S. A. Nesbit's public sale November 25th.

Read S. A. Nesbit's sale in another column of this paper. It is all there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, of Little Cove, visited the latter's nephew, Dr. Mosser, and aunt, Mrs. Sarah Pittman, a few days ago.

O. L. Greathead and sister Miss Emily, and Mrs. B. Frank Henry and Mrs. Wilson L. Nace, spent last Friday in Chambersburg.

J. W. Rummel and granddaughter Miss Murnie went to Chambersburg and Gettysburg last week to spend two or three weeks.

Mrs. Emma Rexroth returned home last week after having spent several weeks with her niece, Mrs. Virginia Beidleman, in Harrisburg.

Thomas F. Sloan, Jr., of Pavia, O., comes home this week to spend some time with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Sloan, west Water street.

Miss Annie A. Ott returned home last Saturday, after having spent several weeks with her sisters Miss Mary, and Nellie, (Mrs. Geo. H. Knotts) in Altoona.

John W. Laidig, of Taylor township, greeted a lot of friends in town Saturday, and gave us an interesting account of the burning of Sideling Hill and the big woods east of it, last week.

Amos B. Wilkinson and his son Robert, accompanied by M. W. Nace and B. W. Peck, made a trip to Chambersburg last Friday evening to "attend Lodge." The Wilkinsons own a Maxwell, and Bob is some driver—he is.

Cloyd Finiff and sisters Margaret and Charlotte, of Chambersburg, are spending this week among their many Fulton county friends and relatives. They were pleasant callers at the NEWS office last Saturday.

Mrs. Watson Lynch took sick last week while on a visit to Franklin county, and had to be brought home carefully wrapped and shielded by cushions, in an auto, and it is believed that she has typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brubaker and a Mr. Whitmore—all of Hagerstown—and Mrs. Ida Highlands and her grandson, of Mercersburg, autoed to this place in Mr. Whitmore's car and called on the Robert N. Fryman family.

Two large trees that stood in front of the Fulton House were cut down last week to make room for some improvement to the front of the building. Old trees are old friends, and we are always sorry to see them removed.

All work on the pike between the top of Cove mountain and the western border of the County has been suspended with the exception of some rolling on Cove mountain and some bridge building at the west foot of Green Hill.

Among the social functions during the past week was a party given by Mrs. C. B. Stevens, last Thursday afternoon; one by the Misses Dickson last Friday evening; one by Mrs. H. U. Nace Saturday evening, and one by Mrs. W. L. Nace last evening.

Mr. Mac Litton and son William A. Litton and wife of Thompson township, were shopping in town last Thursday. It makes a long drive to come from their place to town and return the same day. Mrs. Litton paid this a call that we appreciate.

Poor old priest-ridden Mexico is experiencing another civil war. The creatures that are responsible for the fresh outbreak were a drop of American blood, and would be a mercy to send a big United States army down there and wipe them off the face of the earth.

While residents of Maryland hunt all they please in that state without license, Pennsylvania or residents of any outside state, must have a license or stay out of Maryland woods. If Marylanders wish to hunt in Pennsylvania they must first buy a $10 license.

Good umbrella exchanged from the stand in the M. E. church last Sunday evening. Please leave at NEWS office and get yours.

Eld. C. L. Funk will preach at Damascus church at 11 o'clock on the fourth Sunday in November, and at Hills Chapel on the fifth at the same hour.

Messrs. Claud M. Myers and James E. Turner, of Hancock, spent Tuesday night in town. Mr. Myers made the news office a pleasant call Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas H. Walker and little son of Franklin county, came here to-day to spend a week with Mrs. Walker's parents Burgess and Mrs. William A. Sloan.

Gladys, three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Maud Miller, of Big Cove Tannery, saved Lincoln pennies until she had her bank full—400 of them—and deposited them in the Fulton County Bank a few days ago.

More than two hundred and fifty head of cattle have been killed in Franklin county by order of the State Board on account of the prevalence of the Foot and Mouth disease. Up to this time there have not been any cases reported in this county.

Mrs. G. A. Booher, of Mt. Union, was a recent visitor in the homes of her daughter, Mrs. Maria Doran and daughter Mrs. Wm. Heefner. Her husband came for her and took her home in his Reo auto, taking with them E. L. Booher and wife and Mrs. Heefner.

J. M. Bowman, of Burnt Cabins, has been employed in Oregon for a month or more, and came home Wednesday of last week, and will spend a month at home and then go back to that state. Oregon is a great and growing state where so much rain falls that, it is said, the Indians were web-footed like ducks.

Ralph Fickes, aged 21 of Wyant Bedford county while out hunting on Bald Ridge in the western part of that county, was shot by his cousin Ross Motto. Of course Ross didn't mean to do it, and feels very bad about it. Ralph died while they were trying to hurry him off to a hospital.

Two Candidates Elected.

Dear Editor:—Tuesday, November 3rd, at about 3 o'clock p. m., two candidates on the Honorary ticket came to the established election house on the hill west of Needmore, in which live Rev. Powers and wife. The candidates were fine looking young people and declared that they had nominated themselves and were in favor of local option now and forever and longer. They promised that they would faithfully do their duty according to the laws of God and the land in which they dwell. Upon examination of their credentials it was discovered that a duplicate of the same had to be sent to the clerk who issued the original in order to prove that the candidates had been properly elected to the matrimonial office. The two candidates were Mr. Harrison Hann and Miss Araminta Kauffman, both of Belfast township. Who next?

A. G. B. POWERS.

Blair Garland, teacher, Maye Pittman, Secretary.

Deer Killed.

In addition to the ones reported in our Saluvia items this week, Bert Kerlin, and one of Enoch Kerlin's boys, both of Knobsville, each killed a fine deer this season.

The party that went to Aughwick from this place and Big Cove have not kept in close communication with the town, and full report is not yet in; but we saw the head of a fine deer killed by Prothonotary B. Frank Henry who was one of the party. Mr. Henry was standing on a log the first day of the season when he saw the deer running. A low whistle from Mr. Henry caused it to stop a moment, and that moment was fatal to the deer. This makes two that Mr. Henry has secured this fall—both according to law.

Birthday Dinner.

As Tuesday November 10th was Mrs. Jane Kerlin's 76th birthday, her daughter Mrs. Geo. B. Regi had a fine dinner prepared for her. I tell you, friends, the table groined under the load of good things on it.

Those present were her daughters, Mrs. Jennie Long and Mrs. Mary J. Campbell, Mrs. Ethel Mellott and children Lloyd and Chester, and Mrs. Jane Keepers, Vergin Regi, Ruth Campbell, all of Knobsville and Roy C. Regi of Hustontown.
