Miss Gladys Seylar, of Foltz, recently spent a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mock, near town.

Jury Commissioner H. C. Mumma, is building a two-story addition to his dwelling in Licking Creek township.

Preaching next Lord's day at Little Cove in the morning, and in the Reformed church in McConnellsburg in the evening at 7:30.

County Commissioners W. L. Sprowl and F. M. Lodge were in town Thursday. Mr. Sprowl brought with him J. C. Kirk and H. L. Wishart, for company on the long drive from Wells.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

On account of the fact that Rev. Powers has accepted an invitation to deliver the address at the Jonas Mellott family reunion, the appointment for preaching at Pleasant Grove has been changed from 10 o'clock on Sunday September 13th to 7:30 in the evening of the same day.

Preaching at Asbury Sunday, September 13th, at 10:30. Services in the Grove at Shane's school house will begin Wednesday evening, and will continue until Sunday evening. On Sunday, there will be preaching in the Grove at 10:30, 2:30, and at 7:30. Rev. J. E. Croft.

In order to verify the big snake stories that come up from Webster Mills from time to time, Scott Hann brought the stuffed skin of a yellow rattler to town Saturday. His snakeship measured four feet and three inches in length. Loathsome as they are, a yellow rattler is a beautifully marked creature.

Her name is Eunice Marguerite, and her weight was eight pounds avoirdupois when she arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg M. Skinner at Simms, Mont. an hour before noon on Tuesday the first day of September, 1914. The News extends congratulations, not only to the happy parents, but to the jubilant grandparents, Max and Phoebe.

The Pennsylvania horse is now worth $139 per head, according to a report just issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, while a year ago his average value was $133. There are 584,000 horses on the farms of this state and they are valued at $81,176,000. In 1910 the number of horses in this state was 550,000 and had an aggregate value of $72,600,000.

The wise merchant would rather make a dollar of net profit from three sales, made in the same space of time and with the same "running expenses" than to make fifty cents profit on one sale. And in making a large volume of sales, and dividing his per-sale profits with the customers, he is adding largely to his store's prestige and to the "good will" which it enjoys.

The old fashioned way of heating dwellings is rapidly giving way to the more up-to-date boiler and radiator method. Both in town and in the country, the stove for heating purposes is being discarded. We notice a big lot of radiators lying in front of the D. E. Little residence, ready to be installed. By the latter method all cold corners, as well as superheated ones, are eliminated, and the work of caring for a stove in each room greatly lightens the housekeeper's work.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in McConnellsburg.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a McConnellsburg citizen.
Can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? Mrs. D. Keyser, Main St., McConnellsburg, Pa., says: "My back had been causing me a lot of trouble for a long time. It ached constantly and the pains in my loins were so severe that it was almost impossible for me to bend over. I had but little strength and my housework became a burden. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally got a supply at Trout's Drug Store. I had only taken one box when I was completely cured. It is nearly three years since I have taken any kidney remedy and I know my cure has been permanent."

A LATER ENDORSEMENT
On December 10, 1913, Mrs. Keyser said: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and willingly allow you to use the endorsement I gave for them some years ago."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Keyser had. Foster-Milbur Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
