KEEP UP WITH BILLY SUNDAY

Greatest Revival Ever Held Will Open in Philadelphia, January 3

Important as have been the previous campaigns of William A. Sunday throughout Pennsylvania and other states, all will be eclipsed by the ten weeks' revival which begins in Philadelphia next Sunday, January 3.

Never before has the task been attempted of carrying on a religious enterprise of this kind in so large a city—a community with a population of 1,600,000, the center of a district containing many millions more. This project will set a new mark in the records of organized religion.

Americans everywhere who are interested in any degree in church activities or civic righteousness will be desirous of following closely this great undertaking.

The Philadelphia North American has made special arrangements to report the event completely, and is receiving thousands of orders from all over the country for subscriptions covering the duration of the campaign. These additions are so numerous that the paper's facilities will be taxed to handle the increased mailing list, but arrangements have been made to give the preference to orders from Pennsylvania and nearby territory.

Orders may be given to newsdealers or sent to The North American direct.
