CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Fred Black, of Ebensburg, is spending a few week's vacation with home folks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Comerer, of Thompson township, were shoppers in town last Saturday.

Baptist preaching services will be held on Sabbath, February 21, at Mr. J. L. Mellott's home in Belfast township.

Dr. W. T. Runyan the Eye Man will be in McConnellsburg, Friday and Saturday, February 19th and 20th. 2-11-21.

Postmaster S. B. Woollet was seriously "under the weather" during the latter part of last week and for a few days this week.

Otho Summers is returning to his work at Kearney to-day, after having spent the time since last Sunday visiting among his McConnellsburg relatives and friends.

A postcard from M. L. Hann, Los Angeles, Cal., to Mr. Jas. A. Stewart, says: "We enjoyed your bits of local history in the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Give us more."

Mrs. Helen Corbin and little daughter, who had been visiting Mrs. Corbin's mother, Mrs. Jennie Johnston in the Cove, returned a few days ago to their home in Lewistown.

Merchant Chas. McGeehe and son Roy, at Burnt Cabins, were in town yesterday. Charlie does not get to town very frequently, as it has been more than a year since his last visit.

Mr. Russell Bernhart, Franklin Mills, spent last Sunday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Souders, west of town. Mr. Bernhart was a pleasant caller at the News office Monday.

Hon. and Mrs. D. A. Nelson, of the Cove, and Mrs. B. W. Peck, of this place, spent last Friday and Saturday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Nelson, near Newville, Pa.

Undertaker D. J. Lininger, of Mercersburg, conducted the two trifle funerals that came to the Cove within one week of each other, one, last Monday an one, on the preceding Monday.

Judge W. B. Stigers and W. B. Ranck, two leading and progressive farmers of the lower end of the County, drove to town last Friday afternoon and were the guests of the Fulton House that night.

Miss Winnifred Metzler, of Harrisonville, left on the noon hack last Thursday to visit her brothers in Philadelphia and at Sellersville, and while in the Quaker City, expects to hear Billy Sunday.

Mrs. E. M. Daniels, of Sipes Mills, has been very ill for several weeks in the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. P. Mann, in this place. Another daughter, Mrs. E. N. Akers, of Sipes Mills, visited her several days.

Little Billy Nace's mother took him to the Chambersburg hospital yesterday morning. He has been sick for sixteen weeks, and while he was thought to be improving, his temperature went up again Monday until it was above 103. We trust the change to the hospital may be to his advantage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Strait of Licking Creek township, were spending some cash with our dentist, and merchants, in town last Friday. Harvey took time to reinvest a dollar in NEWS stock, and to chat a few moments about doin's in his neighborhood.

Wild turkeys brought $25.00 each and costs at Justice Conrad's court last Saturday. Talk about the high cost of living! This beats all records. However it may be cheap in the end. Justice Conrad declines to say who the "purchaser" was.

While Robert A. Hamil was clipping the wing feathers of some chickens last Saturday, he unfortunately cut a piece off of the end of a finger. Before the flow of blood was stopped he walked to an open fire place and fainted. Had it not been for the presence of witnesses who saw him fall beside the fire and rescued him, his clothing would have quickly ignited, and we might have had a sadder story to tell.

H. L. Gish, well known miller and grain dealer in Mercersburg, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors on Tuesday. On account of the limited capacity for storage, he ground much of the wheat stored by farmers when the price was low, and now when they demand settlement at present prices, Mr. Gish finds himself unable to comply.

Society events in town, reported since our last issue, were: A dinner last Saturday to twenty-four ladies by Mrs. George Mock. An evening party by Mrs. H. L. McKibbin, on last Saturday; one by Mrs. B. F. Henry on Monday, and another, by Mrs. E. R. McClain on Tuesday. On Monday, Mrs. C. B. Stevens gave a Valentine luncheon. Mrs. H. U. Nace also entertained last Friday evening.

We hear that Roy Sipes had a good crop of corn last fall on the first field to be ploughed up in twenty years on the old Helm place on Green Hill. Also, that he is clearing off some of the fields that had grown up with Jack pine during those years in which the farm lay fallow. Go to it, Roy, even if it does spoil a few acres for rabbit shooting—there are plenty of other rabbit grounds in the same neighborhood.

Mr. S. N. Bumgarner, and Lee Chapman, of Belfast township, made a trip to McConnellsburg in the wagon Tuesday. Our first impression upon looking Mr. Bumgarner in the face was, that he had been eating a good deal of sausage this winter and not working much; but we found upon inquiry that his apparent obesity in the face was due to a swollen condition arising from an accident which befel him a few days ago. While hauling wood, he was overcome with dizziness, fell, and cut his upper lip and otherwise injured himself.

Belfast township had an addition of two to its population last week. A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hollinshead, and one to Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Waltz. Just as the recently born White House baby made President Wilson a grandpa for the first time, so the Waltz baby put our friend Rev. John Mellott in the same class with Mr. Wilson. Also, as the latter is said to have suddenly become absent-minded, and the butt of many jokes because of his pride in the first grandchild, so the Reverend's friends are wondering whether the new baby made him forget an appointment last Sabbath.

Died Seated in Buggy.

Mrs. Ida Weller, wife of Joseph Weller, died Saturday, February 6th, on top of the mountain near Little Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Weller were coming home from Mercersburg in a buggy, and were talking, when suddenly she leaned against Mr. Weller's shoulder and was dead. Deceased was a daughter of Joseph Shives, of near Hancock, and is survived by brothers and sisters, Mrs. Samuel Weller, Mrs. Grant Myers, Mrs. Clarence Vance, Benjamin Shives, Harry Shives, Newton Shives, and her mother Mrs. Joseph Shives. Interment on Tuesday at the Stone Church, near Little Cove.

Newspaper Plant For Sale.

The Shippensburg (Pa.) News and Job Printing Office is offered at private sale. It was established in 1844 and seldom changed hands. Owned by the late D. K. & J. C. Wagner from 1866 to 1900, when death caused change. Owned by the present proprietor for the past 15 years. Job work increased over one hundred per cent, and advertising more than double under present ownership. Business runs about $5000.00 per year. All books open to bonafide prospective buyers.

NEEDMORE.

George, son of Amos Barber, has purchased a lot from Eli Peck and is having lumber sawed preparatory to building a house in the near future.

Report has it that Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Downes received a valentine on the 14th that doubtless, will be named Valentine O. Downes.

Church Notices.

There will be preaching services at Mount Zion Sunday, February 21st, at 10 o'clock a. m., and at Bedford Chapel at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. E. J. Croft.

GO NO FARTHER.

The Evidence Is At Your Door.

McConnellsburg proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

Riley Peck, shoemaker, Pleasant St., McConnellsburg, says: "Some years ago I was troubled with my kidneys and soreness in my back. I was dizzy at times and it affected my eyes. I had to get up often at night on account of the kidney secretions. I was tired out when I got up in the morning and I didn't feel like doing any work. I had a doctor at the time, but he only gave me a little relief. A friend insisted upon me taking Doan's Kidney Pills, as he was cured by them. I got two boxes at Trout's Drug Store, and found great relief at once."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Peck had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Surprise.

On Tuesday, February 9th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Cromwell near Clear Ridge was the scene of a very joyous event, it being the 21st birthday of their daughter Elsie.

While Elsie and her brother were having some music she thought she heard sleigh bells and she soon knew what was going on. For in a few minutes the door was open and the room was filled with her pupils and many friends who had come to celebrate her birthday.

The evening was spent very joyously in playing games and music. About 11 o'clock all were invited to the dining room to partake of a lunch of ice cream and cake. Elsie was the recipient of many useful presents. At an early hour all departed for their homes wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Those present were; Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Cromwell, Mrs. Matilda Cromwell, Harry Snyder, Lillian Henry, Emma Kerlin, Rosa Mort, Lona and Eldy McElheny, Rufus and Rush Henry Merrill Stevens, Ralph Ramsey, Buhl and Raymond Roher, Fred and Paul Madden, Olive and Guy Clark, Minola, Iva, Owen and Emmett Brown, Roy Locke, Belle and Trace Park, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Stains and baby Ruth, Jay, Baker, Miram and Lydia Staines, Harold Miller, Louis Strait, Eddie McQuait, and Emery and Elsie Cromwell.

Special Lenten Services.

The special Lenten and Easter services under the management of Rev. J. L. Yearick in the Presbyterian and Reformed churches in the town began last evening in the Presbyterian church. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Stonesifer, of the Reformed church, Fort Loudon. An illustrated lecture will be given in the Reformed church, Friday evening by the pastor, and, next Sunday morning, Rev. Yearick will preach in the Reformed church at 10:30; at Hebron, at 2:30, and in the Presbyteria church in the evening at 7:00. Rev. Dr. Rose, of the Presbyterian church, Mercersburg, will preach in the Reformed church, next Wednesday evening.

The telephone brings 'em running

See that basket going into the Brown's?

Mrs. Brown did her marketing by Bell Telephone this morning, in less time than it took you to walk to the carline.

She does every morning; she insists upon the nicest things, and gets them, too.

A few minutes of Bell Telephoning is worth an hour of tramping around the markets.

Ask the Business Office how little it costs.

L. W. FUNK
-- DEALER IN --
High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
