The motorcycle accident on Sloan's hill did not happen on Sunday as reported by us last week. It occurred on Monday. Mr. Hann was working at Sloan Warthin's and he was using his machine to go on an errand at the time of the accident.

Hon. John P. Sipes and wife, and Mrs. George Mock autoed to Martinsburg, Blair county, last Friday to attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. and Mrs. George Shimer. Miss Mary Stouteagle accompanied them to Everett where she visited Dr. and Mrs. Hanks.

Saturday afternoon Postmaster and Mrs. S. B. Woollet with M. G. Kirk at the wheel, motored in the Woollet Overland to Mercersburg to meet Miss Rose Fisher, and her friend, Miss Grace Buck. Miss Fisher and Miss Buck returned to Chambersburg early Monday morning.

The white stone front to the First National Bank is about completed. Fifteen tons of stone were used, some of which weighed over a ton. Massive columns support more than three tons of capping over the door, giving the impression of solidity in keeping with the established reputation of that institution.

Sheriff J. J. Harris made a trip to the foot of the Allegheny mountain with W. A. Mellott, who was looking for a miller. Mrs. J. A. Sloan, and her two children, went with the Sheriff as far as Bedford, on her way to her home in Altoona. The round trip for the Sheriff in his Ford car was ninety-six miles.

The M. E. Sunday School picnic at Dougley last Thursday afternoon was a great treat for both old and young members. About a hundred took supper. The Dougley furnished sparkling drink. That good old Methodist style—chicken—was there in abundance. Only those who attend Fulton county picnics can imagine the variety of good things our ladies make to eat.

T. H. Gough and party, of Tarentum, Pa., passed through this place a few days ago and stopped in town for some tire repairs. He said that a short distance this side of Chambersburg, one of his front tires picked up six tacks, necessitating a long delay, much to his inconvenience. From the position of the tacks in the fabric of the tire he was convinced that every tack was standing on its head, as though placed in that position by some miscreant.

Jeremiah D. Zimmerman, a hustling farmer of New Carlisle, Ohio, in company with his wife, and with his brother Seth and wife, of Springfield, Ohio, motored to Sylvan, Pa., the place of their nativity where they greeted old friends during a few weeks' outing. They then recently returned home by way of McConnellsburg, calling to see their old friend and schoolmate, C. J. Brewer and remained over night with him.
