Bedford county is seriously considering the proposition to build a new court house to cost $100,000. It is claimed that an average tax on each property holder of 20 cents a year for twenty years would pay the debt. Our court house, it is said, did not cost over $8,000.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hann and son Charlie spent last Saturday in town. Mr. Hann has charge of the Fegley sawmill and is making the sawdust fly. In eight days he cut 34,000 feet of lumber and 300 crossties for E. H. Fohner on the Jackson Strait place and is now at work on the Jimmie Hollinshead farm.

When in Mercersburg take time to call and see J. F. Snyder in his new building. He can give you some pointers on Farm Machinery, Wagons, etc. Read his advertisement in this paper.

Those hustling harness people, the Smith Brothers in Mercersburg, have a new advertisement in this paper on last page. It will pay you to see them if you need anything in their line.

Just before dinner time yesterday as Leslie Harr was attempting to drive some cattle through a gate on the farm he tripped on a board, fell forward and struck his right hand against the gate post, breaking the metacarpal bone leading to the fourth finger.

Supervisor Fraker says that the citizens of Fort Littleton and vicinity will turn out with him on Good Roads Day, May 26th, and repair the local highways. That is one crowd. Hope we may hear of many more. Mrs. Clayton Deshong, four miles north of Needmore offers a good dinner to any who will work on the roads near her home on that day. Don't let Clayton have to eat it all—might cause internal trouble. We feel sure there are others, but we have not heard from them.

Paper Balloons Forbidden.

The governor has signed the bill prohibiting the use or sale of any balloons made or intended to contain fire for purposes of ascension. This measure will not apply to any balloon in which a person ascends, but is intended to forbid the paper balloons frequently used at night.

Rules For Correspondents.

Here are ten rules for country correspondents. They were prepared by an experienced newspaper man. Cut them out and keep them. Then try to make your next letter to the FULTON COUNTY NEWS conform with all of the rules:

1. Do not abbreviate. Do not write Mr. & Mrs., but Mr. and Mrs.; not Mon. or Sat. but Monday or Saturday.
 2. Leave space between items for correction or additions.
 3. Give both initials. Write C. H. Sipes instead of Mr. Sipes or Mr. C. Sipes.
 4. Write important subjects fully. Do not dismiss the death of a well known pioneer in half a dozen words, but write something of interest concerning him. If suicide or murder give all the details you can get.
 5. Have verbs agree with subjects. Don't say Mr. and Mrs. B. was, but Mr. and Mrs. B. were. Mr. and Mrs. B. may be one scripturally. But they are two grammatically.
 6. Don't use nicknames. Use James Peck instead of Jim Peck, Edward instead of Ed.
 7. Give the time in an item. Mr. Harris was in Everett, the house burned down, are incomplete. Tell when things happened.
 8. Divide words correctly. Don't divide such words as enough, e-nough.
 9. Don't send articles reflecting upon the character of individuals or firms. The newspaper is not looking for libel suits; neither does it care to right your personal wrongs.
 10. Write your name and town at top of page. Last but not most important rule of all. It is most essential that the newspaper know from whom the news is received and from what place.
- Important suggestion, though not a rule: Carefully look over your news after it is published and note what changes had to be made.
- While the ten rules given above are important as relating to written news, yet there is one rule supersedes them all—Telephone really important news at once.

Farm Names.

A native of the Big Cove, who for several years, has resided elsewhere, was much interested in an article which appeared in the News recently suggesting that farmers have specific names for their farms, and makes the following suggestions. If we were to mention his name, it would add weight to the article, but he is one of those modest men who shrinks from the thought of seeing his name in print. Here's an abstract of his letter: "I read in last week's NEWS a good suggestion—that farmers name their farms, and have letterheads and envelopes printed, describing their products. That's business! What would merchants, manufacturers, dairymen, doctors, lawyers—even railroads—do, if they did not advertise? As I am entirely familiar with the topography of the farms in the McConnellsburg valley, I suggest the following names, beginning with S. A. Nesbit's farm in Tod township. I will not give the names of the owners of the farms; the names will, perhaps, suggest that: Point View, County Capital, Sun Brook, Fair View, Hill Crest, Grand View, Homestead, Spring Meadow, Valley Forge, Orchard, Sunset, Shady Side, Meadow Brook, Garden Heights, etc."

EXCUSE ME!

But I just cannot help telling you that I am now nicely located in my new building in Mercersburg with a full line of Farm Machinery, Buggies and Wagons. I can sell you Double Corn Flows from $17 to $20. Two-Horse Wagons complete, $60 and up.

Call and see my goods and get my prices. This will not cost you anything, and may be the means of saving a five or ten dollar bill.

Thanking you for past favors and soliciting a continuance of your patronage, I am yours for business,

J. F. SNYDER,
Mercersburg, Penn'a.
