NATURE'S WARNING.

McConnellsburg People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come mysteriously. But nature generally warns you.

Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy— If there are settlements and sediment.

Passages frequent, scanty and painful.

It's time to fear serious kidney trouble.

It's time to Use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Doan's have done great work in McConnellsburg.

L. A. Youse retired butcher, of E. Water St., McConnellsburg, says: "About three years ago my back ached badly and it hurt me to stoop and lift. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug Store, soon gave me relief. I gladly endorse them."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Youse had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW GRENADA.

Mrs. N. S. Panter and son Clyde of Three Springs spent a few days recently with M. W. Houck and family.

Ernest Cunningham spent the past week in Mt. Union.

Miss Elva Black who had been spending some time in the home of her aunt Mrs. Gideon Duvall, returned home last Sunday.

Roy Shafer is visiting friends at Mt. Union.

Miss Ruth Cunningham who has been attending West Chester State Normal returned home last Saturday.

The Children Service at Zion M. E. Church was well attended. Mr. and Mrs. Russel Swope of Wells Tannery spent Saturday and Sunday with W. H. Shaw and family.

Mrs. Alfred Stunkard and Miss Dewey Sprowl spent Sunday at R. L. Alloways.

A number of people from New Grenada attended Bush Meeting at Dublin Mills last Sunday.

I Remember.

I remember, I remember the house where I was born, the little window where the sun came peeping in at morn. You'd hardly know the old place now, for Dad is up-to-date and the farm is scientific, from the back lot to the gate. The house and barn are lighted with bright acetylene, the engine in the laundry is run by gasoline; we have silos, we have autos, we have dynamos and things, a telephone for gossip and a phonograph that sings. The hired man has left us—we miss his homely face—a lot of college graduates are working in his place. There's an engineer and fireman, a chauffeur and a vet., electrician and mechanic, Oh, the farm's run right, you bet. The little window where the sun came peeping in at morn now brightens up a bath room that cost Dad a car of corn. Our milkmaid is pneumatic and she's sanitary, too, but dad gets fifteen cents a quart for milk that once brought two. Our cattle came from Jersey and the hogs are all Duroc, the sheep are Southdown beauties and the chickens Plymouth Rock. To have the best of everything, that is our aim and plan, for Dad not only farms it, but he's a business man.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

WEST DUBLIN.

June 17.—George Meck and sons Lorenzo and Sherman and David Evans of Sixmile Run stopped here during the rain on Sunday while en route from Hartman Truax's in Belfast township.

A number of our people attended Children's Day Service at Center Sunday forenoon. They report a large attendance. The program was cut short by the rain.

Mrs. Alice Clevenger who had been visiting in Pittsburg returned to her home in this township last week. Her daughters Marjorie and Olive accompanied her home. Olive attended the Wilkensburg High School the past term.

William E. Deavor has moved his sawmill from Casper Brant's land to Grant Hoover's land where he will saw some lumber for Reichley Bros. & Co.

David Hershey and son Alva went to Gettysburg on Sunday, June 13 with Charles Lander returning home in the evening of the same day.

June 24.—Clarence Hoover wife and daughter Madeline of Dane, spent last Sunday with the family of Clarence's mother Mrs. Eliza Hoover.

Margaret Kirk, who had been attending Juniata College during the past year, is home for the summer.

Harry W. Brant, wife and son Kenneth, of New Enterprise Bedford County, spent the time from Saturday evening until Monday morning with the family of Casper Brant.

Mrs. Margaret Kesselring of Hustontown, spent Sunday with the family of her brother Casper Brant.

A few of our people attended the Bush Meeting at Dublin Mills on Sunday afternoon.

Some of our people attended Children's service at Hustontown Sunday evening.

Samuel Laiding visited friends in Center county the first of this week.

Last week our Supervisor Sheridan Strait with a force of hands did some good work on our township roads.

This is well but more is needed. Those who use the roads by being more careful may help some in keeping them in good condition.

Everybody in our community was very busy during the past week working on the township roads or in the fields.

The warm weather is bringing the corn along and wheat harvest will soon be here.

W. L. Berkstresser who is manager of a store at Jacobs, Huntingdon County spent Sunday at his home in this township. He was accompanied by Supt. Cockle of the coal company at Jacobs.

WARFORDSBURG.

After receiving a challenge from the Amaranth ball team, the Warfordsburg team agreed to match bats with them. The game was called by G. J. Mellott. The visiting team went to the bats first, and at the beginning of the sixth inning, the game was called off by the umpire on account of rain. The score stood 3-0 in favor of Warfordsburg. This is the first game of the season and proves to be quite a boost for the home team.

Our baseball pitcher, Glenn Yonker, and his father William Yonker, are busy erecting a fine large dwelling house for Geo. A. Winters near Plum Run.

The little son of Edward Golden who had the misfortune to fall and break his leg, is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Stigers.

Curtis Golden is contemplating the purchase of a new automobile. Watch out girls or you'll lose out.

Clyde Crist, foreman of route 33, State Highway department, is preparing the four miles of State Road in Bethel township for a coat of oil to be applied by the State for the protection of the road. This will be quite an improvement as the road has been very dusty.

SCOUT.

Let Your Light Be Burning.

If your automobile is occupying any street or other public highway in Pennsylvania, whether running or standing, the two front lights and the rear red light must be kept burning from one hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise. Because of a disregard of this law, a number of prominent Chambersburg citizens have separated themselves from fourteen dollars at the suggestion of officers. The fine for the first offence is from $10 to $25. If you do not have an almanac,

END.

Mrs. S. E. Truax, of Homestead, is visiting relatives and friends for a few days.

Alvah Cornelius of Everett, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his niece Mrs. J. M. Schenk.

Miss Marian C. Edwards closed her school at Defiance last Tuesday and is home for the summer.

Mrs. Rebecca Edwards, of Juniata, is at her old home for the summer.

A. D. Berkstresser, of Saxton, spent the week end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Griffith of Trough Creek, visited W. L. Cunningham Saturday night and Sunday. They were accompanied home by the latter's mother Mrs. Keith who had been visiting relatives in the Valley for a short time.

Mrs. Ben Alexander and little daughter Bernice are spending some time with her husband who is employed in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Haney Wagner of Knobsville visited the latter's brother Howard Tice over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott, of Trough Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Fore spent Sunday with the family of W. R. Foster.

Quite a number of our young people attended Children's service at Zion Sunday morning.

Mrs. Elmer Anderson and children of Kearney visited her parents.

One Lump Instead of Two.

The many beet sugar factories throughout the country are facing a peculiar situation. After working at full capacity to meet a supposed demand for high priced sugar, they find that there is no such demand. Although the sugar is offered at six cents per pound, wholesale, sales are slow. The jobbers and wholesalers, it seems, stocked up heavily when the war broke out and, with the warehouse loaded to the rafters, they are not eager to put more money into the product. So the sugar is going begging at six cents. How long this condition will last is a question. The consumer, however, as long as he uses the usual quantity of sugar, may rest assured that he will not profit. The retail price of sugar has been advanced to about eight cents a pound and it is likely that it will be kept there, indefinitely. The old "law" of supply and demand appears to have been repealed in this century. The only way to touch the speculators is through the pocket. A lack of demand or a falling off in demand is likely to result in a reduction in price, for the jobbers will not care to carry big stocks that are slow sales. Therefore if every American would cut down his allowance of sugar just a trifle, we would see the prices tumbling in a few weeks. One spoonful or one lump, instead of two in your coffee every morning for a month would result in a return of five-cent sugar before Christmas.

Stony Soils and Orchards.

A stony loam is often recommended as a desirable fruit soil, but stones are advantageous only in that they may help a soil that is too heavy, or clayey or too impervious, by making it somewhat more pervious to water. The fact that a soil is stony does not necessarily imply that it is productive. If apples are to be grown with profit, and competition is keen, the soil must be productive or at least capable of being brought to a productive state and so maintained. Much of the current belief that "stony" soils possess some particular advantage for orchards fruits has undoubtedly arisen from the success of many orchards located on stony hills.

The Width of Four Fingers.

Excess peaches should be picked off in the process commonly called "thinning." Make it a rule first to pull off all defective fruits, and second all excess fruits that will leave those remaining on the trees no closer than the width of your four fingers. This distance is easily measured by simply extending the hand between the fruits, and persons engaged in this work get accustomed to it. Women are good hands at thinning fruits and are more careful and more speedy than men. The sooner the thinning is done, the better for the trees.

Have You Any?

If you have any articles about your premises you want to dispose of, put a want ad in the NEWS. Good second-hand furniture, farming tools, and other equipment are always salable and it costs but a cent a word to let 11,000 people know what you have to offer. Every week someone reports a ready sale of some article advertised in our Classified department, the use of which is becoming more and more general.
