BELGIANS FLEEING AND ADVANCING

Below, the entire population of Tirlemont fleeing for life from the rapidly advancing Germans, carrying their most precious little possessions. Above, Belgian infantry in column formation screened by artillery under the trees in the distance, marching to repulse the Germans at Haalen.

CLEARING THE WAY FOR ANTWERP'S GUNS

When the Belgians retired to Antwerp many houses in the suburbs were burned in order to clear the land in front of the fortifications. At the left a soldier is seen setting fire to a cottage with a lighted broom.

BRIDGE ACROSS THE MEUSE DESTROYED BY BELGIANS

In order to impede the advance of the Germans the Belgians destroyed this steel and concrete bridge across the Meuse river. This photograph was made at great risk, as an order had been issued to shoot photographers caught making pictures.

READY FOR THEIR ERRAND OF MERCY

Some of the American Red Cross nurses ready to sail on the steamer Red Cross for service on the battlefields of Europe. In front are Mary Francis Keller, May A. Brownell and Anna L. Rentinger. At the rear, Mary E. Gladwin, Helen Scott Hay (in charge), Lucy Minnerode and Mary F. Farley.

REFUGEES IN CATTLE CAR

American and English refugees fleeing from France in a cattle car. They were glad to obtain even that crude transportation.

London.—A Willesden shopkeeper is disposing of a stock of small silk German flags by offering them as "pipe cleaners; four a penny."

VISE DEVASTATED BY THE INVADING GERMANS

Because Vise, Belgium, offered a stout resistance to the German troops they left it in the condition here shown—a mass of ruins.

FRENCH ARTILLERY IN DIFFICULTIES

French artillery division that got into trouble while maneuvering for an advantageous position.

SAILING OF THE RED CROSS DELAYED

This is the steamer Red Cross, formerly the Hamburg, whose sailing from New York with American Red Cross nurses and surgeons was delayed by protests of the English and French consuls because some of the crew were Germans.

FOR LOYAL GERMAN WOMEN AUSTRIAN SHARPSHOOTERS HOLD BACK SERBS

This ring of the German Order of the Iron Cross is being bestowed upon many of the loyal women of Germany who contribute to the kaiser's war fund, William following the example set by his grandfather in 1870.

Paris.—In the fighting at Dieuze it is declared the Germans signaled for a masked battery to open fire on the French by having a military band play Chopin's Funeral March.
