Attention is called to the following new advertisements appearing in this week's paper: E. R. McClain's, J. K. Johnston's, Mrs. Little's and N. M. Laidig's.

We hoped that the hunting season would pass without our having to record any accidents; and the two reported by our Wells Valley correspondent makes the cold shivers go down our spine.

On Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Charles Defibaugh, who lives near Everett, in attempting to remove a kettle of hot water from the stove, accidentally spilt some of it on her little son almost three years of age, scalding the little fellow so badly that he died before midnight.

Phil Schreiber is authority for the statement that there is a chestnut tree on Grant Shoemaker's farm, near Fort Littleton, that has a circumference of 19 feet, 7 inches, five feet from the ground, and a white oak on the Brubaker farm, that measures 14 feet, 5 inches, 5 feet from the ground. The oak carries its thickness.

A Wisconsin hunter shot at and slightly wounded a 300 pound bear. The animal attacked the hunter. In the scuffle the hunter lost his knife, but he succeeded in getting a strangle hold on the bear and choked it to death. A wounded deer turned on a hunter at Buck Lake Canada, and injured the man so badly that he died soon afterwards.

Farmers' week at State College begins December 28, 1914, and ends January 2, 1915. The program for this annual meeting will be of great interest to farmers and their wives. The attendance each year is on the increase. There is nothing that can take the place of personal contact with successful men to increase effectiveness in others engaged in the same line of work.

Motor cars and trucks have replaced 70,000 horses in Kansas during the last four years. Where from 50 to 75 horses were required on the big farms in Western Kansas, now only a half dozen are to be found. Big gasoline tractors plow the fields, gasoline trucks do the heavy hauling and motor cars whisk the farmer and his family about. The farmers own three-fourths of the motor cars in the State.

Do You Want Sale Bills.

The fact that the NEWS office is recognized by careful business men as the place to get sale bills, for the reason, in the first place, that they are attractive, and in the second place, the large circulation of the NEWS carries your sale advertisement into a very large percentage of the homes in the County. Week before last we got out an order for bills for a farmer, and they were so attractive and nifty that he couldn't begin to take care of the crowds that flocked to the sale. After getting the top price for every animal, implement, and article on the bill, the auctioneer said he just couldn't stop. The people just clamored for more. The farmer, in the hope of driving them away, put up his mother-in-law. She brought $160 on the hoof. Then he offered his mortgage for sale. A lifelong friendship between two old neighbors was shattered as each tried to outbid the other. It was finally knocked down to the richer man who was promptly knocked down by the noorer. He sold the weeds along the roadside. He sold a gold brick that he bought in Chicago during the World's Fair. He sold the ruts in the road in front of his place and then offered to sell the secret of where he had the sale bills printed. We cannot give the results as the returns are not all in. They are bidding yet. That's the kind of sale bills we print. Give us a call.

"If You'll Go, I'll Go."

Say that to some friend when you leave him, Saturday night. Of course you will mean that you will go to church Sunday if he will go too. That's a fine way to start off. If you are undecided as to which church to attend, select the one your mother used to go to. You can't go far wrong. Any fellow's mother's religion ought to be good enough for him. So next Sunday give up the lazy hour in bed. Have your best clothes ready. Put 'em on and start out with your head up and your shoulders back. You're doing one of the best things you ever did in your life and if you keep it up you will never be sorry. And you'll be surprised to see how good it feels to be in church. And above all things, if there is congregational singing, SING. Don't merely hold the book and bluff at singing. Fill up your lungs and let out the music. You'll know it, all right. You may have forgotten the words but the tune, never. Why your mother used to sing! She will be a happy woman when she knows that her boy was at church.
