Sander Cline, the efficient overseer on the work of repairing the C. & B. pike west of this place, is suffering with a badly swollen cheek, probably the effects of a too close shave, and some poisonous substance that found lodgement on the skin.

Mr. and Mrs. Stout, Greencastle, drove their auto to Hagers-town last Friday where they met Mrs. Marshall McKibbin and her little son, George McCauley, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mollie Seylar, who were on their way to this place.

A show held forth for several days last week in Washabaugh's meadow. Saturday night there was a large crowd in attendance, and many horses were hitched along the Lincoln Highway fence.

All that was left of the big touring car that was destroyed by fire on Betz Hill, six miles west of here, a few weeks ago, was dragged into town last week and placed in Cline's garage.

The attention of members of Sabbath schools is called to the importance of signing the petitions sent to every school by the local representatives of the State Sabbath School Association.

Shippensburg officers traced a supposed horse thief through this county last Friday in a taxicab, and followed the trail as far as Ebberts, Somerset county.

Two Accidents. As Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Grove, Mrs. Margaret Johnston and Mr. David Nelson were clearing the tracks of the C. V. railroad, in Mr. Grove's auto, on the Richmond road, last evening, the auto upset, and Mrs. Johnston was pinned under the machine.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spangler had a shower of visitors latter part of last, and first part of this week, namely: Two brothers of Mrs. Spangler, Edward Palmer of Indiana and Lorenzo Palmer, of Mt. Union; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Black, of Huntingdon; Miss Lillian Cook and Miss Sue Spangler, of Cassville; Miss Ada Spangler, of Saltillo, and Mrs. Shenafelt, of Orbisonia.

FACTS AND FICTION.

Experiences of McConnellsbu Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of McConnellsbu is true. Read it and compare evidence from McConnellsbu people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case.

Riley Peck, shoemaker, Pleasant St., McConnellsbu, Pa., says: "Some years ago I was troubled with my kidneys and soreness in my back. I was dizzy at times and it affected my eyes. I had to get up often in the night on account of the kidney secretions. I was tired out when I got up, and I didn't feel like doing any work."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Peck had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WEST DUBLIN.

Your Scribe is teaching the Finleyville Advanced school, on Broad Top. James Lyon and family, Jesse Laidig, Bertha, Viola and Russell McClain were recent visitors to Gettysburg.

Joseph Edwards made a business trip to Ayr township recently to bring home some hogs that he had bought. Edwin Brant made a business trip to Hopewell and Broad-Top recently.

Maggie Price who had been employed at Bedford Springs during the summer has returned to her home.

Mrs. A. C. Marshall and little son, of Pittsburg, are visiting the family of the former's mother, Mrs. Alice Clevenger.

Ruth Lyon recently visited her friend Jennie Cromer, at Port Littleton.

Mrs. Margaret Kesseling, of Huntingdon, spent a few days recently with the family of her brother, Casper Brant.

Margaret Kirk has gone to Huntingdon to attend Juniata College.

Mrs. Mana Doran is visiting friends in Mt Union and vicinity. William Deavor has been busy this week sawing for Reichley Bro's and Company.

Albert King has bought a Ford automobile. Harry Bowen and wife, of Pittsburg, are visiting the family of Mrs. Alice Clevenger.

Edna Laidig, of Dudley, visited relatives in this township recently. Your Scribe has been hearing things at night and seeing things by day.

provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation.

Number Three. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section twenty-one of article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

Amend section twenty-one, article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"No act of the General Assembly shall limit the amount to be recovered for injuries resulting in death, or for injuries to persons or property, and in case of death from such injuries, the right of action shall survive, and the General Assembly shall prescribe for whose benefit such actions shall be prosecuted. No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which such actions shall be brought against corporations for injuries to persons or property, or for other causes different from those fixed by general laws regulating actions against natural persons, and such acts now existing are avoided," so that it shall read as follows:

The General Assembly may enact laws requiring the payment by employers, employers and employees jointly, of reasonable compensation for injuries to employees arising in the course of their employment, and for occupational diseases of employees, whether or not such injuries or diseases result in death, and regardless of fault of employer or employee, and fixing the basis of ascertainment of such compensation and the maximum and minimum limits thereof, and providing special or general remedies for the collection thereof; but in no other cases shall the General Assembly limit the amount to be recovered for injuries resulting in death, or for injuries to persons or property, and in case of death from such injuries, the right of action shall survive, and the General Assembly shall prescribe for whose benefit such actions shall be prosecuted. No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which suits may be brought against corporations for injuries to persons or property, or for other causes, different from those fixed by general laws regulating actions against natural persons, and such acts now existing are avoided.

Number Five. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of this Commonwealth in accordance with provisions of the eighteenth (XVIII) article thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth (XVIII) article thereof:

Laws may be passed providing for a system of registering, transferring, insuring of and guaranteeing land titles by the State, or by the counties thereof, and for settling and determining adverse or other claims to and interests in lands the titles to which are so registered, transferred, insured, and guaranteed; and for the creation and collection of indemnity funds; and for carrying the system and powers hereby provided for into effect by such existing courts as may be designated by the Legislature, and by the establishment of such new courts as may be deemed necessary. In matters arising in and under the operation of such system, judicial powers, with right of appeal, may be conferred by the Legislature upon county recorders and upon other officers by it designated. Such laws may provide for continuing the registering, transferring, insuring, and guaranteeing such titles after the first or original registration has been perfected by the court, and provision may be made for raising the necessary funds for expenses and salaries of officers, which shall be paid out of the treasury of the several counties.
