NATURE'S WARNING.

McConnellsburg People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come mysteriously.
But nature generally warns you.

Notice the kidney secretions.
See if the color is unhealthy.
If there are settlements and sediment.

Passages frequent, scanty painful.
It's time to fear serious kidney trouble.

It's time to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Doan's have done great work in McConnellsburg.

L. A. Youse, retired butcher, of E. Water St., McConnellsburg says: "About three years ago my back ached badly and it hurt me to stoop or lift. Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Trout's Drug Store, soon gave me relief. I gladly endorse them."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Youse had.

SALVIA

April 12.—Mack Sipes who was run down by an auto on the Lincoln Highway, a little west of McConnellsburg, a few days ago, is in a precarious condition.

John W. Stewart who has boarded with his brother J. A.
Stewart since December first, began working for Herbert Jackson, near McIlvains, on Monday last.

Lincoln I. Deshong D. D. G. M. installed the new officers of War-fordsburg Lodge I. O. O. F., on Saturday evening last.

Indications for a big fruit crop were never more promising in Licking Creek Valley, provided frosts, or excessive rains, do not come at blossoming time. The buds have been much retarded by cool weather, and will not likely burst into bloom before the latter part of April.

Edward R. Hendershot with his new Buick automobile conveyed L. L. Deshong and John F.
Deshong to Warfordsburg, and Mrs. Hendershot to the home of her father, Rev. Funk, last Saturday. They returned on Sunday.

H. M. Hollishead, Harrisonville's merchant and postmaster, with his automobile conveyed Mrs. Clara Decker and her son Verlie to Hancock where they took train for Pittsburgh and the West on Monday last.

Squire Bert Haan talks of going to lay track on the Raichly road near McIlvains. The Kline brothers are rushing in those 11,000 railroad ties for the road down Brush Creek Valley.

Cadiz Schooley broke the mold-board of his plow squarely in two on last Friday. It's the old hang man's law "When the rope break the culprit goes free." So, Cadiz, you are free from ploughing any more (with that plow)

Hard cider and other dope were much in evidence the other Sunday night at church. Boys, in the name of all decency, why don't you either stay where you get the dope, or go into the woods

HOUSEHOLD DUTIES
AND FAMILY CARES

severely tax a woman's strength, and when wife or mother complains of fatigue, nervousness or loss of appetite she needs rest, and building up.

The first thought should be Scott's Emulsion, which is the pure food-tonic that family physicians have prescribed for forty years for just such conditions.
Its wonderful nourishing force works in unity with nature to overcome languor, fill hollow cheeks, enrich the blood, and restore the healthy glow.

There is no stimulating alcohol or stupefying drug in Scott's Emulsion; it is a pure, rich food-medicine and every drop yields direct returns in creating strength. For overworked, nervous women nothing equals or compares with Scott's Emulsion, but be careful to avoid the alcoholic substitutes.

somewhere and suck in dope and rotgut to your hearts' content instead of going into, and about the churches to disturb people who want to worship, and and to the annoyance of the mistress by your talking, grunting and mocking aloud, and disturbing all hearers at the rear end of the church—such conduct being an outrage. It would not be hard to prove that booze is brought and distributed near the churches even under cover of the horses and buggies hitched thereby. It don't seem worth while for churches and temperance people to try to have Sunday schools to train the young people in the way in which they should go, and then allow a lot of bad mannerly boys to set such an awfully wicked example before them. For the good of our communities, our children, our Sunday schools and churches let us quit coaxing, scolding and threatening, and try detecting, apprehending, and prosecuting.
The penalties of the law are severe enough to straighten them.
[Dear Friends:—Shall we send missionaries—or would you rather have State Troopers? Editor.]

After having visited friends in Washington, D. C. the wife and children of Rev. A. S. Luring, pastor of the M. E. church, arrived in town on Tuesday of this week. It will be remembered that Rev. Luring was transferred from Riddlesburg to this place by the last Conference and before coming, Mrs. Luring and the children stopped with relatives in Washington.

Brothers, sisters and children of Mrs. Keziah C. Johnston celebrated her eighty-first birthday at a banquet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston, yesterday. Mrs. Johnston is in reasonably good health.

Charles Richardson, of Knobs-ville, removed to his farm west of Newville, Cumberland county, two weeks ago, and his address is now Newville, R. D. 4.

SIMPLY HAD TO BE PLAYED

Under the Circumstances, What Was There to Be Done With the Cricketer Without Value?

A well-known cricketer told us this story the other day:

He was staying in a small country village lately, and on the local half-holiday he went to see the village cricket club play on the green.
Afterward he discussed the match with the captain and ventured to make a few criticisms.

"There was one man playing for you today," he said, "that I can't think why you have him in the team at all."

The captain nodded wearily.
"I know whom you mean," he said. "Jones, the man who went in last."

"Yes, that's the man," replied the other. "Why do you play him? He can't bat, he can't bowl, and he missed at least two easy catches."

"The fellows will have him in the team," grumbled the captain.
"Is he such a favorite, then?"

"Great Scott, no!" exclaimed the captain. "The fellows hate him like poison. But his three sisters are the prettiest girls in the village, and they always come and watch the match when he plays!"—London

GUIDING THE CHILD ARIGHT

Matter of Correction Is One Calling for Careful Consideration by the Parents.

Treat the child more as an equal, whose obedience you require on reasonable grounds because you are older and know more than he does.
Compel his obedience by showing him the bad results of his disobedience. At the same time let his personality have play so that he may learn to do for himself as much as possible. Let him feel free, so long as he does right. Do not deprive him of a walk or outdoor air or make him study by way of punishment. That is to give him a distaste for study, and a shut-in system of correction is unhealthful. It is no cure for a nervous child to be so frightened that he trembles more from fear than from nerves, so avoid any sort of punishment that terrorizes him. Whipping is usually (not always) barbarous.—Los Angeles Times.

Public Office.
Oh, long and arduous is the chase—How oft has history told it!
You have to fight to get a place And fight still more to hold it.

His Definite Status.
"The fellow who married your daughter—"
"He is my son-in-law now," grimly replied Grant P. Smith. "I don't know what he used to be."—Judge.

HARRISONVILLE.

Lydia Minnick is not improving much. Floyd Daniels is suffering with gripe, and E. O.
Hann, Saluvit, had a severe attack of the same thing.

The account of the woods fire last week was not quite correct.
The fire was in John Williams' woods. It destroyed a large amount of fence for Frank Sipes, burnt over Mae Lake's clover field and destroyed her fence.
Hard work by neighbors saved Mr. Hoop's woods from severe damage.

Mrs. Clara Decker and son
day.

Mrs. Baltzer Cutchall and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Deshong, visited Mary Deshong last Sunday.

After having attended preaching at Siloam last Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Schooley took dinner with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N.
Schooley.

Robert Fix purchased a new buggy. Girls!

Welcome—the rain.
Mrs. Randolph Feigley is still on the sick list.

Come In and Examine
Our Steel Gear Wagon

We Can Prove Its Superiority
Over a Wood Gear Wagon

The Steel King
A Strong, Light Running Wagon

A steel gear wagon is not affected by exposure to sun and wind. Neither does it creak or shrink. Steel is the most nearly perfect material that has ever been discovered for constructing machines in which great strength is needed. In the Steel King wagon, steel in the form of reinforced plates forms the body of the axle. A steel plate is riveted to the top of the axle, protecting it and acting as a reinforcement. Angle steel is used in the hounds, the front hounds being reinforced with six steel braces. This construction is much stronger than that used on ordinary wood gear.
Steel King axles combine two strong features—easily removable cast skains, the best wearing material known for this purpose—and an axle considerably stronger than the usual construction. The steel bolsters are adjustable in height from 8 to 14 inches and are extra strong at every height.
The Steel King is a good wagon, one that will give you faithful service.
Besides being good it is a good looking wagon. Come in and see it.
