Table listing grain prices: Wheat, New wheat, Bran, Corn, Oats, Rye.

PROVISIONS

Table listing provision prices: Ham per lb, Shoulder, Bacon, Sides per lb, Potatoes, Butter, Creamery, Eggs, Lard, Live Calves, Chickens.

There will be a two-day meeting at the Sideling Hill Baptist Church November 14th and 15th.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg.

Thanks of the editor are due to Mrs. Lizzie Tolbert of Big Cove Tannery for a box of fine Kiefer pears.

Mountain fires raged on both sides of the Cumberland Valley last week. Dillsburg was threatened on the south side.

Fire of unknown origin started on Cove mountain along the Chambersburg pike last Thursday and burned over about 100 acres before it was extinguished.

Friday, November 20, 1914, S. A. Nesbit, intending to quit farming will sell at his residence in McConnellsburg a large lot of horses, cattle, hogs, farm machinery, corn, household goods, &c.

Wednesday, November 25th.—Intending to quit farming, Mrs. Elizabeth E. McKibbin will sell at her residence at Crystal Springs, all household goods, road wagon, sleigh, harness, chickens, hay, oats, corn, buckwheat, fodder, farm implements, 2 cows, 3 calves, sows, shoats.

Have you seen the Beautiful Eight day Parlor Clock in our window? We are going to give it absolutely free to the person holding the corresponding cash check given with each purchase.

The Personal Liberty.

The returns of last week's election insure the continuance of the name of the Personal Liberty party on the official ballot.

So many thousands of voters used this column, mainly to help elect candidates for the Legislature in local option or prohibition that a regular party has been created and ballots will have to be provided for its candidates at future primary elections.

The Bull Moose Party, the Roosevelt Progressive Party and the Industrial Party will disappear from the ballot, as each of them failed to poll the necessary percentage of the total vote.

The Keystone Party, which was in the same class, has been revived by D. Clarence Gibboney of Philadelphia and his associates preempting the title for the next election.

A Personal Liberty Party candidate may figure conspicuously in the next Mayoralty campaign in that city.

It has developed that the liquor issue was a factor in the big vote which was polled for Judge George Kunkel, of Dauphin, for the Supreme Bench. He came within a few thousand of defeating Judge Frazer of Pittsburgh, who had the backing of influential Republican leaders.

APPRECIATES LARGE VOTE.

Hon. Geo. B. Mellott Thanks Voters, and Pledges Devotion to Duty.

To the Voters of Fulton County: After having such loyal support as was my lot to receive from the voters of Fulton county at the present election held November 3rd, I feel that I would be derelict should I not take this opportunity to thank the good people of the County for their confidence and support.

Such a majority as that given me is most gratifying and is accepted as a reward for honest effort to serve you as I tried during the last sessions of the Legislative branch of the General Assembly of this state.

With my past experience, I feel more capable and better qualified to represent your interests, that before, and I pledge you that I shall do, as I did then give to the work my whole time and attention, working for the interests of my county and state.

Again thanking you, I beg to remain

Your servant, GEO. B. MELLOTT.

Birthday Surprise.

On Monday Nov. 2, the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gelvin, Ft. Littleton was the scene of a double birthday party in honor of their daughters Reuel and Gertrude, the former being 20 years of age and the latter 18. Mrs. Gelvin and her good friends carried the event out to the letter their not knowing a thing of what was going to happen. But just as the moon was climbing over the eastern hills their friends began to arrive with many nice gifts. The evening was spent in music and many games in the moonlight, and at 9 P. M. ice cream, cake and fruit were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Winegardner, Claire Baker, Smith Henry, Virgie Gelvin, Emma Gelvin, Jane Cromer, Nellie Cromer, Huldah Foreman, Besse Foreman, Edith Wilds, Carrie Locke, Ray Fields, Robert Cromer, Raymond Cromer, Preston Wilson, Milo Peck, Harry Cromer, Chas. DANE.

Those who spent Tuesday evening of last week at Mrs. Ambrose's were: Wm. Cutchall, wife and daughter Mary; Frank Hess, wife and children Emma, Charlie and Hettie; Mrs. John Oyler and children Charlie, Annie and Rush; F. S. Ambrose, wife, and daughter Margaret; B. A. Deshong, wife, and daughter Zena; May Sipe, Mary Batdorff, Ethel Croft, Olive Deshong, Grace Croft, Estella and Dewey Brant. They spent the evening very pleasantly with music on the organ until the hour of bedtime, when they all parted for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ambrose and daughter Dorothy, left for their home in McKeesport after having visited in the home of Mrs. Croft, the former's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Ambrose and daughter Margaret left for Altoona after having visited a couple of weeks in the home of his mother, Mrs. Ambrose. Mr. Ambrose is employed by the P. R. R. at Altoona.

Rev. E. J. Croft has started his protracted meeting at Mt. Zion.

Mrs. Clem Brant, of Dane, is still very sick.

L. W. FUNK

DEALER IN

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg.

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.

L. W. FUNK.

THE DAY BEFORE THANKSGIVING

is when you must transact all pressing banking business, as our bank will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. We will take the day off, being thankful for a prosperous year and for the many depositors who give evidence of their belief in our good will and integrity by leaving their money in our charge. We also hope that our friends appreciate our efforts to give them the benefit of a well conducted bank and give thanks for the blessings and accommodations extended by the
