Evidence of Bruce Stoner's skill at drawing, as well as in the use of the scroll saw, may be seen in a sign which he made for Druggist Seylar. The reproduction of the Rexall trade-mark, in scroll-work with open setting, is unique.

It is said that carnations and violets may be colored green by holding them for a few seconds in strong ammonia water, shaking them all the while. Then put them into water with a little salt in it to refresh them.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at his butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Mr. and Mrs. Washington Kelson, are among the many who believe that it is easier to pay for their paper in advance, than to wait until they have read it for some time and then pay for some thing of no more use to them. They know exactly when the birthday of their subscription arrives.

Auction Sale of Real Estate.

In this issue will be found the advertisement of the National Real Estate and Auction Company of Washington D. C.

Mr. H. N. Rosen has placed in this Company's hands about 1000 acres of land. The Blumanthal tract containing about 950 acres situate in Fulton County, Pa., about 3 miles north of Hancock, Md., will be subdivided and sold in tracts of 105-140-190-120 and 394 acres. Several other valuable tracts and factory sites will be sold also as appears in the advertisement.

The sale will take place in front of the Monterey Hotel, Hancock, Md., on Saturday May 15, 1915 at 1 o'clock p. m. Blue prints of the above tracts can be seen several days before the sale by calling on Thomas Gillece, Hancock, or Geo. A. Harris, McConnellsburg, Pa.

This will no doubt bring a large crowd to Hancock on this date as it is without a doubt the largest real estate sale in Hancock, or Fulton County, for many years.

Hens Convict Themselves.

A Wisconsin man tried in vain to convince a neighbor that the latter's hens were stealing his garden seeds as fast as he could plant them. To prove it he scattered grains of corn to each of which was attached a card by means of strong thread. The hens swallowed the kernels but could not swallow the cards, and when they marched homeward, each bore a card upon which was written the story of where she had been, and what she had been doing.

James W. Rummel and his son-in-law, Ralph Reed, attended the funeral of the former's cousin, John Rummel, at Gettysburg, last Saturday. The deceased was aged about 75 years.

THE INDUCEMENT WE OFFER

We do not give something for nothing. No merchant can do that and continue in business.

We do not sell goods below cost. You would not do that yourself if you were a merchant.

We do not advertise to do either of these things. For we advertise to do only that which we faithfully accomplish.

But we do advertise to give you the best and biggest dollar's worth of goods for a dollar of any store in this community. And we give what we advertise.

We do advertise to give you the best quality of goods of any store in this community. And we give what we advertise.

We do advertise to give you the best service of any store in this community, and we give what we advertise.

We do advertise that we will treat you exactly as we like to be treated when we go elsewhere to buy goods we do not handle. And we do exactly as we advertise.

That is all WE can promise you. But we GIVE what we PROMISE.

The bright days of springtime bring with them new life and energy, and we take this opportunity of calling your attention to many reasonable bargains.

We have yet a nice line of horse collars that was made up for us last winter when the collar business was dull; and for the cash, we bought them at a price that will save you money. See them, as we have never had so good a trade on Harness and Collars—98c., $2.40, 2.50, 3.00, 3.25, and $4.00. Nice line of Buggy Harness—$12.25 to $16.00. Flynets; hitching straps, hame straps, plow lines, check lines, buggy and team bridles, and lead reins. Front gears, $3.98 and 4.25—and not split leather. Rawhide tie-up straps, 10c a bunch. Don't forget that we have the same Lawn Mower with all brass bearings, 12 and 14-inch, that we have handled for five years—2.50 and 2.65. Garden plows 1.98. Steel garden rakes, 25c., onion hoes 20c., broad hoes 20c., Batchelder manure forks 55c., dirt shovels 38 to 55c., heart hoes 38c., mattock hoes, 40c.

SWEET CORN

We have made arrangements with one of the largest seed houses in the State to handle their sweet corn seed. We have the Golden Bantam and Storrell's Evergreen that we are selling quite a lot of at 10c. a pound. In the package goods, you get two ounces 10c., or 80c. a pound for the same goods you pay us 10c. a pound for. Think of it. What a saving!

NOTIONS AND HOSIERY

We bought 30 doz. 25-cent Misses Hose some time ago in sizes from 5 to 8 1-2 that we are selling long as they last at 2 pair for 25c. Bear Brand at the same price. See our Ladies' Hose 10, 13 and 23c. Men's work half hose, 3 pairs for 25c. See them. Men's black Bear brand 10c.

Just got in a new lot of Warner Corsets; also, a new style at 50 and 95c. Men's and boys' work shirts that are full size, 25 to 45c. Men's Overalls 50 to 95c. Men's dress shirts, 45 to 95c. Men's and boys' wool and straw hats 23c to $1.90.

SHOES SHOES SHOES

We think we have the greatest line of Child's, Misses, Boys', Ladies' and Men's shoes. We buy about all of our shoes direct from the manufacturer and save the jobbers' profit. This year we have added to our scout line some new ones. Think of buying a pair of scout shoes for a farmer and wearing them one year at $2.00! If you don't believe it, try a pair and be convinced that you can do it. Child's Shoes 10c. to 85c. Misses' 98c. to $1.75, Boys' 98c. to $2.50, Women's $1.25 to $3.50, Men's $1.48 to $4.00. We have the new styles in Men's Walk-over low and high goods. Thanking you for the largest spring trade we have ever had, we remain yours for business,
