Hon. and Mrs. John P. Sipes spent a few days in Philadelphia last week.

Attend Citizen's Mass Meeting tomorrow evening in the Court House.

Fresh paint and paper applied to the interior of Trout's drug store makes that place look new.

When C. L. Henry, of Clear Ridge, looks over our July roll of honor, he will see his name in the 16er class of subscribers.

Judge Buckley, of Fort Littleton, is still carrying his arm in a sling, the result of a fall off his porch more than a month ago.

In a nice, new advertisement this week, Hon. Geo. B. Mellott invites farmers and all in need of his wares to come and participate in a square deal.

Mrs. S. B. Woollet has recovered sufficiently from her ten-weeks confinement to her room to be able to get down stairs this week with the aid of others to support her.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Alexander Graham Bell, after whom the great Bell Telephone system was named, accompanied by Mrs. Bell, stopped at the Fulton House last Thursday for dinner. The Bells were on their way from Washington, D. C. to their summer home in Nova Scotia.

Hon. C. R. Akers, M. M. J. C. and M. A. Barton—all near Akersville—journeyed together to town last Monday. On the way over, they had to stop and roll one of Roy Duvall's sheep out of the road—a victim of Sunday night's raid by dogs. Roy had several sheep killed that night; but he had the satisfaction of putting one of the dogs where it will not kill more sheep.

Although he celebrated the 85th anniversary of his birth, April 9, 1915, David Brant, of St. Thomas, Franklin county appeared on our streets last week in good health and showing as much vigor and vim as one would expect to see in a man of half that age. For sixty-five years, he has followed the business of buying and selling cattle, and he was here for the purpose of picking up all that were for sale.

Mrs. Remington Patterson and little son, of Philadelphia, Miss Elizabeth Patterson, of Baltimore, and Wm. M. Patterson, of Pittsburgh, together with the other members of the family of Hon. and Mrs. D. H. Patterson, surrounded the family board at their old home at Webster Mills at dinner on Sunday last. Will returned to Pittsburgh, Monday; Elizabeth went back to Baltimore, Wednesday, and Mrs. Remington (Henrietta) and her little son, who has been in poor health will remain several weeks.

Last Saturday, three of the NEWS office force hunted for one hour through the list of names of subscribers to find the names of two who wanted their addresses changed. If our friends would only remember to send both old and new addresses, we would appreciate it. City papers pay no attention to letters that do not contain subscribers addresses. Subscribers are indexed by post-offices—not by names. Then, also, two names may be alike, and unless we know the address, we run the risk of crediting money to the wrong man.

How Scalp Law Works.

Joseph Kalbfus, Secretary of Game Commission, has sent out notices that those who have in the past been in the habit of advancing money to bounty claimants are warned not to continue this practice, as no claim will be certified by his office to the Auditor General for payment except in the name of the party making the affidavit to the killing. This covers the ground in cases where Justices of the Peace have some times advanced money to the claimant, and since all payments are now made directly from the Harrisburg office, too much confusion is occasioned when two parties must be considered—the one making affidavit for having the animal, and the one claiming the bounty.

The Community and the Bank.

When outside capital seeks an investment in any section, the first thing investigated is the condition of the banks. The larger the deposits and the better the facilities, the more stable the community appears to the outsider. The FULTON COUNTY BANK has stood for thrift and progress not only of the bank but of the community at large. This policy has enabled us to offer banking facilities far in advance of many larger towns. Our home people appreciate the protection and security we offer for their savings. Our large CAPITAL AND SURPLUS—our large burglar-proof and fire-proof vaults—insure protection from burglary or fire. Still further we carry BURGLAR, HOLD-UP, and FIRE INSURANCE to protect EVERY DOLLAR in our vaults. The hundreds of people who have inspected our NEW HOME can testify that we offer every protection possible.

KEEP THIS IN MIND

That when the time comes we are here to serve you—and we guarantee that both quality and price will be eminently satisfactory to you.

We did sell some sweet corn this season, and could have sold more, if we could have procured it; and we are sorry that we could not fill all the mail orders we got.

THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

You live in momentous times, and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World. L. W. FUNK

-- DEALER IN --

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
