

Pictures of World Events for News Readers

In This Department Our Readers in Fulton County and Elsewhere May journey Around the World With the Camera on the Trail of History Making Happenings.

GERMAN DIRIGIBLE HOVERING OVER BRITISH FLEET

GERMANY'S POWERFUL TORPEDO BOAT FLOTILLA

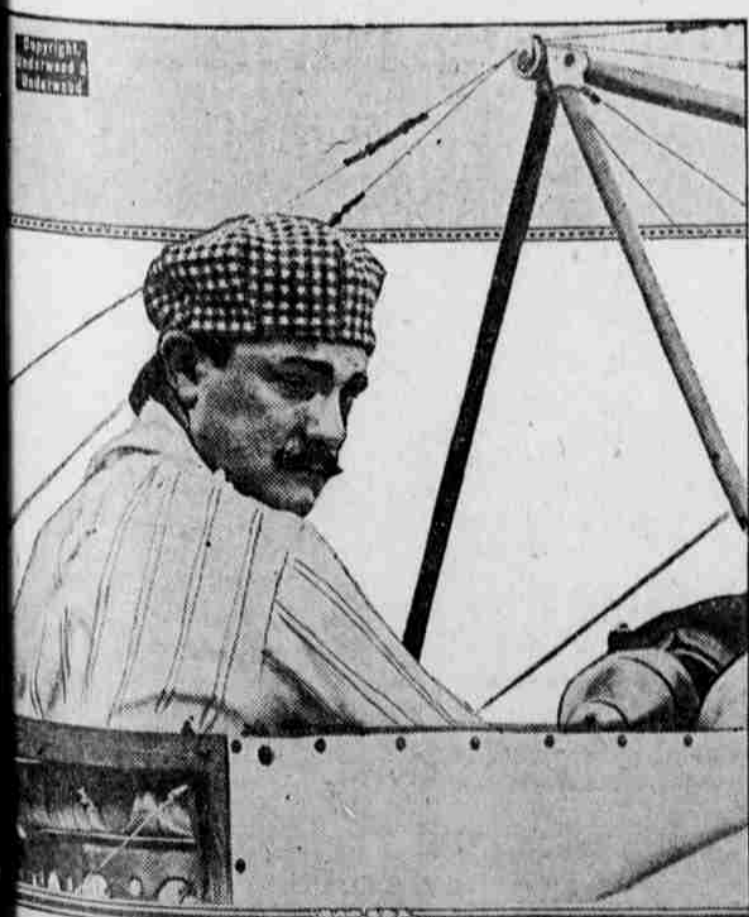

SERVIAN INFANTRY MARCHING TO THE FRONTIER

AUSTRIAN CADETS BEING SWORN IN AS OFFICERS

ROLAND GARROS, HERO OF THE AIR

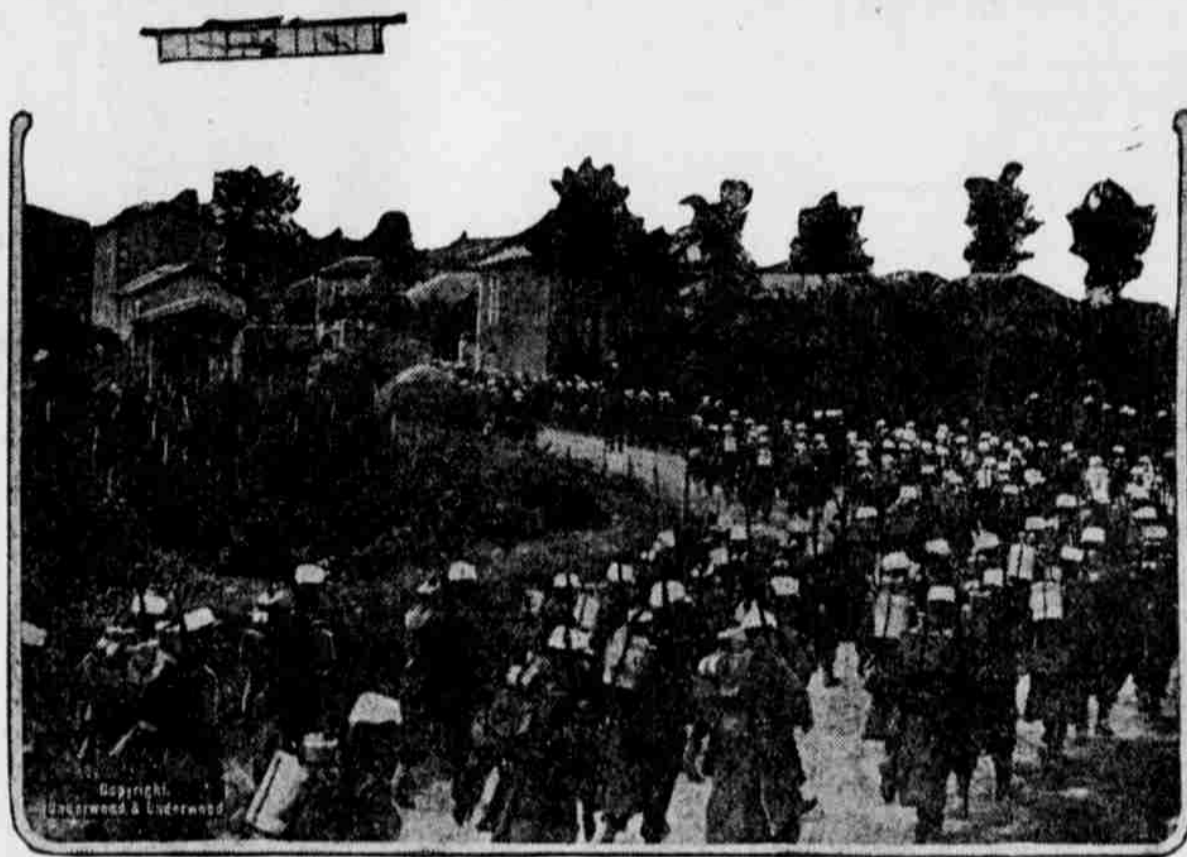

One of the first incidents of the European war was the heroic act of Roland Garros, famous French aviator, who hurled his aeroplane against a German dirigible, destroying it and its 25 occupants and losing his own life.

GERMANY'S NAVAL CHIEF

High Admiral P. T. von Tirpitz, commander of the naval forces of Germany.

FRENCH REGIMENT HURRYING TO THE GERMAN BORDER

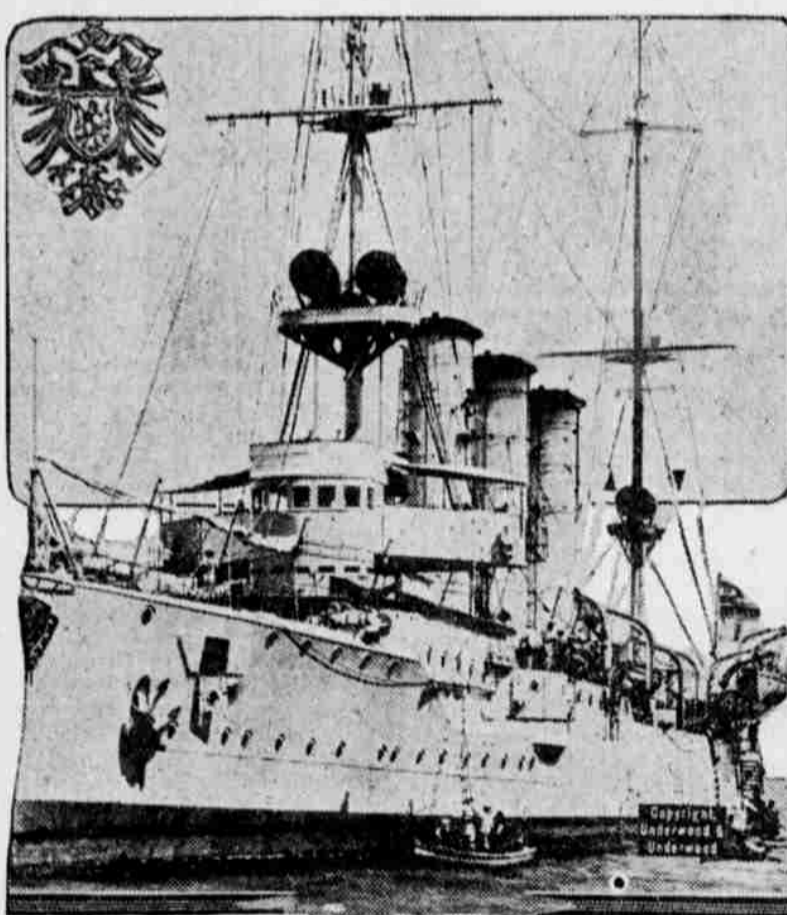

France is hurrying her troops by the hundred thousand toward the German frontier and Belgium. One of the regiments is here pictured marching through a village, with an aeroplane in advance as scout.

LIBAU, RUSSIAN NAVAL STATION SHELLED BY GERMAN CRUISER

GERMAN CRUISER DRESDEN IN ATLANTIC

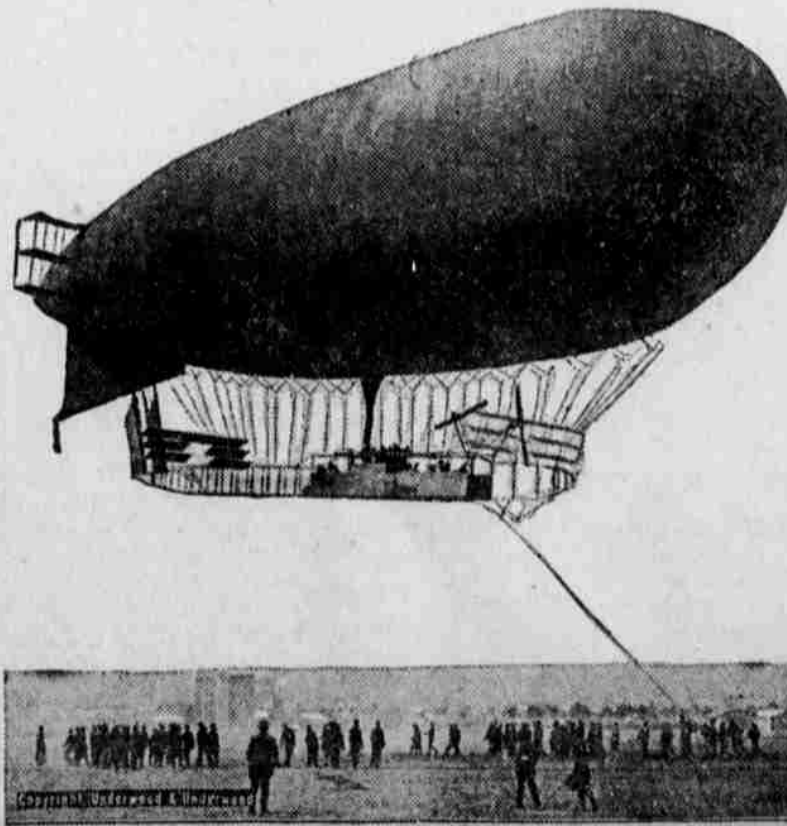

The German cruiser Dresden has been reported off Sandy Hook, presumably lying in wait to intercept the merchant ships of France and England.

LEADS HIS TROOPS TO WAR

King Albert of Belgium, who went to the front to command his army that bravely opposed the passage of German troops across Belgium to France.

ONE OF FRANCE'S GIANT DIRIGIBLES

KEYSTONE STATE IN SHORT ORDER

Latest News Happenings Gathered From Here and There.

TOLD IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Motorcyclist Charges Bull and Saves Girl—Coal Falls Kill Two Miners. Man Killed in Auto Upset.

Very few of Harrisburg's industries have been affected by the war.

The Harrisburg Civic Club has arranged for a second fly-killing contest.

Dauphin county has received a steel jury wheel to replace that bought in 1810.

Wellington G. Jones has been elected president of the Harrisburg Sporting Writers' Association.

A corner stone for the Church of the Sacred Heart, at Cornwall, was laid Thursday.

George Wilman, a merchant, of Shenandoah, fell from the roof of a building he was erecting and was seriously injured.

Because he was sued by his wife for non-support, John Shuttleworth, of West Schuylkill, stabbed himself in the breast.

Francis Whary, fifty years old, was killed at Shamokin when he fell down a breast, a distance of sixty feet. Whary leaves a widow and children.

Henry Joyce, of Locust Gap, forty-five years old, a miner, was probably fatally burned in a premature explosion.

The annual convention of Juniata County Patriotic Order Sons of America, was held at Thompsettown. About five hundred of the order attended.

Two miners were killed by falls of coal. At the Eagle Hill Colliery Joseph Lucas, fifty-two years old, was killed. Paul Yelso was killed at the Otto Colliery, at Branchdale.

Nearly a score of missionaries, who will sail for foreign fields from San Francisco, on the S. S. Siberia, on September 5, were given a farewell reception at Mt. Gretna.

The Burnham Fire Company will attend the firemen's convention at Harrisburg next month. They will take their auto truck and will be accompanied by the Burnham Band.

Gertrude Heist, twelve-year-old daughter of Albert Heist, died from injuries suffered by being struck by an automobile on the Penn Street bridge, Reading.

Falling into a bucket of water on the porch of her home, at Altoona, Mildred, the one-year-old daughter of J. Clarence Bergtresser, a motorman, was drowned.

William Mansfield, of Camden, N. J., and Timothy Loughlin, of Mahanoy City, were badly crushed under a falling girder while working on a bridge at Matzeville.

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Reading Y. M. C. A. a call was extended to E. H. McFadden, of Baltimore, to become secretary of the junior department and he will come to Reading September 1.

Friends of Dr. Francis E. Tameraux, of Sunbury, who is in Russia taking a post-graduate course in medicine, fear he has been conscripted into the Czar's army, as they can get no word from him.

When he saw a mad bull chasing Miss Hesse Kauffman, eighteen years old, near Sunbury, Charles Boyer, a motorcyclist, of Crafton, drove his machine at the animal. The cycle struck the bull in the side and Boyer was thrown into the gutter. Frightened at the unexpected attack of the motorcycle the bull turned tail and fled. Boyer suffered many bruises and the girl fainted.

The Kittanning Plate Glass Company, through its president, H. B. Hileman, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy with liabilities of $500,136 and assets of $594,586. The company's factory was destroyed by a wind storm last May, and the stockholders were unable to decide upon financial plans to rebuild it.

President Judge Herbert W. Cummings, directed the School Board of Coal Township to turn over the books of the district to the township auditors. An alleged discrepancy of $900 exists in the accounts of the district, and the auditors asserted they could not get at the books.

Martin A. Haverman, a business man, was killed and another man and two women seriously hurt when their automobile overturned in the Evergreen Road, Pittsburgh.

Several York factories have been placed on short time because of the war. Among them is the A. B. Farquhar Company, Limited, which has a large foreign trade in farm machinery. A. B. Farquhar, head of the concern, is in Europe and no word has been received from him. It is believed he is in Paris.

The fifth annual reunion of the Odé Fellows of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginians and District of Columbia was held at Pen-Mar Park Thursday, with the largest crowd that has ever been assembled at the park.

FIRING ON AERIAL SCOUT

