In addition to being one of Uncle Sam's most efficient R. R. mail carriers, M. A. Detwiler, of Three Springs, owns a good farm and is giving especial attention to the breeding of purebred stock. He now owns a splendid imported stallion and a thoroughbred Guernsey bull, both of which will be kept for service at his barns at what is known as the Bowser farm near Three Springs.

Several four-horse loads of ornamental stones arrived from Harrisburg Saturday for the new front for the First National Bank. Among the larger pieces was a stone weighing about two tons. Since two-ton stones are not handled here very often, suitable derricks for unloading were not at hand, and there was considerable "fun" connected with getting the "baste" off of the wagon.

The NEWS will find 'em. This time it is a former resident of Burnt Cabins and McConnellsburg, that got away, but wants the NEWS. A recent letter from Mrs. J. F. Hassell, of Johnstown, requests that the NEWS be continued, as it keeps memories of old Fulton fresh. Mr. J. F. Hassell operated the Hays blacksmith shop on west "Lincoln Way," in this place many years ago.

Edward Hendershot and wife, near Harrisonville, were shopping in town Tuesday. Mr. Hendershot is not in favor of having his grounds made the dumping place for stolen autos, as was the case last week. The finding of cold autos in one's back woods smacks too much of mystery that suggests possible murders, or other blood curdling crimes, and interferes with the sound sleep farmers need just now.

We are indebted to J. W. Deshong, of Licking Creek township, for a bunch of live news he reported when he and J. H. Yeager, of Chambersburg dropped in to see us Monday. Mrs. T. A. Yeager and her son John, and Miss Mollie Mellott, all of Chambersburg, had visited in Mr. Deshong's home for two weeks, and on that morning he brought them to town where they "changed cars" to the 12:15 hack to Mercersburg, on their way home. Mr. Deshong then told us of a sly wedding that took place in his section Sunday evening. Friends, We would as soon have you bring in a pocketful of good news as a pocketful of apples—much as we like apples.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns? The generous statement of this Chambersburg resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

Mrs. J. W. Ankerbrant, 461 S. Main St., Chambersburg, Pa., says: "My kidneys were weak and I suffered from hard back-aches and dizzy spells and my eyes were affected. Whenever I caught cold the trouble was worse. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and got great relief. They made my kidneys act right and removed the aches and pains in my back. Others of the family have been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills. I willingly recommend them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ankerbrant had Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
