relatives went to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Lebard, 10th and Millin streets, where a wedding dinner was served.

The couple left on the 7:16 train for a wedding trip to Baltimore, Washington and other points of interest. They were given quite a sendoff at the depot by their friends. They will be at home after August 1st in Harrisburg, Mr. Daniels being manager of one of T. Frank Bayer's grocery stores in that city.

The bride is a daughter of John Henry, of Clear Ridge, and the bridegroom, is a native of Bethel township. For several years, Mr. Daniels was principal of one of the schools in Huntingdon, and Miss Henry taught in one of the grades. Both are excellent young people and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

SHOCKING AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Grand-daughter of the Late Maj. Geo. Chesnut, of Bethel Township, One of the Victims.

Last Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. James Topley and two little sons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Hildinger all of McKeesport, Pa., left that city in a high-powered Abbott-Detroit automobile, and went over to Everett, Pa., to spend the "Fourth" in the home of Mrs. Caspar Lowery. Sunday afternoon, the party accompanied by Mrs. Lowery and her grand-daughter, twelve-year-old Dolly Price, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Price, of Everett, started to return to McKeesport. All went well until a point about three miles east of Stoystown was reached, when the driver, Mr. Topley, attempted to pass a car. In making the attempt, the car skidded, turned a double summersault, destroyed the car, and up to the time of going to press, four of the party have died, and two of the others are not expected to live.

Little Dolly Price was killed instantly. James Topley, the driver and owner of the car, died just as he reached the hospital at Johnstown. Mrs. Topley and Mrs. Hildinger have died since being taken to the hospital, and Mr. Hildinger's death is momentarily expected.

Mrs. Hildinger, was Minnie Hedding, a daughter of the late John M. Hedding. Her mother is Lizzie Chesnut, a daughter of the late Major Chesnut, between Warfordsburg and Hancock, and she is a sister of George W. Chesnut, now residing on part of the old homestead. Mrs. Hedding was in this county at the time of the accident, she having been called to this county to attend the funeral of her sister Mrs. Lemuel Kirk.

There is no question but the accident was entirely due to reckless driving. He had a high powered car, nearly new, and took delight in passing everything on the road.

Mr. Topley was aged about 45 years; was a wealthy contractor; a member of the Presbyterian church, and a trustee in his congregation; he was, also, President of the McKeesport school board.

Mr. Hildinger was about the same age as his friend Mr. Topley, and was also wealthy.

Teachers Wanted.

The School Directors of Wells township, Fulton county, Pa., will meet at No. 2 schoolhouse July 11, 1914 at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of electing teachers for the ensuing term. Applications from experienced teachers solicited.

By order of the Board,
JOHN R. LOCKARD,
R. B. CAMPBELL, Secretary.
President.
