We congratulate Miss Taylor on her assignment to this institution, as she possesses more than ordinary talent as an artist.

They Painted The Parsonage.

Editor News:—I noticed in a recent number of your valuable paper that "A pocketful of news was as acceptable as a pocketful of apples—much as we like apples." Well I suppose you like both. Now, what do you think! Several weeks ago many of our friends of the different communities donated to us enough cash to paint our dwelling, inside and out, with two coats, giving it a splendid appearance; and we take this method to thank all the donors for their kindness for so doing.

The following amounts were given: Damascus, $12; Laurel Ridge, $10.05; Whips Cove (Jerusalem church) $5.75; Pleasant Grove, $5.50; Sideling Hill, $4.32; and Needmore, $6.00. Mr. Edward McCray, our nearest neighbor, seems to have been the leading spirit in the good work, he sent out subscription papers to all above named places. Mr. Earl Bard, of Sipes Mills, who is an up-to-date painter, did the painting in addition to donating $1.50, making a total of $47.12. A. G. B. Powers and Wife.

The Needmore Reunion.

We have not had a direct report from the Soldiers' Reunion held at Needmore last Friday; but we hear that a large crowd attended. Candidates Dershem and Focht addressed their audiences in their accustomed styles. Rev. R. E. Peterman, and others talked to the Veterans from the platform.

What a contrast between this meeting and the "meetings" of soldiers on the same day in the countries across the Atlantic! On this side of the waters we celebrated the preservation of the Union. On the other side, soldiers were killing scores of thousands of their fellows in order that ambitious potentates might extend their domains at the expense of others.

For the Whole Family.

Get your fill of delightful fact and fiction by reading the Philadelphia Press of Sunday, September 13. Besides other interesting features, there will be six stories, by the following authors: Elmore Elliott Peake, John Kendrick Bongs, Billy Evans, Shorty Wells, and others.

L. W. FUNK

-- DEALER IN --

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
