For that new suit to wear to the Old Soldier's Reunion, you should see the new ones for Fall at J. K. Johnston's 8-6-2t.

There was a mistake in the date of the announcement of the Soldiers Reunion at Needmore. It is September 4, 1914, instead of November.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and fallow.

Eld. H. H. Lefferts, of Leesburg, Va., will preach at Moses Mellott's on Friday evening, August 14th; and both morning and afternoon, August 15th and 16th, at Needmore. On Sunday evening, August 16th he will preach at D. W. Mellott's, at Plum Run.

After having caught and impounded 120 dogs in three weeks, Harrisburg's official dog catcher resigned last week. He was bitten more than three dozen times, and received numerous thumps on the head from irate dog owners. He received $120 for his "fun."

Mrs. Euphemia Pomeroy, widow of the late Stephen Pomeroy a former pastor of the Presbyterian Church of McConnellsburg and well known throughout the Cumberland Valley, died at her home in Harrisburg, Sunday, July 25, 1914, after a long illness, aged 72 years.

Hon. J. E. Thropp's chauffeur, of Everett, ran over and killed J. H. Covalt's trick dog while passing through this place Monday. Mr. Thropp left his card in case of damages. Our old friend "Nipp", who suns his rheumatism in the middle of the square near this office should read this notice and take warning.

The J. Nelson Sipes building, corner of Second and Water streets, was given a coat of paint last week, which brightened up that corner nicely. Let the good work go on. It is not only money saved by preserving the buildings, but it gives a good impression of the town to the thousands of summer travelers. The Trans-State highway has made McConnellsburg famous as a halfway station.

Some one broke to pieces George E. Tice's mail box. A year ago some one "borrowed" a shock of corn from a neighbor and placed it in George's corn field. George thinks the mail box was destroyed by the same party. Destroying, or meddling with mail boxes, is an offense for United States officials to punish. We would much rather take chance on stealing corn than to risk getting Uncle Sam after us by tampering with mail boxes.

While John Bain, of Webster Mills, was picking huckleberries last week on the mountain near by, he approached a peculiar looking formation of rock with the intention of examining it when he found himself surrounded by rattlesnakes. Mr. Bain viewed them with astonishment until a big one moved toward him and he then left the spot somewhat foster than when he approached it. The number of "snakes" in the "flock" when the report reached this place was conservatively placed at 200.

Notice.

Should Saturday, August 15th, be a stormy day so that people cannot attend the Sunday School picnic at Laurel Ridge, a festival will be held at that place the evening of the same day. Proceeds for benefit of church and Sunday School.

GEORGE LYNCH, Secretary.

IN McCONNELLSBURG.

The Evidence Is Supplied by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of McConnellsburg, what can it be?

Miss Susan Peightel, Main St., McConnellsburg, Pa., says: "I was in poor health for some time and I believe that weak kidneys caused the trouble. I suffered greatly from severe pains in my back which often darted into my head. I often became dizzy and had chills. I was losing strength daily, and felt poorly in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I procured a supply at Trout's Drug Store. They acted just as represented and brought me quick relief. I know of other people who have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with great satisfaction."

RE ENDORSEMENT.

On December 10, 1913 Miss Peightel said: "I can't make my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills too strong, and I willingly verify my former statement. Whenever I need a kidney remedy, I take Doan's Kidney Pills and am all right in a few days."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Peightel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
