Rahab, The Harlot. By REV. L. W. GOSNELL. Assistant to the Dean, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

TEXT—By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. Hebrews 11:31.

When Israel reached the borders of Canaan, Joshua sent two men to spy out the land, especially the city of Jericho. They lodged in the house of Rahab the harlot, who concealed them, and helped them to escape by letting them down by a cord from her house, which was on the town wall.

Love the Basis. I. The answer of Jesus, vv. 28-34. The scribe's question seemed to be quite specific and so the Lord strikes at once at the heart and by his quotation reveals to us the fact that the principle which is the inspiration of the law is that of love.

Human and Deity. II. The question of Jesus, vv. 35-37. Our Lord's question in return was a Messianic one and he grounds his argument on the 110th Psalm, a Messianic one. Jesus is inferior to David as his son according to the flesh but superior to him as lord of the kingdom of which David himself is a subject and not the sovereign.

Merely Curiosity. "Did you call for the police?" asked the officer as he came up out of breath. "Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "How be ye?"

Bound to Kick, Anyway. Hargis was lying on the couch very ill. The servant in the next room knocked down some dishes with a tremendous clatter. Hargis' nerves were quite unstrung and he called out in a rage.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON. LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 6. THE GREAT COMMANDMENTS.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 12:28-34. GOLDEN TEXT—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself." Luke 10:27.

This lesson considers a third question asked of our Lord; two others in this connection we studied last week. It was not so much a question of placing one commandment in competition with another, but rather which commandment most clearly epitomizes or reveals the final principle in law. It was the business of this scribe to know the law and to interpret the commandments. Jesus in his reply quotes from Deut. 5:4, and from Lev. 19:18, which are both in a sense an exposition of the Decalogue.

Human and Deity. II. The question of Jesus, vv. 35-37. Our Lord's question in return was a Messianic one and he grounds his argument on the 110th Psalm, a Messianic one. Jesus is inferior to David as his son according to the flesh but superior to him as lord of the kingdom of which David himself is a subject and not the sovereign.

Merely Curiosity. "Did you call for the police?" asked the officer as he came up out of breath. "Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "How be ye?"

Bound to Kick, Anyway. Hargis was lying on the couch very ill. The servant in the next room knocked down some dishes with a tremendous clatter. Hargis' nerves were quite unstrung and he called out in a rage.

WHISTLE AS BUSINESS CALL. Blind Newspaper Seller Has Educated His Patrons to Wait for and Recognize the Sound.

There is a totally blind man in Worcester, England, who has adopted a novel method of disposing of local newspapers. He walks up and down the various roads continuously blowing a whistle, which gives a distinctive sound. Residents, on hearing the whistle, send their children to purchase a paper from "Blind Charlie," as he is familiarly called. His name is Gardner, and he has been blind since boyhood.

He knows his papers by "feel," and is quite competent with change. One day someone knowingly or unknowingly tried to palm off a bad sixpence on him, but "Blind Charlie" was not "having any," as people say. In a very real sense this man may be said to whistle for his living.

BUMPS ITCHED ON BODY. Route No. 3, Cooper, Texas—"I was taken with an itching and my whole body got covered with little red bumps. It would itch till I would scratch the blood out of my skin and then it was just like fire. I could not sleep at night until I got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I would bathe in warm water with Cuticura Soap and then put on the Cuticura Ointment and I got well quick. Two weeks from the time I commenced to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment I was sound and well and I have not been bothered since."

"My baby had a breaking out on his ear and behind it and he would crawl the skin off. It spread and his little ear was nearly rotted off. I washed it good with the Cuticura Soap and then put on the Cuticura Ointment and they healed it up." (Signed) Mrs. Mary Boles, Jan. 25, 1914. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

H. G. Wells on America. I came to America balancing between hope and skepticism. The European world is full of the criticism of America; and, for the matter of that, America, too, is full of it; hostility and depreciation prevail—overmuch; for, in spite of rawness and vehemence and a scum of blatant, oh! quite asinine folly, the United States of America remains the greatest country in the world and the living hope of mankind. It is the supreme break with the old tradition; it is the freshest and most valiant beginning that has ever been made in human life.—From "The Passionate Friends."

In the Summertime. "Married men at this season have a pale, seedy look, a worried look and their eyes tend to be dull and bloodshot." The speaker was Dr. George Cust Clayton, the Pittsburgh sociologist. He resumed: "When the wife is away the man will play, you know. One of these pale, red-eyed men said to me yesterday over his pick-me-up luncheon of chopped onions, pickled herring and dark beer: "I've got to steady down, even though my wife won't be back from the country till next week."

Bound to Kick, Anyway. Hargis was lying on the couch very ill. The servant in the next room knocked down some dishes with a tremendous clatter. Hargis' nerves were quite unstrung and he called out in a rage. "I suppose you have broken all the plates?" "No," replied the servant meekly. "There isn't one broken." "Well, then," growled the enraged invalid, "why did you make all that noise for nothing?"—Everybody's Magazine.

Merely Curiosity. "Did you call for the police?" asked the officer as he came up out of breath. "Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "How be ye?" "What's the idea? Is anything wrong?" "Not a thing. I've read so much about you folks in the paper that I thought I'd like to see how one of you really looks."

DOCTOR WU AS MATCHMAKER. Celestial Diplomat Tells of Success He Had in Bringing Together Two Fond Hearts.

"Once I was an involuntary matchmaker," says Wu Ting Fang in a recent chapter of his book, "America Through the Spectacles of an Oriental Diplomat." Some years ago, during my first mission in Washington, I was invited to attend the wedding of the daughter of the chief justice of the Supreme court. When I entered the breakfast room, I saw the bridesmaids and a number of young men.

"Going up to one of the bridesmaids, whom I had previously met, and who was the daughter of a senator, I asked her when it would be her turn to become a bride. She modestly said that she did not know, as she had not yet had an offer. Turning to the group of young men who were in the room, I jocularly remarked to one of them: 'This is a beautiful lady. Would you not like to marry her?' He replied: 'I shall be most delighted to.' Then I said to the young lady: 'Will you accept his offer?' She seemed slightly embarrassed, and said something to the effect that as she did not know the gentleman, she could not give a definite answer.

"After a few days I met the young lady at an 'At Home' party, when she scolded me for being so blunt with her before the young man. I told her I was actuated by the best of motives. A few months later I received an invitation from the young lady's parents, asking me to be present at the wedding of their daughter. I thought I would go and find out whether the bridegroom was the young man whom I had introduced to the young lady, and as soon as I entered the house, the mother of the bride, to my agreeable surprise, informed me that it was I who had first brought the young couple together, and both the bride and the bridegroom heartily thanked me for my good offices."—Youth's Companion.

Civic Service for Children. Civic work by children has grown apace and the youngsters have taken effective part in many a "swat the fly" campaign or "cleanup" day. The American Civic association has recently organized a department of Junior Civic Leagues under the chairmanship of Maude Van Buren. It aims to develop good citizenship by emphasizing the spirit of civic service and familiarizing the children with the simple municipal ordinances which affect the child's everyday life. Home gardening is promoted by the department.
