Reasonable Assumption.
"I always have my doubts of the man who defends honesty by declaring that he hasn't a crooked bone in his body."
"You think he may be exaggerating?"
"Yes. I'm afraid that he may not know any more about his own shortcomings than he does about physiology."

UNCLE SAM'S FIGHTING TOPS

This remarkable photograph of the battleship New York, taken as it was passing under Manhattan bridge, shows a close view of the fighting tops on the lattice masts that are peculiar to the battleships of the American navy. Though machine guns can be mounted in the tops, their main value is for observation and gun control.

One Dead, Two Injured In Powder Explosion—Traced Eloping Wife; Is Murdered—Steel Works Increase Force.

Matt Straber, aged thirty-five, a miner, was burned to death, Clyde Shaner, aged thirty, will die, and Nelson Swanson escaped with serious burns, when a quantity of gunpowder exploded and set fire to five barrels of oil in the supply house of the Miller Coal Company at Portage. An electric light globe was broken and, falling into an open keg of powder, touched it off.

The body of Michael Dietall, thirty years old, was found under a bridge at Simpson and the police are searching for the man who is alleged to have eloped with the wife of Dietall several years ago. The police say Dietall traced the couple to Simpson and that his murder was the result of efforts to win back his wife.

The will of the late Charles Maerz, prominent tobacconist, of Reading, who left $5 to each of his three daughters, out of an estate of $70,000, giving preference to grandchildren, was set aside by a jury. Letters of administration will now be issued and the estate will be distributed under the interstate laws, the widows receiving her share as under the will, and the daughters each getting an equal share of the remainder.
