ADVERTISEMENTS.

If there is only one bottle of castor oil in the house. Father is willing Mother should have it all because it will do her good. But if there is only one bottle of beer in the house, Father drinks it himself because it might not agree with mother.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

One of our valued subscribers, who seldom fails to send some fine butter to town every Saturday, is Mrs. W. S. Brant, near Dane. Last Saturday we had the pleasure of "salting down" some of that butter money in exchange for a year's good reading matter.

A few days ago, one of John Raker's calves got into the horse stable, and one of the horses broke one of the calf's hind legs below the knee. John did not get excited and take the calf's life, but he mercifully amputated the calf's leg, bound up the wound, and in due time, all the calf will need to enable it to frolic upon the hillsides along with the rest of the herd, will be a wooden leg.

If You Want To Be Loved.

Don't contradict people, even if you're sure you are right.
Don't be inquisitive about the affairs of even your most intimate friend.
Don't underrate anything because you don't possess it.
Don't believe that everybody else is happier than you.
Don't conclude that you never had any opportunities in life.
Don't believe all the evils you hear.
Don't repeat gossip, even if it does interest a crowd.
Don't jeer at anybody's religious belief.
Learn to hide your aches and pains under a pleasant smile. Few care whether you have the earache, headache or rheumatism.
Learn to attend to your own business—a very important point.
Do not try to be anything else but a gentleman or a gentlewoman; and that means one who has consideration for the whole world, and whose life is governed by the Golden Rule: "Do unto others as you would be done by."—Christian World.

Celebrated Lincoln's Birthday.

Young folks celebrated Lincoln's birthday in a pleasing manner in the home of Miss Samantha B. Mellott Friday evening, February 12th. Appropriate and tastefully arranged decorations made the rooms very pretty. Misses Goldie Mason and Mildred Mock furnished delightful music on the piano, and in addition, the victrola gave forth sweet strains. This, with refreshments, kept the company busy until a late hour.
The guests were: Misses Olive Lodge, Lillian Brewer, Lucile Grissinger, Dorothy Hamil, Goldie Mason, Bertha Tritle, Esther Kendall, Olive Wible and Mildred Mock. Messrs Mac Morton, Walter Johnston, Wilmer Hays, Ross Ott, Willis Daniels, Pete Morton, Guy Reed, Thurman Nesbit, Frank Ott, Kenneth Glazier, Raymond Grissinger and John Maun.—"Guest."

Norman Gladfelter of Hustontown, helped huckster George Sipes hold down the springs in the latter's wagon last Monday on the way to town, and now the Gladfelter name will appear on our February roll of honor because we have a Gladfelter dollar in our till.
