THEY ALL DEMAND IT.

McConnellsburg, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies to-day that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is McConnellsburg evidence of their merit.

P. F. Black, McConnellsburg, says: "While unloading lumber at my works, I slipped and wrenched my back badly. After that I had great pain across my loins, and my back often got lame and sore. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug Store, and they soon gave me relief. This remedy has my endorsement."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Black had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Wm. Schooley and family moved from Conrad Sipes' place to the Mrs. Beckie Hann estate house one mile south of Austin place.

David Brake, an aged citizen of St. Thomas, the former general manager of the Chambersburg and Bedford Turnpike who traveled over the pike so often, and whom we may thank for ordering the making of many rough places smooth, and many dangerous places safe, in the old pike days, is now confined to bed, suffering with rheumatism.

R. R. Hann, and daughter Pauline, drove over to Bedford, last week, to visit and bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McClelland, the latter was formerly Miss Beckie Greenland, of Wells Valley. They having sold their property in Bedford, are going to move to Fostoria, O., in the near future. Mr. Hann and daughter also visited his uncle Miles C. Greenland and family, of said town, formerly of Wells Valley. That veteran deer hunter, who, recently, so successfully and effectively, corrected that smart Aleck who tried to tell us the reason why male deer annually lose their horns. This reminds us of a little episode that happened a few years ago. A drummer bought a wild turkey that was raised with tame turkeys, and had it in a slatted box in his wagon. He was exhibiting it as he went over his route. The game laws were not so strict then. When asked how he got it he said he caught it—said it had flown against a limb of a tree which stunned it and he ran and caught it. At last he ran against an old hunter who said "Ah, you old liar! You can tell greenhorns that, but never tell an old hunter such stuff—wild turkeys do not fly against limbs."

Tobacco Breeds Cancer.

At a meeting of the Homeopathic Medical Society in Philadelphia County, held in Hahnemann College, Philadelphia, last week, a warning against the use of tobacco was issued. This warning was embodied in a report of the cancer Commission of the Society, of which Dr. Theodore Gramm is chairman.

Dr. Gramm reiterated the assertion that irritation of the mouth, tongue and throat, caused by incessant pipe and cigar smoking, is a most favorable condition for the breeding of cancer. "It is not believed, however, from what investigation has been made that cancer is a primary infection," he said. "It seems to be secondary, and depends for its development on some condition or irritation of uncleanness preceding it."

The excessive use of tobacco brought about the cancer that cost General Grant his life.

Lovely Day for a War.

Aunt Mary is the best old soul you'll meet in many a day. She's tended to her knitting in the good old-fashioned way. She never gabs nor gossips, she has no time to gad and she seldom reads the papers, 'cause, she says, they make her sad. She drove to town Monday afternoon to shop around a bit and Scott Runyan the grocery man, invited her to sit. Says he "Aint this war awful?" and Aunt Mary says "My Land! Aint heard a word about it—I aint even heard no band." And Scott says "Sure, old England and France and Russia, too, are a fighting with the Kaiser,—why, it's worse than '62." Aunt Mary answered sweetly, as she started on her way, "Well they've got nice weather for it, 'cause it's jest a lovely day?"

At least one Cumberland county young farmer will have "sweet milk" for a while. He took home five pounds of sugar recently and while he was putting his horse in the stable, a cow wandered around to where the buggy was standing and ate the sugar.

March Court.

Court called on Monday at 2, P. M. with Judge Samuel McC. Swope presiding, and his associate William Mellott on the bench. Associate Judge William B. Stagers, was not present on account of the illness of a relative.

Constables were called and made their respective returns.

The Grand Jurors were called sworn and charged by the Court and proceeded to pass upon bills, and finished their work 10:30 Tuesday.

The first case called was that of the Commonwealth vs H. Clyde Byers, charged with F. and B., adultery, and another serious charge. The defendant had been arrested in the state of Ohio, on a requisition and brought before the Court. The legal contest as to whether he could be tried for all charges, was a spirited one, engaging the court for an hour or more. The Court held that the proceedings were regular. The selection of a jury consumed the time of the court until adjournment. On Tuesday morning the case was continued until October.

The petition of Myrtle Rensburg, minor child of Mary A. Rensburg, deceased, was presented asking for the appointment of a guardian and Hon. William B. Stagers was appointed by the Court.

A like petition was presented by Mary E. Batorff, a minor and the Court appointed James G. Alexander, guardian.

Harland Lockard a minor over the age of fourteen years appeared in Court and selected L. L. Cunningham, as guardian and the court made the appointment.

The petit jury was discharged at 9:30 Tuesday morning.

Return of sale of real estate of George Schetrompf deceased was confirmed.

An order for the sale of the real estate of B. A. Deavor, deceased was awarded.

In the estate of John McCullough, deceased, J. Nelson Sipe Esq., was appointed by the court to take the testimony in the matter of the contest of the will, as to whether an issue should be awarded.

In the case of John N. Hixson, deceased, return of order of sale of real estate was confirmed.

In the assigned estate of Dallas Myers, return of order of sale of real estate was confirmed.

In the estate of Almira V. Greathead deceased, an order was awarded for the sale of real estate for payment of debts.

The resignation of W. A. Sloan as Burgess of the borough of McConnellsburg, was presented with a petition of the members of the town council asking the appointment of L. W. Seylar as Burgess and the court made the appointment as requested.

John M. Schenck was appointed supervisor of Wells township to fill the balance of the term of Watson Cessna who resigned, and A. D. Keith was appointed to fill the balance of the term of L. L. Cunningham who resigned.

Six petitions were presented by A. H. Anderson, one of the defendants in six different judgments. J. A. McDonough, vs. W. R. Anderson and A. H. Anderson; same against same; Fulton County Bank, vs. same; Hope well National Bank, vs. same; First National Bank of Three Springs, vs. same; and D. T. Tenley, vs. same, setting forth that he had never signed the notes on which the several judgments had been entered, and the court awarded rules to show cause why the judgments should not be opened, &c.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Geo. Elvery, recognizance, forfeited to be resputed on appearance of the defendant at October Sessions.

Commonwealth vs. Edward Golden, charge, assault and battery, recognizance forfeited to be resputed on the appearance of the defendant at October Sessions.

Commonwealth vs. Russel Barnhart nol. pros. entered on motion of District Attorney, there being no offense charged in the information.

Com. vs. Russel Wible. case settled and nol. pros. on motion of District Attorney.

Com. vs. Harry Marshall, charge assault and battery, nol. pros. was entered on motion of District Attorney.

In the matter of a petition of the citizens of Taylor township

How Much Longer Will You Pay?

For four years in Pennsylvania, for two in New Jersey, the Full Crew Law has had the acid test of every-day experience.

What has it accomplished?

Five and one-half million dollars have been wasted by the railroads, and in no single instance has the Full Crew Law, that compels this waste, contributed one jot to the safety of the traveling public.

In proportion to the great body of railroad employees, the number of extra men forced on the railroads by the Full Crew bill is small. But their pay is high, higher, in fact, than the wages really earned by most other classes of employees.

It costs the railroads $2566 in one year to pay the superfluous trainmen on one passenger train operating between New York and Pittsburgh.

That's but a single item, taken at random from the tremendous bill which directly or indirectly each citizen has to pay.

But the people are now determined to pay this needless bill no longer.

If you have not yet voiced your personal demand that the waste of this money that should be spent for your better and safer service be stopped, a letter to your elected representative at Harrisburg and Trenton is your most effective method.

SAMUEL REA, President, Pennsylvania Railroad. DANIEL WILLARD, President, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. THEODORE VOORHEES, President, Philadelphia and Reading Railway. R. L. O'DONNELL, Chairman, Executive Committee, Association of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, 721 Commercial Trust Building, Philadelphia.

for a county bridge over Sideling Hill creek at a point on the public road from Hustontown to Waterfall at what is known as the "Gladfelter Fording." The Court appointed M. R. Shaffner, Frank P. Plessinger, and W. B. Ranck, viewers.

There were no civil cases for trial. Court adjourned at 11:30 a. m., Tuesday.

ENID.

George Schenck and wife, of Brush Creek, spent several days with relatives last week.

Reed Edwards attended a township institute at Hopewell on Saturday.

Dora Stevens, a student in the Defiance High School, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mrs. John Stunkard, Sr., visited friends and relatives at Hustontown last week.

Edgar Warsing is going to help Harry Stunkard farm this year.

Laura Edwards was the guest of Ruth Cunningham of New Grenada, Saturday night.

Mrs. Hattie Barcroft is preparing to rebuild her barn that was destroyed by lightning last summer.

Quite a number of our people were at the County Capital this week.

Hillary Foster is no better.

Surprised Charlie.

Wending his way home from a sale last Friday evening, and, doubtless, wondering what to cook or supper in the absence of a housekeeper, Charlie Fore, near Knobsville, was surprised to find that his brothers and sisters, and a lot more friends, had "beat him to it" and had not only prepared a supper fit for a king, but provided dishwashers too. It was Charlie's birthday, and the following friends were the cause of his "trouble" that night: David Fore and wife, Ira Fore, wife, and son George; C. E. Gobin and wife, Samuel Cromer and wife, Samuel Pittman and wife, Bert Kerlin, wife, and children Ralph, Ray and Annie; Emory Glunt, Chas. Fore and three sons—Merrill, Boyd, and Herry.
