Bishop-Douglas.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride Wednesday evening, July 28, 1915, at 5 o'clock, when Mr. James E. Bishop and Miss Ella Margaret Douglas were united in marriage by Rev. E. J. Croft. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop, of Sharpe, Pa., and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Effie Douglas, of Plum Run, Pa. Both bride and groom are excellent young people, and they will begin life together with the best wishes of many friends.

Last Saturday morning Lewis Barnhart had $14.50 in his pocket book, he made a purchase, put the pocketbook in his pocket, and went home, and when he got home his pocketbook, and money were gone. He is not sure whether he was "touched" by some one, or whether he lost it on the street. This is quite a loss to him and it would mean much to him if his pocketbook and money were returned. Lewis would try to get along without the pocketbook if he just had the money.
