DUBLIN MILLS.

The rain was very welcome. Minnie Black is now working for John Wright's. Jacob Black has been working at North Point. Ambrose Wilson took Knepper Bros. a heifer which they slaughtered. The latter are doing a good business. The fifth local institute of Taylor township will be held at Winegardner November 20. On account of the rain there was no preaching at Center last Sunday, but there will be preaching there at 10:30 A. M., November 29. Charles Nesbitt and Henry Carbaugh, of Big Cove, spent two days recently at Wm. Knepper's. They were after cattle for Mr. Carbaugh. Mae Knepper spent Sunday, November 15th. at her uncle Howard Barnett's. Mr. and Mrs. David Knepper spent a day recently with the latter's mother, Mrs. Woodcock, at Enid. Mr. and Mrs. Elbin Johnston and son, of Orbisonia, visited relatives in this vicinity November 8th to 11th. Our school is getting along properly under the care of O. V. Wink, with 45 on the roll. David Winegardner has improved his barn by giving it a new roof. Charles Knepper butchered a pig that dressed 380 pounds avoirdupois. John Wright has been painting his house. Give your barn a little, John. Carl Hess, who had been working for Jesse Grissinger, has returned home. The Cherry Grove school is very popular under the care of Ray Hess, of this place. On Friday of last week, David Miller and son Floyd went to Three Springs for a gasoline engine. When they arrived one of their horses became sick and David remained there while Floyd brought the engine home and has not yet returned. Corn is now nearly all husked and a pretty good crop, too. Lorraine Madden, who recently purchased an auto, has not been seen with it of late. What is wrong? Several persons passed by this place going to the lime quarry sale, but obtained no results. Allen Grissinger has been sawing lumber for Irvin Winegardner's new house. Mr. Editor if you were to come to our town you would see most of the business done on Hill street. Twenty ninth avenue is not altogether invisible. Misses Eliza, Olive and Luella Hess were pleasant callers at David Winegardner's recently. Wm. Brown, who is agent for the Grand Union Tea Co., comes around to see all of us once a month. Mrs. Brint Miller is improving very slowly. Herman Cromwell has returned home after a four days' hunting trip and not anything to show for lost time.

WEST DUBLIN.

James Clevenger, Pittsburgh, accompanied his brother Harvey home and has been hunting a few days. James has a good position in Pittsburgh with the B. & O. Railroad Co.—Albert King, Lloyd and Maggie Price, and May Malone, spent a few days recently in Altoona. They traveled in Albert's auto.—Mrs. Wilbert Barton and Pearl Barton, of Sixmile Run, spent a few days recently at Z. Bland Barnett's, in Taylor township.

Band Concert.

The Band expects to give a concert in the Auditorium of the school building sometime during the holidays, and hope that no one will arrange for anything that will conflict. C. R. Shore, Mgr.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in McConnellsburg.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly at time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective. Plenty of McConnellsburg evidence of their worth. Miss Susan Peightel, Main St., McConnellsburg, says: I was in poor health for some time and I believe that weak kidneys caused the trouble. I suffered greatly from severe pains in my back, which often darted into my head. I became dizzy and had chills, I was losing strength daily, and felt poorly in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I procured a supply at Trout's Drug Store. They acted just as represented and brought me quick relief. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Peightel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BRUSH CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Barton made a business trip to McConnellsburg last Wednesday and spent the night in the home of the latter's sister Mrs. Lincoln Deshong of Sideling Hill. Miss Lillian Bottenfield of Gapsville spent Saturday and Sunday in the home of G. O. Lynch and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mellott and daughter Ruth of Gapsville, spent Saturday and Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Barton. Russell Akers spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Hope well. Mrs. M. A. Barkman and son Walter spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Everett. Mrs. Ross Walters spent one day last week with A. H. Simpson and family. Rush Layton and sister Miss Velma of Gapsville spent Sunday with Ada, Lizzie and Blaine Hixson. Mr. Homer Akers of North Dakota is visiting relatives in our valley. Grant Simpson and Miss Blanche Barton of Bedford spent Sunday with P. D. Hixon and family. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lodge were business visitors in Everett one day last week. Elton Barton and Miss Thelma Metzler spent Saturday and Sunday at the latter's home at Harrisonville. Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Mills of Whips Cove spent Sunday with F. M. Lodge and family. Lena and Margaret Whitfield spent Sunday with Laura and Lulu Simpson. Fred Lamberson, of Hustontown, passed through our valley Saturday enroute for Lasbley. Clara and Howard Whitfield spent Saturday and Sunday in the home of their sister Mrs. Martin S. Poor, of Breezewood. Mrs. M. E. Barton spent Monday in the home of H. N. Barton. Mrs. George Lodge spent part of last week in the home of her parents near Warfordsburg. A very pleasant surprise was given James Barton Saturday evening November 7th when a number of young people came to help him celebrate his birthday. The evening was spent in playing games. Lunch was served about 12 o'clock and all returned to their homes. Those present were Misses Lillian Bottenfield Edith Mellott, Minnie Lynch, Clara and Iva Hixson, Sadie and Celia Barton, Lillian Youngblood, Lula Mills and Mary Clevenger, and Messrs Ross and Bruce Barton, Marshall Lynch, Lloyd Mellott, Chester Bottenfield, Clad Bequeath, Marshall Ray and Percy Hixson, Earl Trueax, Marshall Lodge, Will Clevenger, and George and James Barton.

NEW GRENADA.

Isaac McClain, has finished planning lumber at J. O. McClain's and moved his machine home. Rev. Benson has closed his protracted meeting at the U. B. church in Wells Valley. The young folks enjoyed walking. There were 36 conversions. Ward Berkstrosser's buried their infant child Wednesday, aged about 2 weeks. Mrs. Jacob Black and Mrs. John Galbraith are visiting friends in Coalmont and Saxton.

There was some excitement in our village last week when Dr. McClain, and Mr. Fisher, of Hustontown, passed through here with two auto's roped together. They looked as though they had just come from Germany. The forest fires have all died out for the want of room, as the mountains have all been burnt over. Hunters report game scarce. John Mills and wife, have returned home to Altoona. Daniel Alloway and wife, of Pittsburgh, are visiting the former's mother at this place and the latter's parents at Woodvale. Mr Alloway had the misfortune of getting hurt some time ago which put him off duty for some time. The hunters that have been camping at John Galbraith's have returned to their home at South Fork, Pa. Mrs. Margaret Houp is visiting friends in Waterfall.

SALUVIA

See account of mountain fires elsewhere. —A hunting party of eight, headed by Isiah Kline, killed a large deer at the old Peter Kegaric place on Sideling Hill about daybreak last Monday. —Wm. Mellott, Andrew Miller, and Verhe Decker killed a fine deer on Sideling Hill last Saturday. —It is currently reported that a hunting party of twenty-two men—mostly from Rays Cove—surrounded a territory on Sideling Hill and killed four deer while closing in on them. —Harvey M. Strait has finally decided to quarry and haul limestone from the John Nelson farm, in Tod township, instead of from west of Fort Littleton. —Manager and Supervisor E. H. Kirk is having the old abutments of the

LITTLE'S Big Underselling Store

The public should not forget that we have a full line of Fall and Winter Millinery, in all the latest styles, which are now on display in our new store opposite the Fulton County Bank, we are prepared to show them to our patrons, whether they wish to buy, or merely to inspect.

bridge near west foot of Green Hill, Lincoln Way, taken out preparatory to building a concrete and iron bridge, and has prepared a very convenient crossing place over the stream. —Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross Hann were given a royal birthday and wedding reception at their home last Saturday evening.

ENID.

Mrs. Hester Baumgardner, nee Bivens, near Pittsburgh, was calling on relatives Wednesday.

Two fine deer were seen in the fields of H. M. Edwards and E. A. Horton Wednesday. Seemed in no hurry to get to the mountains.

Charles M. Schenck and family autoed to Everett Saturday, took dinner with relatives there and then went on to visit relatives in Bedford for a few days. They were accompanied by Harry Stunkard.

Mrs. Rebecca Edwards left on Tuesday to visit her sister in Saxton. From there she will go

KNOBVILLE.

Battle Ridge school is progressing nicely under the care of Ira L. Peck. Scott Hershey erected a porch at that school house. —Peter Mellott and sons Lloyd and Chester transacted business in McConnellsburg Friday. —George Regi repainted his house. —Miss Lola Wilson was a pleasant visitor at Battle Ridge school Thursday. The chicken-pox scare at that school died a natural death.

-- DEALER IN --
High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer in a position to make good any business transaction. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county who have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player Piano. Let's talk it over.
