By REV. J. H. RALSTON

Secretary of Correspondence Department Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

$9999999999999999999

TEXT-He still and know that I am

The greatest fact

in the universe is a personal God,

but many fall to God""; but almost

all men acknowl-

they treat him?

English nation may forget God.

never think of asking the result of the fight, They never win. Some parley with God, having some recognition of his being and of their moral obligations to him, but when those obligations are pressed as present duties

they say "Tomorrow" or "Consider our business, our political or domestic situation and excuse us." And some acknowledge God in all his spiritual being as holy, just and loving and their lives are fully surrendered to him

They have linked themselves with the infinite and the power of the infinite

The Demand of God.

a mere suggestion or intimation:

"Know that I am God." The latter part of the verse defines what God means: "I will be exalted among the heathen. I will be exalted in the earth." The cry of the Mohammedan muezzin is not wrong: "God is great."

in the Old Testament we have the word "Elohim," which means "the strong or faithful one," used 2,306

times. The root in that word, "El,"

means "the strong or mighty one."

That was God's claim in those times has been most sensitive is that of his

Moses or David or Nebuchadnezzar he

In our authorized version of the Scriptures we have the words: "Be still." Most men make such a clamor in their business or in the political world, or on the battle field that they cannot hear God. Elliah in the cleft of the mountain side heard God more distinctly in the still, small voice than in the raging fire or stormy wind

Men have come close to God as they have sat by the silent sea, or in the stillness of the woods, or in the hush

of the midnight hour. The Hebrew word translated "still" might be translated "Cease ye," or "Let your hands

hang down," which means that efforts should cease. Many claiming to recognize God struggle on, attempting to do things that God would do, but which he cannot do because men in-

While God has been compelled to show his almightiness or strength in sending catastrophes on men he shows

this same strength in simple ways.

The snow crystal as it falls on the hand, melts in a moment or two, but that crystal with its companions, falling noiselessly as the great train rushes on, drawn by a mighty engine,

will cause that engine to throb and groan, and at last stop. Victor Hugo says that it was a few drops of water,

more or less, that prostrated Napoleon

at Waterloo, and that the passing of a cloud across the sky sufficed for the

The Nations and God.

earth is trembling with the crash of the mightiest armies that the world has ever known there should be a thought of God and his power. What are kings and emperors and great nations? Nations are as a drop in the bucket and are counted as the small dust in the balance. As the rulers of the earth take counsel together

against the Lord and against his laughs at them and has them in de-anointed, God sits in the heavens and Over the armies of Europe now in conflict God is standing. He has a purpose in this unparalleled war and that purpose will be realized. The mighty fighting organization of Germany will not frustrate it, nor the patriotism and impetuosity of the French.

nor the tenacity of the English, nor Waterloo and God.

Victor Hugo asks with reference to

Waterloo: "Was it possible that Napoleon should win this battle? We answer, No. And why? Because of Wellington? Because of Blucher?

No. Because of God." And he says:

"Napoleon had been impeached before the infinite and his fall decreed. He

The man is wise who makes God his refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Today the glory of executive is a man of clear recogniachievements may be accounted for by the masses of the Russians.

vexed God."

in his chamber.

Probably in these days when the overthrow of a world.

sist on doing them for themselves.

How Obey the Comm

We have in the text a command, not will avail for them.

AN SAVE MONEY BY TOU CAN SAVE MONEY BY WEARING W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES.

If years W. L. Douglas has guaranteed the sy having his name and the retail price of the shoes before the shoes leave the factories of the shoes of the retail price chose of other makes. W. L. Douglas shrite shoes of other makes. W. L. Douglas shoes we carefully W. L. Douglas shoes and expower carefully W. L. Douglas shoes and expower carefully W. L. Douglas shoes and expower carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are seen to show the wear longer than other makes for the price. Such as the same way longer than other makes for the price of the w. L. Douglas shoes are not for sale in your left with the wear longer than other makes for the price. W. L. Douglas shoes are not for sale in your should be well to be used direct from factory. Shoes sent every years are the first from factory. Shoes sent every years the for illustration of the world by the sale of the sale

SOME POINT IN OBJECTION

nky Applicant for Army Service Rejected, Had Proved Superiorlty Over Accepted Man.

eneral Arthur Murray said at mer in San Francisco, apropos of p height of soldier: The British army has raised the wight limit for volunteers to five feet Short Britishers object to this and with reason. For consider the Japanese. They incomparable soldiers. Yet the te feet five limit would bar most them out. "Consider the Gurkhas, the Hill fibe soldiers of India. They are as elist as the Japs, yet their height nas from four feet eleven to five

'At one of the London recruiting ons, just after the establishment the new rule, a short and chunky hat Ender who had been rejected the examining surgeons pointed th a scowl towards a taller East Eder, who had been accepted, and

"Aw, look at 'im; an' I knocked s 'ead off lawst Saturday night!' "

Ate Evidence; All Freed.

Happy and well fed, a group of womwith their children, appeared behre Magistrate Conway in the Long sland city police court to answer to complaint charging them with vioiting the health laws in keeping pigs. "Well, where are the pigs?" inpired the court

"We ate them, your honor," chorused be group. "And they were good. We ed them to keep down the high est of living." Tader the circumstances I will dis-is the complaint," said the judge. Important to Mothers Etamine carefully every bottle of GSTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for ants and children, and see that it Bears the Repature of Cart Flitchers.

h Use For Over 30 Years.
children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

The Higher Explanation. Tather, what is this 'higher critiim' I read so much about?"

"It is a method by which a man contoes himself of the falsity of someing which he knows is not true."-Billsdelphia Ledger.

BRHING SO EFFECTIVE AS ELIXIR
BUBER For Malaria, Chills & Fever.
Gief of Folice, J. W. Reynolds, Newport
by Va., Says: It is a pleasure to recommend " Elixir Habek 50 cents, all drug-arcel Post, prepaid, from Kloczew-Nove Babek Liver Pills.

In the School of Politics. Teacher - Define "investigation," lames Huntin' up a lot of blame, mam, and placin' it on somebody

OUR OWN DRUGGIST WILL TELL VOU lluring ityo Remedy for Red, Wenk, W. Shi Granulated Hyelids; No Smart Sw Comfort, Write for Boo" of the San Free, Murine Ryo Remedy O. Chi-

The Other Way. Thear your son's new fad suits m down to the ground." "Well, hardly, since it's aviation."

Willing to Take a Chance. It come over and kiss you, only mafraid of upsetting the boat." Tean swim, Herbert!"

V0U'LLlike Fatimas a really delightful, mild Turkish blend. ry the taste of their thoice leaf that has made ATIMA the greatest selling brand in the land.

e deuter secure Fatima Cigarettes from Markages postpaid on receipt of 50c.

"Distinctively Individual"

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Who must support themselves or leaire to make money during spare time, can build up a profitable busi-peating high-grade article. Send

MAS A HAIR, Juniata St., LANCASTER, PA SOC LILLEY PILE REMEDY 50c

THE REAL LESSON OF THE DAY

and from the pursuit of earthly things to give thanks to the Giver of all the Stage Reminiscent Over Thanksgivings.

Not Usually a Day of Great Rejoicing for Them, But They Tell of Past Experiences Which Have Lingered in the Memory.

at the theater in time to make up and for their friendship to the whites. play the part that the public, paying for especial amusement on this day, demands.

Of course, a picturesque Thanksgiving story dealing with theatrical people would tell of driving snowstorms, long cold walking of railroad ties, performances that were not prefaced by dinners, and with the hope of unearthing some such sad tales the interviewer hunted out a group of players and asked them for "experiences."

Thanksgiving Tragedy. First, there was Miss Grace Huff, giving memories, grave or gay.

first turkey I ever cooked was there was to be company, but my mother had invited some friends to dinner, and you may imagine my horror when I realized that some one outside of the family was coming to test my first attempt at cooking the nation- Thanksgiving experiences I have ever al bird. I have had stage fright many had-my first view of a talking matimes in my life, but I never, never chine, and a dinner with an Indian had the stage fright equal to that I ex- chief." perienced when that turkey was brought to the table-and I didn't know how it was going to be.

"Another Thanksgiving that stands out vividly in my memory was one that I spent in a little town out West. On the veranda where I was sitting was a poor cripple boy playing with a hall. was watching him and reflecting that while I wasn't in the happiest surroundings, I had a lot for which to be thankful, because I didn't happen to be deformed, like the poor boy.

"I felt very sorry for that boy and very kindly toward him, so that when his ball rolled away and down a hill I started after it for him. Just imagine my surprise when, suddenly, he threw away his crutch and swore violently at me, telling me in no uncertain terms to 'keep away from his ball.' That knocked a great deal of the Thanks giving spirit out of me, I can assure you, for it was such a shock to find that the poor little cripple for whom I felt so very, very sorry was only a Tale of Too Much Turkey. Miss Huff's narrative stopped amid a ripple of laughter, and some one suggested that "Lowell" tell about his Thanksgiving. Mr. Sherman, the handsome lending man, looked gloomily into space and, of course, it was expected that he had some beautifully romantic experiences to relate-some thing that would thrill the matinee girls.

But alas and alack for ideals! "I remember one Thanksgiving," he announced after a bit, "that stands out in my memory as the saddest I have ever spent. I had been ill for two weeks before-under the doctor's care and had him at my side all the time at home and in the theater. I hadn't eaten a mouthful of solid food for two weeks, when suddenly the day of Thanksgiving I felt myself again. "Naturally I wanted to celebrate my recovery, so I planned a Thanksgiving dinner that was really a dinner-every thing from soup to nuts! How I did enjoy that dinner! "But it proved my undoing, for in half an hour I was again under the doctor's care, and while he diagnosed my illness as a "plain case of overeating.' I wasn't able to get out of bed again for over a week." After telling of this time when he smashed the ideal of the matinee girl, who never, never will believe that her hero could overeat, Mr. Sherman continued: "The actor doesn't usually have a very jolly time of it on holidays, you know. All he does is work, and he has TALES OF ACTORS to eat in a hurry. Last Thanksgiving I ate my dinner alone in Rector's, New York, and I was so lonely that I had one of their table telephones brought to me and I called up nearly everyone Prominent Men and Women of I knew and talked to theme-just to hear the sound of a friendly voice."

When the West Was Woolly. Miss Georgie Woodthorpe went back to her childhood days for her reminiscence, to the time when the West was really wild and woolly.

"I was very young," she explained, "and was playing what we called juveniles then, but which are now known as ingenue roles. I remember I was on the boat that went up the Snake river to Dalles, Wash, and on that O THE actor Thanksgiving day boat was the governor of Oregon, who usually means only a day of was going up to see the great Indian harder work than usual-a day chief, Homelli, about some treaty or when there are special mati- other, the details of which I forget, exnees and when luncheon and cepting that it concerned two other dinner are harried through so as to be chiefs that were being held prisoners

"This Thankagiving day always stands out in my memory and I shall never forget the interest 1 felt in seeing this blg Indian invited into the cabin where we had our Thanksgiving dinner, and sitting down to the table with his blankets wrapped around him. I scarcely ate any dinner, but just sat and watched Chief Homelli enjoy the turkey and wines that were served. "It was on this trip that I heard the first phonograph—and that was long before the day of Edison. I remember and one of the things upon which he my amazement at hearing a voice who was requested to tell her Thanks- come from this little box-a box unchangeableness. What he was to scarcely any larger than my make-up The charming leading lady laughed, box here. At first we thought there is to us. God makes a demand in the "Well," she said, "my funniest mem- was a ventriloquist in the room, but | text, and no man has a right to chalory was a tragedy at the time, for the after a while we were convinced that lenge it: "I am God." we were listening to a real talking Thanksgiving day, I did not know that chine. I don't know who invented this -all I remember about it is that it contained a little cylinder that turned as the voice proceeded.

"And that," concluded Miss Woodthorpe, "is one of the most interesting

POOR OUTLOOK

"Why, what's the matter, son?" "Hoo hoo! You'd cry, too, if it was Thanksgivin' an' your folks was vege-

Thanksgiving Poem.

Thanks be to God for His wonderful love raise ye His name for the gifts from Anthems of gladness peal forth on the Echo His greatness o'er land and o'er Praise Him, ye sons of the blessed and

Praise Him, ye mountains, and valleys, and flood! Praise Him, ye daughters and children Praise Him from hilltop and forest and

Thanks for the gift of His only dear Son! Thanks for His goodness life's journey Thanks for the summers and winters be-Thanks for the autumn and spring ever

Thanks for the air, and for winds, and Thanks for the sun, and for the stars up-Thanks for the moon and for day and for night! Him for dew, and for rain, and for light!

Praise His great name! let the nations adore: Redeemer and Savier, God evermore; Enthroned with the angels, blessed above! Praise Him, O earth, for His wonderful Praise Him, ye smallest and greatest of Praise Him, ye kindred that rise from the fall! Praise Him, ye children of weakness and death!

Praise Him, O praise Him, all ye that have breath -George D. Emerson.

INTERNATIONAL God Demands SUNDAY SCHOOL Recognition

> (By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director Sunday School Course, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

> > LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 22.

JESUS AND PILATE.

LESSON TEXT-Luke 23:13-25. See also Matt. 27:11-31. GOLDEN TEXT - Pllate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus, who is called Christ?-Matt. 27:22 R. V. take in the thought. A com-The false witnesses (Mark 14:55-59) pany conspicuous dld not help to formulate charges for its smallness against Jesus. These rulers did, howdeny that there is ever, make three accusations. (Luke a God and they 23:2) (a) "Perverting the nation"may be left in the turning it to error; (b) "forbidding to hands of the give tribute to Caesar"-treason, (see psalmist, who Matt 17:24-27); and (c) "that he said: "The fool maketh himself Christ, a king"bath said in his e. g., his Messianic glaims. Pilate heart There is no (v. 14) seems to have dwelt upon the first as only worthy of consideration. edge the existence of God. How do I. Jesus and Pilate, vv. 13-19. This incident demands that we study carefully all that the other gospel writers Some decline to acknowledge him as have recorded. We have seen the ac-Laving any personal relation to them. He is an intangible, far-away being, cusation recorded by Luke. Matthew and Luke tell us of Pilate's question, possibly nothing more than the great Pan of the ancients. Some forget God. "Art thou the king of the Jews?" and having occasional moments of recogof the answer of Christ claiming that nition, especially when he appeals to he was. Matthew records the silence them by catastrophe, but the words of of Jesus to the accusations of the the psalmist are again true: "God is chief priests and to Pilate at that not in all their thoughts." This is true time. Luke gives us the account of oftentimes of bodies of men, even Pilate's perplexity, how Jesus was great nations, and Rudyard Kipling sent to Herod and of Pilate's second has very forcibly suggested that the report to the Jews. Matthew tells of the offer Pilate made to release Barah-Some defy God, following the advice bas or Jesus and of the message from of the wife of Job-to curse God and Pilate's wife. die. They fight against God, but they

Trial a Mockery.

The trial before Annas and Calaphas was a hollow mockery. The Sanhedrin was fierce in its denunciation and to add disgrace and to impress Pilate that Jesus was dangerous, they led him into his presence. Pilate soon saw the emptiness of their charges, and as we have suggested, dismissed all save that of "perverting the nation." The Roman government keenly watched for incipient rebellions. After examination he declares, "I find no fault in this man." He did not, however, dare incur the hatred and violence of a Jerusalem mob, and so he temporizes. The flercest light of criticism declares Jesus to be impeccable, yet men temporize. After the disgraceful and degrading treatment Jesus received before Herod, he again stands before Pilate, and this time he is again declared to be innocent of the charges preferred against him. This is the turning point of this world's greatest tragedy. Pilate should have let him go, and would have had he not been a venal judge. "He who hesitates is lost," is amply exemplified in this case. Pilate was in a worse case and one where it became less easy to do right, whatever his inclinations (Acts 3:13), may have been, by not acting resolutely at this point. It was easy for this weak-willed man then to yield to the determined wills of the enemies of Jesus, v. 24 R. V. found no fault in Jesus, neither did Herod (v. 15), yet Pilate compromisingly says, "nothing worthy of death," hence the suggestion that he be chas tised and released. This is typical of the temporizing, compromising, fickle politicians. These words at once suggested to the Jews a custom of having released unto them one whom they chose at this period of the year, and they cried out, "Away with this man, release unto us Barabbas." It was thus that these, his accusers, representing the nation, "denied the holy and just, and desirable a murderer, Acts 3:14.

Pllate Tried to Save Christ.

11. Jesus and Barabbas, vv. 20-25. Matthew adds to that awful cry, when Pilate has washed his hands in token of innocency, "His blood be upon us' (Matt. 27:25). The other writers give us some suggestions as to who Barabbas was, and makes this choice more appalling by way of contrast. Looking back it seems like a strange choice, yet the same fatal mistake is being made today. Young and old, cultured and ignorant, are refusing the "Prince of Life" (Acts 3:15), and choosing him who "was a murderer from the beginning," John 5:44.

Thus these men were deceived, and the natural man showed its enmity against God, Jer. 17:9; Rom. 8:7. Pilate is not yet convinced but that he can placate the mob and save Jesus, and puts a pertinent question to them. "What evil hath he done?" Instead of calmly answering his query they clamor the more loudly. Noise is never argument. Still in this case "their voices prevailed," for Pilate desired to "content the multitude." "Vox popull, vox Dei" la by no means a truism. It is easy to drum up a mob who one day cry "Hosanna" and the next "crucify him."

III. The Teaching. This lesson is intended to center itself about Pilate. In it we see the struggle between conscience and personal ambition. Pilate was impressed by the words of Christ. He told the priests and the multitude that he found no fault in him. It appears that up to a certain point he tried to save Christ, and certainly to the end he strove to avoid the responsibility for his death. Sorely pressed he temporized and the conversation recorded in John 18:33-38 shows how profoundly interested he was in this prisoner before him,

Pilate knew whom he was dearing with as a politician, but did not know this "man of Galilee." He chose rather to be "Caesar's friend" than to perform a righteous act according to the dictates of his conscience. Pressed by the clamor of those whom he despised, he sacrificed his conscience

America lies in the fact that its chief rather than incur their anger, Tradition tells us that soon after tion of God, and his remarkable this he did lose his position and power, was banished and ultimately died those moments of solitude before God, a suloide.

That Weak Back

accompanied by pain here or there—extreme nervousness—sleeplessness—may be faint spells—or spasms—all are signals of distress for a woman. She may be growing from girlhood into womanhood—passing from womanhood to motherhood—or later suffering from that change into middle life which leaves so many wrecks of women. At any or all of these periods of a woman a life she should take a tonic and nervine prescribed for just such cases by a physician of yast experience in the diseases of women.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

has successfully treated more cases in past forty years than any other known remedy. It can now be had in sugar-coated, tablet form as well as in the liquid. Sold by medicine dealers or trial box by mail on receipt of 50 cents in stamps.

Miss Elizabeth Lordahl of Berkeley, Cal., in a recent letter to Dr. Pierce said: "I was completely broken down in health, I was acting and had pains allower my body and was so nervous that I could agreem if anyone talked to me, but I had the good fortune to meet a nurse who had been cured by Dr. Pierce a franching. I have never had an occasion to consult a physician since—am in excellent health."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate stomach, liver and bowels—sugar-coated, tiny granules

Baby Has Nerves Like Grown Folks-Respect them. Baby can not tell you what is the trouble. Soothe the

DR. FAHRNEY'S TEETHING SYRUP nd he will sleep well, cat well and act well. This famous remedy is nother's best friend. It prevents Cholera Infantism, cures bowel consisting and Colic, makes Techning easy and safe. Can be given to babes ne day old. 25 cents at druggists. Trial buttle free if you mention

HORROR AND COST OF WAR

Judge Elbert H. Gary Tells of Conditions as He Saw Them in the Wake of Armies.

On Sunday, August 30, in company with another, I rode by motor car about two hundred miles in a semicircle on the north and east of Paris. going within ten or fifteen miles of the line of battle, but taking good care, of course, to keep beyond the limits of danger. I was forcibly impressed first with the horrors of war and secondly with its enormous cost. I saw everything pertaining to war except actual fighting; large numbers of re-enforcements going to the front and many wounded returning to hospitals; troops of all kinds, and armament, ammunition, supplies, facilities of every kind for offense and defense; engineer corps, aeroplane corps, etc. Thousands of refugees were fleeing from their homes to places of supposed safety.

The next day much of the territory traversed was occupied by the forces engaged in deadly conflict. The instruments of destruction, the methods of using the mand the facilities for moving armies have greatly changed. and therefore as the destruction of tife will be so large and rapid it would seem as though the war must necessarily be sooner ended than in former times and under different conditions. I saw temporary hospitals in private houses, under the control of Red Cross societies, on every hand. and many ambulances in use .-"France and Paris in War Times." Judge Elbert H. Gary in National Mag-

Drove Back British Raiders. One hundred years ago one of the marguding parties of British that continued making depredations along the shores of Chesapeake bay after the departure of the British fleet for the South, landed at Deep creek, 15 miles below Annapolis, with a view to having "a frolic with the Yankees," as one of their officers expressed it. But the "Yankees" were on the watch and gave the invaders a warmer reception than they had bargained for. Small detachments of cavalry and infantry attacked the enemy as soon as they had stepped ashore and drove them back to their boats, with considerable loss. No American was killed in the engagement, though Captain Burd of the cavalry was seriously wounded and narrowly escaped being made a prisoner.

Unavailing Wisdom. "Money makes no real difference."

said the ready-made philosopher. "A poor man may know as much as a rich ene." "He may know as much," replied

Mr. Growcher. "But his knowledge is too likely to be of the kind that keeps him thinking of what he could do if he had money."

It isn't every man who can fall intoa fortune without sustaining a compound fracture of the morals.

A quarter earned is more valuable that a dollar found.

> DOCTOR KNEW Had Tried It Himself.

The doctor who has tried Postum knows that it is an easy, certain, and pleasant way out of the coffee habit and all of the ails following and he prescribes it for his patients as did a physician of Prospertown, N. J. One of his patients says:

During the summer just past I suffered terribly with a heavy feeling at the pit of my stomach and dizzy feelings in my head and then a blindness would come over my eyes so I would have to sit down. I would get so nervous I could hardly control my feelings.

"Finally I spoke to our family physiclan about it and he asked if I drank much coffee and mother told him that I did. He told me to immediately stop drinking coffee and drink Postum in its place, as he and his family had used Postum and found it a powerful rebuilder and delicious food-drink.

"I hesitated for a time, disliking the idea of having to give up my coffee, but finally I got a package and found it to be all the doctor said.

"Since drinking Postum in place of coffee my dizziness, blindness and nervousness are all gone, my bowels are regular and I am well and strong. That is a short statement of what Postum has done for me."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum - must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages. Instant Postum-is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same. "There's a Reason" for Postum.

this paper. Made only by DRS. D. FAHRNEY & SON, HAGERSTOWN, Mrs. On Exhibition, Briggs-We are coming around to so you this evening.

Griggs-That's right; but do me a favor, old man. Don't let your wife wear her new fall suit; I don't want my wife to see it just now. Briggs-Why, man alive, that's just why we are coming.

Difficult. "Paw, what's a physical impossibilty?"

"For the butt of a joke to see its point, my son."

Far Apart.

They are distant relatives." Yes? "About $3,000,000 apart."

Hale's Honey Of Horehound and Tar

It does not upset digestion or nerves. Is pleasant to the taste. Contains no opium nor anything injurious.

All druggists. Try Pike's Toothache Dreps

Constipation Vanishes Forever Prompt Relief-Permanent Cure CARTER'S LITTLE

Renews Your Youthful Appearance

LIVER PILLS never fail. Purely vegeta ble - act surely but gently on the liver.

SMALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE. Genuine must bear Signature

WE PAY $1 Per Set for TEETH Which are of no value to you. Highest prices pall for old gold, allver, platinum, old watches broken jewelry, procious stones. Money sent by return mali WEISMAN, 102 South Eighth Street, Philadelphia, Pa

-sold by Grucers. W. N. U., BALTIMORE, NO. 47-1914.