

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS

R. J. Fleming has erected a new stable at his blacksmith shop. The Clevenger Hall has been converted into an 8-room dwelling. All roads lead to our subscription books. Are you traveling? March came in with a roar like a lion. Will it go out like a lamb? Communion services in the M. E. church in this place, Sunday, March 7th.

Mrs. J. L. Yearick has been suffering for the past week with a very sore throat. When a lazy man can no longer count on his friends he should count on his fingers. The price of wheat seems to be going down as fast as water flows through the Dardanelles.

Mrs. H. C. Demuth, of Lancaster, is visiting her friend Mrs. E. R. McClain, north Second street. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Helman, at the tollgate west of town Friday of last week, a little girl. Miss Esta Hart and her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Palmer, of Needmore, spent a few hours in town Tuesday.

William P. Nelson, son of Hon. and Mrs. D. A. Nelson, left for Youngstown, Ohio, to-day for an indefinite period. Joe Melius, progressive farmer of Taylor township, discussed agriculture with the editor for a few minutes Tuesday.

Scott Knepper, of Dublin Mills, dealer in livestock, spent several days this week visiting friends here and in the Cove. Merchant Harry Johnston went to Baltimore and other eastern cities on Monday to make purchases of spring goods. Miss Nell Thompson of Tyrone, was the guest of honor at a dinner party given by Mrs. C. B. Stevens last Saturday evening.

Claude C. Garland, of Ayr township, left on the 21st ult., for Illinois where he has employment on a farm with Z. M. Rodrick. The NEWS will keep him posted during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mason of Thompson township, were in town shopping Tuesday. While in town Roy paid a year's dues in advance and was initiated into the big Fulton County News order. Rev. W. M. Cline wandered into town last Monday on the painful errand of having dental work done. But little things like that do not seem to rob him of cheerfulness, or make him forget any of his good stories.

Maurice Trout, a Philadelphia pharmacist, is spending some time in the home of his mother, Mrs. Matilda B. Trout of this place, for the purpose of recuperating his health which has not been good for some time. John W. Fields, formerly of this place, but now editor of the Oklahoma Farm Journal, is slowly recovering from a protracted siege of "walking" typhoid fever, according to a letter from him to William Hull, of this place. In sending in obituary notices for publication, our friends will kindly not send verses to be included in the notice. We make no charge for publishing death notices, but verses are charged for at the rate of ten cents a line. The Stork borrowed Dr. McClain's auto several times last week and left a little boy at Harry Heller's, a little girl at Hays Strait's—both of Hustontown—and then skidded over to Laidig and left a little girl at Alton Price's. The county commissioners of Fulton county met last week and found that they could pay off $30,000 of the county's indebtedness, and further, that they could safely reduce the tax rate to 44 mills. They claim that the county's expenses have been reduced in that proportion since the county went "dry" two years ago.

Leg Broken. David Rinedollar, farmer residing near BackRun schoolhouse, had the misfortune yesterday to have one of his legs broken. He was in the woods hauling wood, when a heavy piece fell on him breaking his left leg midway between the knee and ankle. Dr. Robinson was called and rendered the necessary surgical aid.

Some Compliment.

It is not often an editor hands himself a compliment. But this is the exception, and that is just what we are doing, because a certain well known citizen of this community has persistently recognized the value of THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS as a disseminator of local news, and has paid us this peer of all compliments in a kind manner which speaks volumes for his knowledge of the good things of life. He is not destitute of this world's goods, and he possesses the rare faculty of holding onto that which he gets, lest the pangs of poverty overtake him in his declining years. He possesses a wide knowledge of local affairs, because he is a constant reader of the News paper, and the knowledge extracted therefrom is turned to good account in his own behalf. If an important event is soon to occur he knows of it in advance because he has read it in this paper. If there is a bargain to be had anywhere in the community he is promptly apprised of the fact because that, too, he has read of in this paper. And if an acquaintance is sick, or death has overtaken some member of a family, or the stork has paid a visit to the home of some friend, he is among the first to extend his condolences or congratulations—because of these, also, he has read in this paper. He is a man of wisdom—a pillar of strength—with a brain which absorbs to the utmost of the essence of life. Few things escape his notice—he is ever on the alert. But the ONE THING which he NEVER OVERLOOKS IS THIS PAPER, and therein lies the compliment which we take unto ourselves. It gives us a feeling that we are something more than a mere human worm, that we are even a whole cog in the community wheel. True, he is NOT A SUBSCRIBER to the paper—his dollar never reaches this office—but he READS THE PAPER JUST THE SAME. His neighbor is a subscriber, and pays in advance, and in his generosity he lends the paper to the "pillar of strength"—by request. But it may not always be so. In time we have hopes that the "pillar" will pay us the super-compliment of permitting us to humbly add his own distinguished name to our subscription list. Time works wonders—even in the newspaper field. Yes, we have hopes—strong hopes.

Health Bread.

This is not a paid advertisement, but is published by request of one of our readers who has used it with most gratifying results. It is worth trying. Take 1 qt. of bran, 1 pint of white flour, 1/2 cup of molasses, 1 teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a little of the molasses, 1 teaspoonful of salt, 1 qt. of good buttermilk, and 1/2 cup of raisins. Bake in a square or oblong bread pan for one hour. This receipt is a prescription given by a famous Norwegian physician for constipation. If used instead of white bread it will absolutely cure the most chronic cases. The bread is delicious.

WARFORDSBURG.

(These items were intended for last week, but they arrived too late. Editor) Ephraim Mellott, of Republic, Ohio, but formerly of Pleasant Ridge, is spending this week visiting friends in this vicinity. Miss Laura Mellott, of Darby, Pa., is visiting her mother. Mrs. Reuben Mellott who is making preparations for the sale of her property. Frank Taylor is busy sawing lumber for Will Mellott. John Mellott, of Needmore, left on February 26th for Ohio to join his brother Ous.

Rev. A. G. B. Powers will open a series of meetings on the evening of March 10th. Rev. J. W. Hoffman, of Everett, will arrive March 12th and remain in meetings. Other ministers are expected to be present and assist. Our Missionary Society is planning an Easter Service for the evening of Easter Sunday. Mrs. Russell Truax and two children George and Foster, of Bell Grove, Md., have been visiting relatives here during the past few days.

LONG AUTO TRAIN MEANS PROSPERITY

Prosperity Special, Consisting of Eighty Cars and Bearing 220 Automobiles Passes Through Altoona. From Altoona Mirror. Another prosperity special of the Buick automobile concern, even larger than the big automobile train of this firm which passed through Altoona several weeks ago, was taken through the yards this afternoon. The train of today consisted of eighty big cars, all loaded with automobiles from the Buick factory at Flint, Mich. In all, 220 automobiles were aboard. The train arrived in Altoona at 9 o'clock this morning and after the customary change of engines was sent on east. At Harrisburg the train will be broken up and the consignment of automobiles will be sent to different points in the east. A photograph of the train will be taken in the vicinity of Harrisburg. The prosperity special which passed through Altoona on Jan. 19 consisted of sixty-seven cars the present train being longer by thirteen cars. The value of the 220 automobiles on board is considered over a quarter of a million dollars. The weight is 865,200 pounds. The freight charges from Flint to the destination amounts to $6,721.52. It is somewhat gratifying to the local Pennsy officials to handle these big trains, as during former years the shipments of the Buick concern were taken over the New York central. The excellent service in the way of transportation which the Pennsy has been able to offer, has induced the Buick officials to select this route for 1915 in making their big eastern shipments. W. C. Glynn, division freight agent of the Pennsy, with headquarters here had supervision of the movement of the train on this division of the Pennsy. This activity in the automobile business so early is due to the fact that those persons who delayed placing their order with the local dealer in past seasons, found that when the time came for delivery, the machines were not to be had, and consequently, the best part of the season would be spent before their machine could be delivered. The more of these immense shipments, the scarcer Buick Cars are becoming. Prospects for Buick cars have but a very short time to get a 1915 Buick—The Car with the Valve in Head Motor. R. M. Cline, McConnellsburg, is agent for this car.

Announced Engagement.

In the Altoona Mirror of the 18th ult., the regular Tyrone correspondent of that paper tells that in a most clever and unique manner Miss Nell G. Thompson, the accomplished daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Harry A. Thompson, announced her engagement to Dr. J. W. Earl Ellenberger of Wilkensburg, Pa., on Tuesday evening, February 16th in Tyrone. Miss Thompson was the hostess at a luncheon and sewing party at her home in Tyrone. The other members of the circle were: Mrs. Roy Bayer, Mrs. James Freeman, Mrs. Harvey Garman, Miss Mabel Jackson, Miss Bess McConahy, Miss Mary Elder, Miss Bertha Wilson and Mrs. D. E. Wentzell of Bellwood. After discussing the delicious menu, Miss Thompson escorted the party to her boudoir, where they were treated to a sight of the hovel "hope chest." After viewing and admiring the various articles of household goods, etc., the hostess displayed a handsome diamond engagement ring, which dispelled all doubt. The wedding will occur at an early date this spring. The bride to be is the only daughter of the editor of the Tyrone Times. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ellenberger. He is a graduate of Jefferson Medical college and at present is practicing in Wilkensburg.

FEBRUARY FRIENDS.

Short Month Makes Long List of New Subscriptions and Renewal to the Fulton County News. Below will be found the names of new subscribers and old ones that have renewed during the month of February. Housekeepers who prepare three meals a day, make the beds, and attend to the dozen-and-one other things that make up the daily routine of life, are in a position to appreciate the monotony of getting out a newspaper. Day-in and day-out—week-in and week-out—the publisher of your newspaper must stay right on the job. There are, however, compensations that are not to be despised: The kind words of appreciation of the effort expended in trying hard to make the paper worth every cent the subscriber pays for it; the interest our friends take in helping to furnish news and in trying to interest others to become subscribers; the constantly increasing length of our subscription list, and last but not least, the promptness and cheerfulness displayed in keeping the subscription paid up. Our object in publishing the names of those who pay during the month just passed is to give opportunity to see whether proper credit on our books has been given.

High-Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
