The Land of By-and-By.

There is a land, as I've heard tell, where nothing's ever done; the people therein do dwell, no work have yet begun. "Tomorrow" is the watchword there, and "Pretty soon" the cry the name of this unpleasant land?—the Land of By-and-By.

Procrastination there is king; he rules with a high hand, but makes no laws or anything to benefit the land. The lessons they are never learned—no use to question why; the chores are left unfinished in the Land of By-and-By.

And if you put things off and say you'll do them pretty soon, and shirk your tasks from day to day, perhaps some afternoon, they'll take you off to this bad land—no friend will heed your cry and there is no Tomorrow in the Land of By-and-By.

HAVE YOU BEEN SICK?

Then you realize the utter weakness that robs ambition, destroys appetite, and makes work a burden.

To restore that strength and stamina that is so essential, nothing has ever equalled or compared with Scott's Emulsion, because its strength-sustaining nourishment invigorates the blood to distribute energy throughout the body while its tonic value sharpens the appetite and restores health in a natural, permanent way.

If you are run down, tired, nervous, overworked or lack strength, get Scott's Emulsion to-day. It is free from alcohol. Scott & Borne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Game Warden Back.

The recently appointed game warden for this district spent a part of last week in this county, and he intends to "slip in" frequently. When he was here several weeks ago, he prosecuted, it is said, at least two men. We publish this merely as news, not that we intend to give warning to culprits to take to the tall timber. So many subscribers complain to us that game is illegally killed and they will be interested in knowing that some effort is being made to stop it. The News has done what it could to teach respect for law. Time and again we have warned that it does not pay to run the risk of prosecution for the sake of a turkey or a few squirrels, to say nothing of the violation of self respect. Persistent violators of the game laws soon call down suspicion on themselves, and the sportsmen who are hurt by the inroads made on game out of season, or by the illegal quantity killed in season, cannot be censured if they put the wardens wise. We would save every man from trouble if we could by having him respect the rights of other hunters. We regret to hear of prosecutions; but we certainly have no sympathy for the man who gets caught.

Lost His Pop.

According to Franklin papers, a large lot of pop was washed from the store at Spring Run where it had been stored after the Path Valley picnic had been called off on account of the storm and flood on Saturday, August 21st. The pop was said to be the property of Roy Cromwell, formerly of McConnellsburg and some of it floated to the Potomac river.

Our Town Is to Be Treated to Music And Mirth by the Solree Singers

THIS year the Chautauqua management chose the Solree Singers to open the week's program. The selection was made because of the long continued success of this group of entertainers. The Lyceum Festival towns are to be congratulated this year on having such a splendid company to open the "Three Joyous Days" of inspiration, instruction and entertainment. This is a mixed quartet, and it is doubtful if a better could be found anywhere. Their program is remarkable for its versatility, including comedy sketches in costumes, character songs, readings and impersonations. They will treat the audience to solos, duets and quartets. One of the novelties of this company's entertainment that has won universal commendation is Harry Longstreet's impersonation of Harry Lander, the famous Scotch comedian and singer. He would make the appearance of this company notable even were there not three co-stars accompanying him. He impersonates the Scotch comedian and singer with striking accuracy and brings to the character all of the quaint humor of which he is so abundantly possessed. Of the three remaining members of the Solree Singers it may be said that Mrs. La Viness is a most capable and charming soprano, Mr. Thomas is very pleasing as a tenor—in fact, every member will add to the delightfulness of the program at their every appearance. They will give two entertainments, one in the afternoon, the other in the evening. Having heard the first, the last will not be missed.

Bank Deposits Increase.
Editor News:—The liquor men claim that prohibition is a failure and makes hard times. I wrote to the Bank at Martinsburg, W. Va., to know if the deposits had fallen off there since West Virginia went dry. The reply was that there is not one person drunk on the streets there now, where there were dozens before, and the deposits in the banks in nine months under prohibition increased $120,000. There was less demand for help last winter from the destitute than ever before. Every thing is far better under prohibition. The same condition prevails wherever it exists. The saloon must be stamped out, and if we do our duty in the fear of God, this will soon be done. We want and must have a dry Judge this fall, and we will, if we do our duty.

Penn State Winter Term.
The News heartily recommends that young men cannot possibly spend the time this winter more profitably than by attending State College. The cost is small, and the class is composed chiefly of livewire young men from farms. You can gain something by a winter's association with other young men that will assist you as long as you live. A term spent in this manner broadens one to a degree that can not be done in any other way.

The Winter Courses in Agriculture and Home Economics will begin this year December 1. The Bulletin outlining these courses is now ready for distribution. Last year two hundred and fifteen students availed themselves of this practical course. Are you interested or do you know of any who might be interested? Requests for information may be addressed to the School of Agriculture, State College, Pa.

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me. Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
