Lorraine Madden near Dublin Mills has just treated himself and family to a new Ford touring car.

It is said that there are Jews enough in Chambersburg to warrant their purchasing a property to be used as a synagogue, and a movement is now on foot to establish a place of worship of that kind.

Mrs. Charles Fechtley, near Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oswald and Mrs. James Hammond, of Hagerstown, spent a few days last week with Miss Amanda Bender, on east Water street.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Rev. E. J. Croft and Mr. Jesse Laidig placed their automobiles at the service of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church of Green Hill, and eleven of them came to town last week and met at Mrs. George W. Sipes, on east Water street.

Russell Nelson accepted a position to teach in the Grammar department of the public schools in Princeton, N. J., and left Tuesday of last week to open the school. Mr. Nelson had three offers from which to choose—one in Cumberland county, Pa., one, in Massachusetts, and the one he accepted.

The Carlisle Presbytery which held its sessions in Middletown, last week adjourned to meet in Gettysburg. This meeting will be a notable one because it will be the 175th anniversary of the founding of the Presbyterian church in that place. A committee from the Presbytery has been named to work in conjunction with the church officers.

Mahlon Cline, a former resident of Dublin township, who during the past year or more lived in Michigan, returned recently, and the family took up their residence in the east half of the Blue house on east Water street a few days ago. William Fix, who occupied the house for a short time this summer, removed to John Magsam's new house east of town.

Mr. Sidney Gittens, of Pittsburgh, spent a few days last week visiting Mrs. Keziah Johnston in whose family he lived until he graduated from the McConnellsburg High school about ten years ago. He then attended Westminster College for a time and during the past six years he has been in the employ of the Westinghouse Electric Company, and has charge of their vast real estate interests, and is making a name for himself in the business world. While on the way to this place he visited his brother Charles who has large fruit orchards at Salem, Va.

Among our many friends that called at the NEWS office Tuesday was Dyson F. Fraker, of Fort Littleton. Mr. Fraker returned home last week from a western trip of five or six weeks. Among others that he visited were his sister Mrs. Elmira Lathero at Ames, Iowa; Dr. Hill and the Buckleys at Shelby, and W. Don Morton and wife at Omaha. He spent two weeks or more in the home of his son Dr. Samuel Fraker at Chelsea, Iowa. On his way home, he spent several days in Pittsburgh, visiting Horace Cromer's, Rush Montgomery's and others. Mr. Fraker had a good time, and he is now wondering why he waited forty years to make the trip. Well, getting started is half the trip!

Brief Story of a Life.

A sentence of eight words telling apparently, the story of a wrecked life and the squandering of a fortune, was detected recently on a dollar bill by Paul Wentz, a jeweler of Sharon. It read: "The last of $100,000. Booze done it all. Hell!" Mr. Wentz does not recall who gave the bill. He has placed it on exhibition.
