The belfry of the Methodist church was painted white this week. The dome received a coat of sandstone gray. Recently, the public school building was repainted, and the globe that tops the spire glitters like gold.

Porter Hann and wife, of Clear field, autoed to Salvia last week to visit the former's brother 'Squire Bert Hann. The brothers took a peep at McConnellsburg before separating, and now Porter's subscription label reads 1917.

William Wilds, of Fort Littleton, injured one of his feet so badly last Friday that he cannot use it except with the aid of a crutch. A heavy piece of timber fell on the member while he was engaged in removing an old smokehouse on the S. B. Woollet farm.

C. R. Shore has resigned his position as manager and instructor of the McConnellsburg Band. Mr. Shore has been an efficient leader. He worked hard to teach the boys how to play. In withdrawing, he requests the News to express his appreciation of the support given him by the public during the time he was with the Band.

Harmon L. Wishart, of Wells Valley, attended the Odd Fellows picnic last Saturday and had some "tire trouble" with his horse's feet. In speaking of the gunshot wound in his leg, he said that it still gives him a little trouble. He thinks that if people would shoot 12-bore pumpkins at deer instead of buckshot, there would be less danger to hunters' legs.

Oram Wible, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stewart, at Green Hill. Oram is employed by the State Highway Department, and at present, is located in Chambersburg with other engineers. His brother Hollis is taking an outing this week at Green Hill. Hollis is a druggist. Also, a rather successful deciple of Sir Isaac Walton.

Rev. W. A. Carver returned last Friday evening from his vacation of about three weeks which was spent in the middle west. He took in Detroit, Manchester, Hudson and Clark Lake, and Jackson in the state of Michigan, and Milwaukee and Madison, in Wisconsin. He reports many rainstorms and the probable ruination of much of the bumper crop of wheat and oats in consequence.—Orbisonia Dispatch.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands a very day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Courage vs Decency.

The other day an excited individual rushed into a newspaper office with a choice bit of scandal burning his tongue. It made no difference to this person that the scandal affected the daughter of his neighbor—that the mother of the girl was seriously ill—that the brother was just entering what promised to be a successful professional career. The scandal was rich in flavor, and he wanted to see it in the paper. He told the editor about it, with every evidence of the keen relish of the scandal connoisseur, but impressed upon the newspaper man that the source of his information must be kept inviolably secret. When the paper came out, the man returned to demand why the story hadn't been printed. Short, sharp words followed, and the visitor called the editor a coward and left, vowing that a man who was afraid to print the news had no right to be an editor. To our mind, that editor was a brave man. The informer who demanded that his name be kept secret, was the coward. The editor ran a paper in a small town. So closely related were the lives of the inhabitants, that the editor knew every detail of the story before his visitor called on him. But he could see no profit for himself nor glory for his paper in printing an item that would bring sorrow to the gray hairs of a father, disgrace to a brother and probably serious consequences to a sick mother. If the news appetites of his readers were so voracious, he thought, as to demand this costly food, he would refuse to pay the price. The editor was right. Many things he has to print which he would rather leave unsaid, but the scandal which has only its "spice" to recommend it should have no place in the columns of a self-respecting paper. We would rather build than tear down. We would rather print the things that help and encourage and uplift than to hold up the mistakes of some unfortunate to the scorn and contempt of his neighbors. Decency is not lack of courage. If it were, we would rather be decent than courageous.

Preliminary Meetings.

DEALER IN

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
