most valuable nutritive substances, grains, fruits, berries, are thrown to these yeast fungi to devour. The fungi devour this yeast and what they leave, their poisonous excreta, is collected in vast quantities, stored in bottles and barrels, sent into all countries, distributed among all men. And now, day after day, all the organs and tissues of the human body are flooded with this polson, even those which secrete the germ cells, and so the universal weakening is carried down into all succeeding generations.

With half measures we can accomplish nothing. Only the most radical means promise any success whatever. Our aim is the total prohibition of the production and trade in all alcoholic drinks.

Our real, our chief enemy, is the giant capital which is laid down in the brewing, distilling and liquor-selling trades. If prejudices still rule among us it is because this capital controls, directly or indirectly, the whole press, and does not allow proper information to get to the people. Such horrors as a great modern joint-stock brewery perpetuates are unrivaled in the whole world's history. Men in past centuries were made chattel slaves. But the slaves kept their health. Men have been killed by thousands. But the children of the murdered remain strong. Now they make slaves of them and murder them at the same time. They kill them with their children and their children's children. They kill them slowly; they torture them slowly to

DOES NOT INCREASE TAXES.

A builetin issued by the census bureau gives the financial statistics of cities with a population of 30,000 and over. The 24 cities having a population of between 45,000 and 60,000 includes Topeka and Wichita, Kan .- the only two in this group located in temperance states. The average tax rate in the 22 wet cities is $19,28 per thousand of assessed valuation. The tax rate of Wichita (59,222 population) is $15.50; that of Topeka (45,478 population) is given as $13.10. The current rate of the latter, however, including city, county and state, is but $10.50. Only eight of the cities in license states have a less rate than Wichita; none has a smaller rate than the current rate of Topeka. Although Topeka stands at the bottom of the list on pop-Jesus asked for this cup, drank it ulation, only two cities show a larger assessed valution.

DANGER OF MODERATE DRINKING.

Twenty years ago medical science discovered that the white blood corpuscles are the guardians of the body. defending it against disease germs. It has been proved that even alcohol defenders and makes them powerless to destroy the invading foesthis even after very minute doses of alcohol. Moderate drinkers are, it is well known, prone to diseases of the liver. This is because alcohol interferes with its functional duties. Physiological science tells us that the liver destroys much of the polsonous waste matter generated in the body. When alcohol is taken into the system the liver, it seems, goes to work to eliminate that first. The power of the liver being limited, some of the other work is left undone, waste matter returns into the blood and disease is the result.

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who con tinues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for womenand every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

II. Whether your companions folafford to follow theirs. The issue is your convictions, and jeopardize your must give an account of himself unto Christ, and their neglect of duty will not justify yours. What you need is to declare your independence, and not be kept from the nobler life and larger liberty of the Gospel by a lot of "fellows."

Strike out for yourself. Let them crowd who has the courage of his convictions, and who is not afraid of what others may say. Do not wander into the wilderness of sin any longer simply because others do. Break loose from them, even if you have to do it alone, but perhaps you a manly way that you purpose to follow Christ, and ask them to join you, How do you know but that this is just what they are waiting for? III. Whether the others follow you or not, they will certainly have more respect for you. A young soldier who had just enlisted found that he was the only Christian in his tent. It was Man of sorrows is calm in this hour not an easy thing to kneel and pray before the others, but he did it. At once they began to laugh and make away, disagreeable remarks, and at times they threw shoes at him. The young man was troubled and knew not what to do. Finally he went to the chaplain of the regiment and asked his advice. The chaplain told him that under the circumstances he thought it would be justifiable for him to say his prayers in silence after he had retired. Meeting him a few days after the chaplain inquired how he was geting on. "Well, chaplain, I followed your advice for a night or two, but I felt so mean that I could not do it any longer, and so I went back to the old way of kneeling by my bedside, and do you know, chaplain, some of the boys have been converted, and now we have a prayer meeting in the tent every night." IV. Before you decide this question take one good look at "the fellows," and another at Calvary. Ask yourself which has done the most for you, and which is most worthy of your love and loyalty. There is only one who has died for you, only one who can forgive your sins, only one who can satisfy every craving of your heart.

That one is Jesus Christ, the only leader in this world whom it is perfectly safe to follow. You can worship him without idolatry, and love him without disappointment. He is one who has said: "If any man follow me he shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

Found No Comforters.

III. Again praying, vv. 39-42. Again he passes into the loneliness of that midnight hour. Again we hear his triumphant paean of prayer. This time see that there is one person in that heavy with deep sleep. This is a great concerns which temperance fulfillment of Ps. 69:20, "I looked for comforters and found none." His gentle reproach goes unanswered. For a third time he enters the trial and returning commands the disciples to sleep on and take their rest.

There is little doubt that between will not be alone. Tell the fellows in his permission "sleep on" and the declaration "It is enough" that the Savior, in wakeful loneliness, watched over the sleeping disciples. At last he roused them for the enemy, headed by Judas, were at hand. Their dearly bought sleep was short and we can imagine the confusion caused by the torch-bearing mob. The after his victory in prayer. The disciples, not likewise strengthened, flee The Supreme Value of this story lies in the effect it may produce upon each one who comes to know it. To one it does not speak at all, to another, it melts the heart and brings tears to the eye.

While he felt the sense of all through which he was passing, yet he did not once hesitate, John 12:27, 28, never for one moment faltered in his cooperation with the complete will of God. Again we are compelled to bow the head with reverence before his marvelous patience with the disciples. Nowhere else have we found a record that will surpass this picture, especially the latter end, as we see him patiently waiting and watching while they slept. The words of the Psalmist are brought to mind:

Like as a father pitieth His children, So the Lord pitieth them that fear Him For He knoweth our frame. He remembereth that we are dust.

Conscious of his approaching passion, conscious of the strain of the coming hours of that fateful last day, halting on the pathway of his sorrows, he gives his disciples time for repose. While we contrast his self-sacrifice and their selfishness, yet, when we study our own lives, we hardly dare to criticize. We are, however, impressed with the marvelous privilege they allowed to slip from them.

Additions to the plant costing at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars are being built and it will employ 400 men. The brewery employed 40.

EDUCATION AND SALOON MONEY.

An American saloon worker was trying to persuade an Irishman to vote for the saloon by using the threadbare argument that if you close up the saloons and cut off the revenue, it will be necessary to close the public schools. "And then what will your boy do for an education?" "Well, begorrah," said the Hibernian, "I'd rather have my boy learn his A, B, C in heaven than to be able to read Latin in hell."-Vanguard.

WHAT LIQUOR DID.

During a temperance campaign in a certain state the proprietors of the breweries published in a local paper the following notice: "Alexander the Great drank beer and conquered the world before he was thirty-two. Perhaps he might have done it sooner if he had not drunk beer, but you'd better take no chances." Shortly afterward the same paper published the following as a rejoinder: "Alexander the Great died in a drunken debauch at the age of thirty-three. You'd better take no chances."
