Bethlehem Steel At Full Capacity. Strike Soon Adjusted At Redington Plant—Science Necessary For Farming.

The open hearth department of the Bethlehem Steel Company is running 100 per cent, according to a statement by Austin D. Mixsell, vice-president. This means that the sixteen furnaces are working and producing 60,000 tons of ingots a month. Eight of the eleven open hearth furnaces of the Lehigh plant are working and the blast furnace department's capacity shortly will be increased by the blowing-in of one of the $2,500,000 furnaces. Two other furnaces of this type are about ready to be blown in.

Addressing several thousand persons at Benton, State Zoologist Surface declared the farmer must make his money by increasing the size of his crops and decreasing the cost of production, through scientific farm management, not by raising the cost to the consumer. Farmers whose only ambition is to charge big prices for what they grow are traitors to the public good, he declared.

Alexander Dubitsky, twenty-eight years old, was killed by a fall of coal at Turkey Run Colliery, Shenandoah, while John Kierney, thirty-one years old, was injured seriously in a similar manner at Maple Hill Colliery. Dubitsky was to have been married Wednesday and was working his last week in the mines, intending to go into business.

There was a short-lived strike among the 400 girls employed at the Redington fuse plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The girls were getting eight cents a hundred for filling shells, and demanded ten cents a hundred. The trouble was adjusted in short order and the girls returned to work.

IRISH HERO AND FATHER

The return home on short leave of the popular Irish Guardsman hero, Sergt. Michael O'Leary, V. C., who "practically captured an enemy's position by himself," killing eight Germans single-handed and taking two others prisoners, at Culmochy, did not pass unobserved. The king sent for him to Buckingham palace and pinned the cross on his breast, with the queen and princess warmly congratulating the sergeant; Cork gave O'Leary an ovation as he drove through the city with the lord mayor. We see him here at his cottage home at Inchigeelah, near Macroom, County Cork, with his father, to whom Sergeant O'Leary is showing his cross.

May Give Bruin Bread Card.

The authorities of Elberfeld, Germany, are confronted with the most puzzling problem that they have had to solve since the bread card became an institution in Germany—and all because of a show bear that is so fussy about his food that he will eat nothing but bread.

The owner of the animal recently was haled before the lower court and fined and sentenced to prison because he had shared his weekly portion of bread with the bear. With two months' incarceration staring him in the face he appealed, alleging that the bear was his only means of support. A kind-hearted judge changed the sentence to a fine of 100 marks, and advised the owner to apply to the president of the government in which Elberfeld lies to issue bruin a bread card just like any regular human being.

KINDNESS ON THE BATTLEFIELD

War is not always as supposed by most people. Even the officers of the armies find other things on the field than mere fighting. Pity creeps forth even from the hardest of hearts. The photograph shows a German officer helping a wounded Russian soldier. The soldier had crawled for shelter into a large hole dug by an exploded shell. Here he lay patiently awaiting the end of the day's battle. A German officer passing noted the plight of the Russian and stopped to minister to his wants.
