This is Farmer's week.

They are here from all directions.

Who wouldn't be a farmer in this generation?

One never hears "book farming" condemned as we once did.

It was the "book farmer" who found potash, phosphate, and nitrogen for our hungry soils.

Don't fail to read the Racket Store's new advertisement in this paper. Messrs. Hull and Bender are making a big racket in prices.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Advertisement.

By all means, mix a few pounds of alfalfa seed with the clover seed this spring when you sow. Some of it will "catch" and by continuing this practice, the soil will become inoculated, so that some time when you wish to sow all alfalfa, you will have the bacteria necessary for alfalfa.

With from four to twelve days of farmers' institute held in every county of the State every winter, what a lot of practical knowledge of better farming methods must have been gained! It seems strange, in the face of all this, that the almost worthless 1-8-1 "fertilizer" should still find ready sale. The fertilizer makers are the only ones benefited by its sale.

C. V. S. N. S. Notes.

Our Varsity Basketball team won a very exciting game from the Steelton High School five on Saturday by the score of 36-34. The Steelton Team is very fast and were in the lead of our boys until the last minute when Barnhart made a perfect shot with the ball and tied the score. Grove then made a perfect shot of two fouls that finished the game. Our boys defeated the Steelton Team at Steelton January 22 by the score of 23-20. Barnhart and Grove were the star players for Normal and their work is always brilliant for Normal. On Saturday Feb. 13 our boys will take a trip to Bloomsburg, where they play their sister Normal.

Glenn A. Lehman rendered a very beautiful solo in Chapel last Sunday morning. Mr. Lehman will sing, as one of the members of a quartette, on Lincoln's birthday.

Our music instructor, Miss Rachel Jones, went to Harrisburg on Wed. Feb. 3 to hear John McCormack, the celebrated Irish Tenor.

Prof. J. S. Heiges gave an address at an institute in Plainfield, Cumberland county, last week. Miss Mary Cutchall took part in the programme of Normal Literary Society last week.

"Near to Nature's Heart."

Taking advantage of the beautiful sunshine of January 30th a number of young people with artistic tastes strolled into Little Cove and down along Licking Creek to commune with Nature, and incidentally, to secure pictures of the beautiful scenery around the Cliffs, old Bat Cave, Stone Bridge, and the ice gorge below the bridge. The party consisted of Miss Ethel Warvel, of Ansonia, Ohio; Miss Lillian Brewer, of McConnellsburg; Mrs. Oscar Litton, and Mr. W. Erby Booth.

Mr. Booth had his camera and some good negatives were secured. Miss Mary Ward added pleasure to the occasion by joining the party at the stone bridge. They report having had a fine time.

They Were not Robbers.

On Friday evening, February 5th, a party wearing masks, and in other ways comically disguised and without as much as asking "by your leave," marched into Mr. Willard A. Litton's home in Thompson township, but as they only "took his breath," and that but for a short time, he soon dismissed the fear that they had come to rob him of some of his earthly possessions. They were friends and neighbors who had selected masquerade style of dress and called to celebrate his birthday. After having given him time to try to guess who they were, the guests unmasked, and he and they had some good laughs at his guesses. Among the many pastimes of the evening was some excellent music by Miss Warvel who is a fine pianist Those present were; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Litton; Ethel Warvel, of Ansonia, Ohio; Irene Brewer, Mattie Winters, Elva Weller, Etta Douglas, Wretha Winters, Mary Culler, Lena Comerer, R. A. Litton, Hearst Brewer, Ora Douglas, Ray Weller, W. Erby Booth Willie James, Gilbert Wigfield, Willie Weller, Hykes Culler, John Culler, and Ira Douglas. After refreshments had been served, the guests inscribed their names on a large star which Mr. Litton will keep as a souvenir.

GRACEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Warden Berkstresser spent Sunday afternoon in the home of John Gracey and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Cutchall and son Norman spent Sunday with Jas. Cutchall and family. Mrs. Dawson Strait is very poorly.

Some of our young people attended the Revival Services at Hustontown last Saturday evening.

Jay Alloway has gone to Philadelphia where he is taking a course with the Modern Auto Company.

Chas. Cutchall, wife and son Lawrence spent Sunday afternoon with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cutchall.

Coasting seems to be the chief amusement of the young people, in this vicinity.

Mr. John Booth, of Dublin Mills, and Robert E. Winegardner, of Clear Ridge, were pleasant visitors at the NEWS office last Saturday.

EVERYBODY KNOWS
WHY
EVERYBODY ELSE
TRADES AT THE RACKET STORE

The reason is simple--very simple--Direct and straight to the point.

It is because we give you better values for your money than and other store in this community.

It is because we never sell an article that we can not recommend or would not use in our own home.

It is because we know that the best way to get your dollar is to give you the worth of that dollar in return.

Now take a look at these special offerings we are making this week. Where could you duplicate them?

BARGAINS IN OVERCOATS

Now is the time to get a bargain in Men's and Boys' Overcoats. We have sold a nice lot of these goods this year; but we want to close out every one, and we will make it pay you to buy a coat now. We must sell to make room for spring goods; so, don't delay if you want a coat. Also, on some suits, we are going to give some one a bargain. You have known us long enough to know that when we say a thing we mean it.

OVERSHOES AND SHOES

We have a good line of rubbers yet; and at good prices. Don't fail to see our line of shoes, as we can save you money.
