

Pictures of World Events for News Readers

This Department Our Readers in Fulton County and Elsewhere May Journey Around the World With the Camera on the Trail of History Making Happenings.

LAND YACHT STARTS TO CROSS THE CONTINENT

This house on wheels was designed and built by Roland R. Conklin in order to take his family on a land yacht trip from his country estate in Huntington, Long Island, to the Panama-Pacific exposition in California. Every comfort of the party which is going on the transcontinental trip was taken into consideration, and there is even a garden atop the machine. The start on the long trip was made recently, and though the "yacht" was stuck in a Long Island ditch for 24 hours, it is proceeding merrily on its way. The party includes Mr. and Mrs. Conklin, their son and daughter, another girl, two nephews, two governesses, two chauffeurs and a cook.

TERRIBLE FLOOD IN CANTON, CHINA

A scene in the city of Canton, China, during the recent flood, when the city was inundated by from four to fifteen feet of water. This was the worst flood ever visited on Canton, and hundreds of the inhabitants were lost. Thousands of shops in the principal streets were ruined, and to make matters worse, numerous fires were started by bands of thieves.

TROOPERS WATCH AUTO SPEEDERS

State Police Co-Operate With Highway Men In Enforcement Of Motor Laws.

Harrisburg.—State policemen have been ordered to co-operate with the State Highway Department in the enforcement of the automobile laws. Highway Commissioner Cunningham has secured the support of Major John C. Groome, superintendent of State Police, in his effort to check violations of the law, and the captains of the troops of State policemen have been instructed to have their men report all violations which come under their notice, including improperly displayed registration tags, cases where only one tag is shown, reckless driving, speeding and other infractions of the law. In the last few months the Highway Department has revoked the licenses of a number of persons who operated cars recklessly or while intoxicated.

To Inspect Watersheds Of State.

Plans were announced by Commissioner of Fisheries Buller for an inspection of the whole State by watersheds to ascertain sources of pollution of streams. In conjunction with other departments of the State Government, maps have been made of the watersheds and the locations of all manufacturing plants, mines and other industries noted. The wardens will make inspections along the streams and report the extent the waters are being polluted and fish affected. Steps then will be taken to require the installation of filters. The inspection will be started in the oil and lumber regions and then extend to those producing coal.

Predicts Depression After War.

Charles A. Sibely, a statistical expert, addressed the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce on "Business After the War." He said that America would feel the depression when war orders ceased and that preparations to avoid this should be made. Europe then will owe us money, he declared, and will not have the funds to buy products. He said peace only could come after freedom of the seas had been guaranteed and there were international tariff schedules and international ownership of communication and mails.

Suggests Arbitration.

A complaint filed with the Public Service Commission by E. E. Boyle, of Centerville, against the Pennsylvania Railroad, alleging removal of a siding which had not been replaced and difficulties over cattle shipment facilities, was suggested by Chairman Alney as a fit subject for the parties to get together. The chairman stated that he believed the points at issue should be taken up by the complainant and the railroads and an effort made to avoid the expense of a hearing.

State Bonding Business.

The American Fidelity Company, a Vermont concern, walked off with the State's bonding business, according to an award made. The concern is a new bidder in the field for bonding State officials whose bonds have to be paid for by the State, and underbid all of the old companies which hitherto have been enjoying the business. It is said that the old companies bid about the same. Thirty bonds are included.

Luzerne Man On Charities Board.

Announcement was made of the appointment of Lanigan Harvey, Wilkes-Barre, to be a member of the State Board of Public Charities to fill a vacancy. Congressman Edgar R. Kloss, Hughesville, was reappointed a member of the Board of Trustees of State College. Miss Roberta M. West, Erie, was reappointed a member of the Board of Examiners for Registration of Nurses.

State Farm Board.

Members of the State Commission of Agriculture have commenced a series of visits to the county fairs and agriculture exhibitions in their districts to ascertain the sentiments of the farmers and to study out ways for agricultural development. The commission is to be called together by the Governor upon his return from California.

Hours Not Restricted.

Attendants of insane patients or nurses in charge of such persons do not come under the operation of the hour limitations in the women's employment law of 1912, according to an opinion given to Dr. John Price Jackson, Commissioner of Labor and Industry, by Attorney General Brown.

York Makes Complaint.

The city of York filed a complaint with the Public Service Commission against the charges made by the York Water Company for water used in concrete work on the city's streets. In addition, complaints were filed against rates charged for service to citizens.

Stella Cressman, wife of Frank Cressman, a well-known merchant, of Sellersville, died as a result of blood poisoning, which followed infection from a mosquito bite.

Nesquehoning.—The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company's collieries at Nesquehoning are working again, but all the other collieries of the company are flooded.

An estate of $300,000 is divided by the will of John Sheaff, late of "The Highlands," Whitemarsh Township, which just has been probated.

Edgar R. Villet, a pigeon and chicken fancier, of Marietta, is in possession of a Black Minorca chick, which was hatched by a pair of pigeons.

IN THE FLOODED STREETS OF GALVESTON

Scene at Market and Twenty-second streets, Galveston, looking west and south over the section of the city that was flooded by a swift stream three feet deep during the recent great storm.

READY TO REPULSE RAIDERS FROM MEXICO

Men of the Twenty-sixth United States infantry gathered at Brownsville, Tex., to guard lives and property against raids by Mexican bandits.

HISTORIC FRIGATE IS SCRAPPED

This is the famous old American frigate Portsmouth as she appeared just before being taken to East Boston to be broken up for her metal. For four years she has been used as a hospital ship at Norfolk.

MRS. GERARD LEIGH

Mrs. Gerard Leigh, formerly Miss Helena Gandy, prominent in Chicago society, recently gave birth to a son. Captain Leigh, her husband, is at the front with his regiment, the First Life Guards.

FLOATING A BIG BRIDGE SPAN INTO PLACE

Illustration shows the 250-foot double-decked draw span of the new bridge over the Harlem river in New York city being floated into position on barges. The span weighs 1,400 tons, and its entire weight rests on a two-foot ball of phosphor-bronze, the hardest metal known.

ZEBRA BORN IN CAPTIVITY

This baby zebra, believed to be the first one born in captivity in America if not in the world, is in the Central Park zoo, New York city, and is a finely marked and lively specimen.

KAISER AND HIS STEED

Emperor William of Germany and his favorite horse, one of several that have been specially trained for his use.

Capital Punishment.

There are seven states in the Union in which the maximum penalty for any crime is imprisonment for life—Maine, Rhode Island, Kansas, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Washington.

In the form of electrocution capital punishment is executed in Massachusetts, Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Virginia.

Death is by hanging or shooting in the discretion of the condemned person in two states, Nevada and Utah; and the hangman uses the noose in the balance of the subdivisions of the Union, including Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and the District of Columbia, and, with the balance of the states, the three New England states not already named, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont.

Many a woman without brains is able to fool a male highbrow.

MRS. MARYE WORKS IN WAR HOSPITAL

Scene in the operating room of the American lazaret in Petrograd where Mrs. George T. Marye, wife of the American ambassador to Russia, is serving as a nurse. She is standing at the physician's right hand.