Look over J. K. Johnston's new Ladies Coats.

Blankets, Robes, and Comforts are on sale at J. K. Johnston's.

Be contented—the corn needed those hot days to harden it.

Do you love music that "goes to the spot"? The Chautauqua will furnish it next week.

Out flannel at 6 cents per yd. Just the right material for comforts—at J. K. Johnston's.

Alvey Gordon recently painted the Bridge at Gregory's Ford, and Maxwell's bridge, in Thompson township.

Remember the dates and place of holding the Chautauqua. September 22—23—24th, in the High School Auditorium.

Ahimaaz Clevenger, of Ayr township, brought a head of cabbage to town last week that weighed 22 pounds.

Real estate and insurance agent Andrew McElwain, of Newville, rode his motorcycle to this place last week—44 miles—in 75 minutes.

Read every line of the Chautauqua articles. Then buy a ticket and attend. It's the greatest thing that ever came down—the Lincoln Highway.

Warfordsburg now has graded schools, the sixty pupils having been recently divided into two schools. Good move. Let other large schools follow this lead.

When O. E. Garland, of Needmore, was in the NEWS office last week to advertise his saw-mill outfit, he said he expects to go away soon to take up auto repairing.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

When Grant Baker was in the NEWS office a few days ago, he left several York Imperial apples of the crop of 1914, and they looked as though they would have kept another year—but they didn't.

Logue Wink pulled off a stunt for our Needmore subscribers last week by serving them a day earlier with the NEWS. Via auto to Needmore on publication day should be a regular weekly occurrence.

Think of fifteen entertainments at a cost of $1.25 that Fulton county people frequently spend $50 to see by going to Lake Chautauqua! Chautauqua will come to us. Tickets can be had at this office and at nearly every store in town.

Last week, Second street received a shave and haircut that so improved its appearance that we were reminded of what the little girl of thirty summers said about a man with a fresh shave. She said "I always feel like kissing him."

Last week "Billy" Nace received a severe scald on one of his legs with the result that a painful sore as large as one's hand kept him from enjoying the playgrounds as freely as has been his custom since recovering from his recent long spell of sickness.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles? Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows. Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and seals the tender membranes of the throat. Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store. Scott & Downer, Bloomfield, N. J.

END.

Sept. 9.—Mr. J. Cramer and sister, of Newburg, were the guests of Mrs. Laura Edwards Saturday and Sunday.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schenck last Thursday leaving a young son.

Mrs. Joseph Markley with her daughter Lily, daughter-in-law Mrs. Harry, and granddaughter Pearl Repligle of Loysburg, and Prof. Ritter of Bellefonte, spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Truax last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schenck spent Sunday with Wilbur Barton at Round Knob.

Miss Laura Edwards commenced her work at Woodvale on Tuesday in the primary school. This is her third year there.

Mrs. Mary Heater, nee Linn, of Buda, Ill., spent last week with Mrs. W. L. Cunningham.

Mrs. L. Early entertained relatives from Ft. Littleton and Three Springs over Sunday.

Miss Wealthy Foster is spending some time with her sister Mrs. Chas. Schenck.

Ted and Clare Repper after spending their vacation with their mother, returned to Girard College on Tuesday. They were accompanied by their brother Max as far as Huntingdon who visited relatives near there the remainder of the week.

Mrs. Griffin and children of Rays Cove, visited her father Daniel Shaffer Saturday and Sunday.

September 13.—Reed and Marian Edwards left on Saturday for their respective schools—the former to North Point, and the latter to Defiance.

The Schools of the Valley began on Monday. May it be a profitable term for both teacher and pupil.

Miss Young, of Defiance, was the guest of Marian Edwards during the last of the week.

Chester Seelar, of Erie, on a motorcycle with a sidecar attached, came via Bedford and picked up his uncle, Charles Wertz, and visited relatives during last Thursday and Friday.

Dora Stevens has returned for her last year at Defiance High School.

Two men from the Engineering Department of the State Board of Health were in the Valley last week looking after the possible pollution of our streams.

Some of our farmers have begun seeding. More lime and fertilizer than usual are being used.

It is the general complaint that potatoes are not a good crop, and that they are rotting.

Open Letter.

Owing to the fact that the time for the Primary Election is drawing near, I wish to say to the Democrats of Fulton County that I will not be able to see each one personally, and I take this method of soliciting the support of every one, promising that if I be elected to the office of County Commissioner that I will use the very best of my judgment in behalf of the taxpayers. Thanking them all for the courtesy shown me thus far, I am, Very truly, Pol. Adv. DAVID A. GARLAND.

On a recent Sunday, nearly 1,000 automobiles were seen on the Gettysburg Battlefield.

Why We Have Grown.

Because we have always done banking on the highest, most conservative, most progressive and painstaking manner—and because we have lived up to every promise—these are reasons why we outgrew our old home.

From a total of $160,000.00 in deposits four years ago to $316,000.00 deposits to-day, is a good record. We are naturally proud of our beautiful and substantial home—one room of which is fitted for the free use of the public and convenience of our patrons for private business engagements or other meetings.

Many of our largest and most prosperous depositors started their savings in a small way. Do likewise. Begin to-day, by placing your savings at 3 per cent. compound semi-annual interest in

SALVIA

L. E. Poor, of Breezewood, is very ill of heart trouble. Mrs. Myrtle Hann (Myrtle Barber, Mrs. Poor's sister) and Mrs. W. S. Bair went to see him last Sunday.

Dwight Sipes went on last Monday to take a course in Perkiomen Seminary, Pennsburg, Pa.

David D. Deshong Jr., of Pittsburgh, arrived home on Sunday. After a short visit among friends he will accompany his mother, Mrs. Mary Deshong, to their home in the Smoky City.

Squire Bert Hann has purchased a new automobile and took an initial trip Sunday. What happened on the mountain, Grace? Try compression next trip.

Mrs. Joanna Dixon, of Needmore, is spending a month or so with her daughter, Mrs. Emory Hessler.

J. A. Stewart has divided his farm into five small farms containing 25 to 35 acres each, and intends to give industrious, energetic single (or double) men a chance to own a home of their own.

Harvey M. St-att is hauling limestone for a other kiln. Lime is doing wonders for him.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel's child were: Squire and Mrs. H. S. Daniels, and Editor and Mrs. A. D. Peightel, of McConnellsburg. Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Barton, Mrs. Hudgeon, and S. C. Barton, of Hustontown, were among the dozen guests of the Green Hill House last Sunday. It certainly is commendable how well and loyally the young men of Licking Creek Valley stand by the Lincoln Highway, and how hard they work these hot days to make a good road across Fulton county.

L. W. FUNK

DEALER IN

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me. Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
