TEXT-"And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, stand forth. . . . Stretch forth thine hand." Mark 8:3, 5.

> This miracle was performed by Jesus on the Sabbath day, while his enemies watched him to see whether he would heal on that day, that they might accuse him. And still Jesus is performing the miracle of healing the soul. even his enemies being witnesses. This command is a demand to a man who was sure be could not obey. and who had not the strength to do it. It is a call for the adventure of faith, even as Abraham was called to go out and did so, not knowing whither he went. It boldly asks me to do the impossible and discloses the source of power to do it, revealing the sympathetic, human Jesus as the one able to save. A man with a withered hand. Stand forth. Stretch it forth. Whole as the other. And Jesus. What a gos pel the story preaches! What a Savlor it reveals! How it rebukes our unfaith! Good news is better than good advice. This man needed good news: he got it; he believed it; he received it; he rejoiced in it; so may you.

Helplessness.

There was a man there which had a withered hand. This is a typical case. an illustration of what Jesus Christ can do for this and other spiritual disorders and diseases set forth by all rope. his cases of healing. And no case ever is too hard for the great physician.

There was only one thing wrong with this man, he was by no means the worst in Capernaum. A withered hand is not so had as leprosy. But the man was helpless. Tradition says he was a carpenter; what could he do with a withered hand?

What is your condition before God? You may think it only as insignificant as a withered hand, but you are a sinner. The withering of the muscle, the paralysis of nerve, is no more disastrous to bodily effort than the blighting and enfeebling power of sin is destructive of all holy, acceptable service with God. Your poverty of life, your feeble sensibilities with reference to righteousness, your faint and feeble desires for a godlike life-how eloquent of these is that withered hand. And if your right hand is withered you know it, and other people know it too. Your sin will find you out. Your sin makes you helpless, your work is useless, and your testimony is fruitless. May the presence of Christ help you to realize how vast and vital is the helplessness of a withered hand. "O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from this body of death?"

JUDGMENT OF THE NATIONS.

LESSON TEXT-Matt. 25:21-46. GOLDEN TEXT-Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of the least, ye did it not unto Me. Matt. 25:45.

I. The Congregation, vv. 31-33. This is one of the difficult and much-controverted passages of our Lord's Olivet prophecy. The title "Son of Man" is one which refers to our Lord's earthly relations and administration, and is one not otherwise used in this prophecy. Jesus is speaking to his disciples. He looks beyond the dark passion so rapidly approaching to the light of the ultimate fulfilling of his purpose for this world. Our Lord here makes no reference to the final judgment mentioned in the Apocalypse. In that hour earth and heaven will flee away. Here there is no such passing away nor do the dead appear. The son is enthroned. He administers judgment. He is assisted by the accompanying angels. The believer must appear before the judgment (II Cor. 5:10; Rom. 14:10), but his destiny is decided the moment he believes, John 5:24. Christ first came in humiliation, when he comes this time 'twill be in "glory" (v. 31). He may come at any moment, Matt. 24:42-44. This scene is more the description of a judgment than of a trial. The testing is taking place today. Separating Test.

II. Those Commended, vv. 34-40. The separating test is the attitude of the nations toward the brethren of the Lord. Here Jesus emphatically speaks of his kingship, hence the honored position, "on his right hand."

In his'teaching Jesus had emphasized the fact that those who do the will of God are his next of kin. Here they are, "Ye blessed of my father." "well spoken of." We are blessed of God in the heavenlies in Christ, Eph. 10 contrasted with II Tim. 2:2; 4:8; James 2:5; Rev. 21:7. This blessing is prepared "from the foundation of the world" (v. 34). Man's destiny depends upon the object and act of his dence of that faith is in his conduct (Gal. 5:6; James 2:17, 18). Altruism

My sins, my sins, my Savior! How sad on Thee they fall! Seen through Thy gentle patience, I tenfold feel them all.

Hope.

Christ's gracious presence brought sure hope to that otherwise helpless sufferer. So far as the record goes, Christ's gracious intervention was unsolicited. But he was there to feel for, and help, and heal the despairing. Do you not remember the man at the pool of Bethesda? When Jesus saw him he sald, Wilt thou he made whole? He seeks out the sick, the sinful, the sore distressed. He knows about the sheep that is lost, and he goes after it until he finds it. The sinner may be content in his sins, but the Savior seeks the sinner-blessed be his name. That is my star of hope in the dark night of my life; that is the comfort in my hour of sorrow; that is my joy when I know that sin is sapping and will destroy my soul. "But God commendeth his love toward us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us."

Thank God for one in whom we may hope. He is here, just now, facing us, and for the very same purpose. He detects human incompleteness; he says, "In me is thy hope."

My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness; in Christ, the Solid Rock, I stand, All other ground is sinking sand."

On

Healing.

How simple is the command to the man. Stand forth. Christ met the man on his lowest level, taking him just as he was. No change, no improvement, and no new feeling was asked-nothing, except to act at once, and because Christ bade it. Stand forth. The man could do that, and he did. It seemed like a simple thing, and so it was, but also it was the step which made healing possible. You cannot save yourself, but you can take the first step which brings you into the presence of Jesus. Of course Satan says, Do not stand forth; the crowd will laugh at you, and then Jesus will deceive you. Stand forth. You can do it, and you must.

Stretch forth thine hand. But that is impossible, you say. But the only way to health was the obedience of faith. Christ saves by the impartation of power, but with the concurrence of human effort. The man could not stretch forth his hand-but he did it because he took Jesus at his word. Not waiting for feeling in the withered hand, not even most earnest praying. Just courage to act at Christ's command, to act without feeling, or in flat opposition to it. "And he did so; and his hand was restored whole as the other."
