Watch Mertie E. Shimer's store for new goods.

Go to Hollinshead's, Harrisonville for good rubber footwear.

Edgar Downin was in to see us last Friday to order sale bills for the public sale of his farm two miles northeast of town.

W. H. Greathead went to Blue Ridge Summit Sanatorium last Sunday and brought his wife, and baby John Wesley, home.

S. A. Nesbit changed the date of his public sale from the 20th to the 25th of November. The list of stock and articles to be sold appears in another column of this paper.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Hull and Bender, proprietors of the Racket store, asked the News to announce that they would be closed all day Thanksgiving Day. Reisner's Johnstons, and other stores in town will follow the rule of closing practically all day. The Banks will be closed all day.

Uncle John Hann and Mrs. Ned Mellott were shopping in town Monday and called at this office. Mr. Hann said that the fires on Sideling Hill gave him a close call last week. Many of his fences were burned. For a time, the pike was full of rabbits that were trying to get away from the fire.

A postcard from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mann to this office from Saint Cloud, Florida, shows a quartette of alligators singing "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River." We take the liberty of cautioning these good friends that this song when sung by alligators is so fascinating that tenderfoots are sometimes allured too close to the bayou and—well—the alligation is that the alligator gets a square meal.

On last Sabbath evening Mr. J. K. Johnston was suddenly stricken with acute indigestion and fell unconscious to the floor and remained in that condition for a quarter of an hour. Medical aid was at once summoned but it was several hours before all danger was thought to be passed. Mr. Johnston was confined to his room for several days in consequence. At the time of the attack he was in apparent good health, and was in conversation with the family, so that it was a great shock to the latter.

Secretary W. J. Bryan in a recent speech said: "After years of study of the essentials of good voting I have decided that two things are essential to make a person vote well. They are intelligence and morality. I discovered a few days ago that there are 354 men and 5 women in our State Penitentiary. I have noticed that women outnumber the men in the churches. If women have sense enough to keep out of penitentiary and morals enough to go to church it follows that they will make good voters.

Not in years has the deadlock between apple growers and buyers in the orchard been so marked. Under the knowledge of an excellent crop, particularly in the surplus states depended upon for winter markets, buyers held aloof, with dragging transactions well into October harvests. In the aggregate a good many apples have been sold by orchardists at $1.25 to $2 per barrel, which leaves little enough profit after paying 38 to 40 cents for the package. The commercial crop for 1914 is reported by American Agriculturist at 41 million barrels, compared with 31 millions one year earlier.

Notes From C. V. S. N. S.

Our school is growing. At the beginning of the Fall Term Sept. 1, the register book showed an increase of fifty per cent. over the number of last year. Fulton County has twelve representatives at present and expects to have several more at the beginning of the Spring Term.

Roy J. Mathias, of Burnt Cabins, has been elected president of the Press Club for the following year. Because of the absence of Prof. A. B. Wallize, who went to Johnstown, Dr. Lehman has taken up the work of advising the Press Club.

The annual Thanksgiving play will be given on Thursday evening Nov. 26. We are looking forward to a great event as the play has been very successful in the High Schools of New York City. It was written by our principal of the High School of this city. It is entitled, "Charles Dickens" and it aims to give the students a knowledge of Dickens' home life.

Basketball season opens Nov. 21 with a game with Waynesboro Fulton County is very fortunate in having three players on the varsity this year, Barnhart, Mathias and Scriver.

Our new Model School is being completed at present and it is said will be occupied during the winter term. The present Model School will then be used as a department for the Commercial Course.

Theatricals at Hustontown.

Hustontown and vicinity is promised a treat Friday evening, November 27th. Three plays, namely, Our Lysander, Murder Will Out, and Our Awful Aunt will be interpreted by experienced local talent in the P. O. S. of A. Hall. Admission 10 and 15 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock, performance at 8. A lot of good fun is assured for the evening.

The African Exhibit.

One of the special features of the "Get Acquainted Day" to be observed next Sunday in the Lutheran church of town will be the forty different specimens of life, custom, clothing, and various articles of the African people. These are the real things used and worn and made by the natives of Africa. It is the first time in the history of the Missionary Museum at the Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, that these things have been permitted to be taken away from the museum.

The church will be open all day to come and go as you please at your own convenience. All are welcome to enjoy the special services of the day. Not only the guests of honor—members of the Big Cove Tannery church—but everybody is welcome to come to any of the services you desire.

Please note a correction in the order of services of the day. The members of the church and S school and all who care to come are especially requested to be present for the reception at 9 o'clock instead of 9:15 as announced last week. The guests will be received at this time. All the teachers will have the children of the school present at this time. The bell will be rung at 8:30 so as to give you plenty of time for the reception.

R. E. Peterman, Pastor.

We are banking on the continuance of the exercise of good sense on the part of Fulton county hunters not to shoot at objects until they know for a certainty that it is not a human being. This year broke the record in other parts of the State for killings in this manner. The malady that leads to these killings is called "trigger madness." It means that men get so anxious to kill a deer that they positively "go mad," and pull the trigger at the least suspicion that game is within reach. No jury can find a milder verdict than manslaughter in such cases.
