

Pictures of World Events for News Readers

THE NEWS TOLD
IN PARAGRAPHS

In This Department Our Readers in Fulton County and Elsewhere May Journey Around the World With the Camera on the Trail of History Making Happenings.

Latest Happenings Gleaned From All Over the State.

LIVE NOTES AND COMMENTS.

SCENES AT CAPTURE OF ANTWERP BY GERMANS

Above is one of the great German siege guns with which the capture of Antwerp was effected by the Germans. For transportation it is divided into three parts, the gun itself being seen at the left, the carriage and recoil apparatus in the center and the ammunition wagon and crew at the right. Below, at the right is a distant view of the burning petroleum works of the city, and at the left some of the battered defenders retreating.

WOMEN CARRY WALNUTS TO MEN IN THE TRENCHES

Peasant women at great personal risk distributing walnuts to the Belgian soldiers in the trenches between Duffell and Lierre while the Germans were fiercely attacking Antwerp.

Physician, Stricken In Patient's Home, Dies—Slayer Of Man Sentenced. Farmer Killed Hunting—Nurses Graduates Get Diplomas.

At the annual commencement of the J. Lewis Crozer Homeopathic Hospital Training School for Nurses at Chester, Dr. Robert P. Mercer presented diplomas to Miss Mary Henderson, of Rhode Island; Miss Rebecca Barrett, of New Jersey, and Miss Deborah Sheldrake, of Philadelphia. The address was delivered by Dr. G. H. Wells, of Hahnemann College, Philadelphia. Class pins were presented by Mrs. J. Lewis Crozer.

Burrowing into an old mine breach after coal, near McTurk Colliery, five boys were engulfed in a landslide, causing the suffocation of Earl Harris, twelve years old, Ephraim, John and James Davis, brothers, and Edward Sweeney, were saved from a like fate by the prompt arrival of a relief party, who, though exposed to the same danger, never faltered until the last boy had been reached.

An incendiary set fire to the farmhouse of John Gearinger, in Hill Valley. Before the sleeping family were awakened the fire spread so rapidly that Mr. Gearinger and his eleven-year-old son were unable to escape and were burned to death in the house, which was destroyed with the contents. Mrs. Gearinger escaped by jumping from the second-story window in her night clothes.

The first gunning fatality of the season occurred at Herrville, when Richard Derrick, fifty-seven years old, a former hotel proprietor, was killed while gunning on his farm. It is believed that Derrick, in getting over a fence, broke a rail and in the fall the gun was discharged.

While visiting at the home of a patient Dr. William W. Johnson, one of Chester's oldest physicians and surgeons, was stricken with heart failure and died within a few minutes. A widow, his second wife, and a daughter, Mrs. William G. Clyde, of Pittsburgh, born to his first wife, survive.

Grace Scott, daughter of Matthew Scott, while playing in her home at Huntingdon, fell over a lighted lantern on the floor. Her clothing was ignited and she was so badly burned that Blair Hospital physicians say she has but a slight chance for recovery.

While Mrs. Joseph Kaseman was walking across a second story floor of her home in Shamokin, she fell through an opening extending to the cellar suffering injuries likely to result fatally. She is ninety-four years old.

Moses Purnell, forty-eight years old, a contractor of Middleport, died as the result of attempting to stop George Miller's runaway team in that town several hours earlier. He caught the bridle and was dragged a considerable distance, his side being crushed.

While riding in a trolley car, William Flynn, of West Chester, suffered the loss of his coat, which caught fire from a pipe which he had been smoking and which he had placed in his coat pocket.

Angelo Terranova, a miner of Broad Top, was sentenced at Bedford to three to twelve years at solitary confinement in the Western Penitentiary for killing William Anderson, at Woodvale in June.

When Thomas Williamson, of near Chadd's Ford, shot at a squirrel, several shot struck Evans Slaughter, a young neighbor, who was gathering wood, in the eye, and it is believed he may lose his sight.

Michael Fitzgerald, of Erie, engineer of a fast Pennsylvania Railroad freight train, was killed and three other trainmen were injured when his train ran into another freight on a siding at Otts.

Congressman Thomas S. Butler and I. Roberts Comfort, of West Chester, have been re-elected directors of the Pennsylvania Training School for Feeble-Minded Children, at Elwyn.

While Ellie Yorgas, fifteen years old, of Shenandoah, was carrying a lighted oil lamp in the cellar, the lamp exploded, setting her clothing on fire and causing her death shortly after.

Joseph Nesbitt has been elected guard of Pharos Temple, No. 3, Benevolent Order of Egyptians, at West Chester in place of George S. Hampton, who removes to Coatesville.

For killing seven gray squirrels in one day in violation of the game laws that fix the limit at six, James Boyer, of Parkersburg, was arrested and fined ten dollars and costs.

The West Chester Relief Society has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Dr. Jesse C. Green; secretary, William P. Sharpless; treasurer, A. D. Sharpless.

Montgomery county court released under $2,500 bail Marcella Haring, of Pennsburg, charged with the killing of her newborn babe. Her mentality is questioned.

The large barn on the farm of Edward Anthony, at Boothwyn, was burned.

ON THE FIRING LINE NEAR ST. GILES

Picture made on the actual firing line between St. Giles and Termonde, showing a Belgian field piece pointed by the Germans in the distance.

BELGIANS FIGHTING OVER BODIES OF THEIR DEAD

Remarkable photograph of Belgians in action. In the foreground is the body of a dead soldier, and behind the firing line a Red Cross worker is seen attending a wounded man.

ENGLISH GIRL DRIVES AMBULANCE

Miss Herman, an English girl whose father and brothers are at the front and who offered her services, has been detailed to drive her motorcycle ambulance and carry Red Cross supplies.

COUNTESS TORBY

Countess Torby, the beautiful morganatic wife of Grand Duke Michael of Russia, is assisting the movement to send half a million of woolen gloves and mittens to the British soldiers at the front. The grand duke and his wife were banished from Petrograd because of their marriage, but have been invited to return by the czar, who is Michael's nephew.

Soldiers Encouraged to Wed. London—Quick to realize, as was Germany, the necessity of a high birth rate to offset the deaths due to the war, a movement has been started in England to reduce the marriage fees and to encourage soldiers and sailors to take wives before leaving for the front.

WHERE A ZEPPELIN BOMB FELL IN OSTEND

Fish shop in Ostend that was wrecked by a bomb dropped from a Zeppelin airship.

ON RED CROSS SERVICE

Dr. A. Cook, who is in charge of a body of American physicians that sailed recently for Red Cross service in France.

FOOTBALL PLAYER WAR HERO

Georges Andrea Sprinted Quarter Mile With German Flag, Leaving His Pursuers Behind.

Bordeaux—French athletes have been distinguishing themselves on the fighting line. A few days ago a notice appeared in the Official Gazette which said that a corporal of the name of Georges Andrea, who was mentioned in dispatches, had been promoted to the grade of sergeant before members of his regiment, and had been recommended for a military medal. It is learned that this refers to Georges Andrea, to whom the French premier recently alluded as an all-round athlete and the best rugby three-quarterback who was a contestant in the London Olympic games. Following is the story of how Andrea, who is with the French army in Lorraine, won his honors:

With six men he went into a village to find rooms for officers. In the market place was a large band of Germans, who immediately set upon the small French detachment. Andrea snatched a saber from the German nearest him and killed two men with it. By this time he saw that his companions were dead or captured. He grabbed a flag from a German, and putting it under his arm raced through the village street as though attempting to "try" in rugby football. A number of Germans were following at his heels. After sprinting a quarter of a mile he left his pursuers far behind.

French and German Navies.

Within the past few years Germany has passed France in naval power. On the basis of vessels completed and vessels under construction Germany has 943,338 tons and France has 651,002 tons.

EAST INDIAN TROOPS IN FRANCE

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE