BIG MOVE FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

Navy Proposes Reserve of 50,000 Men.

CHANCE FOR AMATEURS

Asks Garrison and Daniels To Outline Definite Programs To Prepare For Congressional Action.

Washington.-Plans for the organization of a national naval reserve of 50. 000 officers and men, upon which the navy can draw for help in an hour of need, were announced at the Navy Department.

The plan involves the organization of the retired officers and former enlisted men of the navy so that they may be ready for service in an emerg ency; the organization of and training of the Coast Guard for naval service, and the training of volunteer civilians whose work acquaints them with the handling of boats.

The Navy Department's statement on the plan is as follows:

"In addition to the regular navy and state naval militias, the plan of organtration contemplates a national naval Two Victims of a Raid Across For Modification of Undersea reserve to be constituted as follows:

"Retired Officers and Former En tion of retired officers already exists. and a step toward securing a reserve of former enlisted men was taken last spring by Congress. While the results of this legislation have not been large during the two months it has been in effect, 110 men having been enrolled up Northumberland, were out boating, to September 1, 1915, it is believed that an increasing number of men, whose enlistments expire, will take advantage of the opportunity offered; and it is already having the effect of increasing the number of re-enlistments.

Other Federal and State Branches.

"Other Branches of the Federal and State Governments-This means the co-ordination of the Coast Guard; that is, the revenue cutter and life-saving services; the lighthouse service, the coast survey, the State Nautical Training Schools, the harbor police, in such manner as to fit readily into the naval service at short notice. Little legislation is necessary to accomplish this, and the organization of this work is siready under way.

"Volunteer Civilians-It is believed that the reserve of personnel should total 50,000 officers and men. What is particularly desired is not merely numbers, but individuals who will be capable of doing the highly specialized service which exists in modern navies. For instance, in war time the navy would need the services of possibly 1.000 additional radio operators; if would require local pilots for inside waters, belp men, gunners, gasoline motor experts, signalmen, besides, of course, first-class seamen. The department has had many letters asking Judge Evans decided that a half- whether an opportunity could be given ing in these specialties. With reference to our conversation of this morning. I beg to inform you that my instructions concerning our answer to your last Insitania note contain the following passage

"Liners will not be sunk by our submarines without warning and without safety of the lives of noncombatants, provided that the liners do not try to escape or offer resistance."

Although I know that you do not wish to discuss the Lusitania question till the Arabic incident has been definitely and satisfactorily settled. I desire to inform you of the above because this policy of my Government was decided on before the Arabic incident occurred.

Caught In Attack On Another Ship. Entire Crew Of Submarine Perished When It

Liverpool.-The German submarine which sank the White Star liner Arabic was sunk the following day by a British patrol boat. This fact was confirmed here. While the submarine was engaged Anticipated in Berlin.

Berlin.-The German Admiralty advanced the suggestion that the submarine which may have torpedoed the steamer Arabic possibly had foundered or had been sunk by the British. A high official of the Admiralty, in again declaring that absolutely no news on the sinking of the Arabic was yet available, said:

"Would it not be lamentable if the submarine should have been lost and we should never learn what happened soon after the Arabic sank? I said we should in all probability have the details by the end of August or early in September at the latest. Most of our boats which were on the west coast of England at the time have now returned, but none so far knows any thing about the Arabic.

"It probably will be possible within a very short time-I cannot say precisely how many days-to tell whether our apprehensions regarding the submarine are correct."

The official would not say whether one or more of the submarines in question still were out nor how long any one vessel had been away from its base, but stated suggestively:

"They seldom remain out longer than three weeks and we usually get a report on any torpedoing operations in from 8 to 14 days-rarely later than a fortnight after the occurrence."

"We have found several clues, but we have been unable to find anyone who could identify any party. We have done our best, under our oath and we regret to state that we have been unable to find enough evidence to indict anyone for this crime.'

After stating that the jury had the active co-operation of Governor Harris, the State Attorney-General, Solicitor Herbert Clay and other officials of Cobb county, the report adds:

"We have been unable to connect anybody with the perpetration of this offense, or to identify anyone who was connected with it, although we have investigated the information furnished us by officers and other parties and have followed up letters, signed and unsigned, and to this end we have subpoessed and examined many witnesses in an effort to disclose the perpetrators of this crime, but none of these witnesses could identify any of
