Still muslin and gingham at 5 cents at Johnston's.

You owe it to yourself to investigate our Fall Merchandise. J. K. Johnston.

Don't miss the new advertisements this week—Hull & Bender, Geo. Reisner & Co., Mertie Shimer, Shapiro, AND the Circus.

Dr. Clarence N. Trout and family, of Red Lion, Pa., spent several days in McConnellsburg this week and attended the Mayes-Trout wedding last night.

A post card recently sent to this office from San Diego, Cal., by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harris, states that they are greatly enjoying the semi-tropical scenery.

Andrew Rotz lost his sorrel driving horse on Monday. This animal, so familiar to McConnellsburg people, developed some thing like lockjaw and had to be killed.

George, Ross, and Elton Barton—all of Brush Creek township passed through McConnellsburg Monday enroute to Franklin county to help harvest the big corn crop.

Bert Hann and family, after attending Sunday School last Sunday morning took a little spin in their new Ford, going from their home at Saluvia to Chambersburg and return.

WANTED.—First class all-round man, or good live man as clerk; also, first class saleslady who is good stockkeeper and can sell goods. Send application by mail. Harry Huston, Saltillo, Pa. 992t

A post card to this office from E. Holmes Thompson, of Tyrone, mailed at San Francisco, September 13th, brought greetings from the Panama Pacific Exposition to his many friends who read the NEWS.

Why send to Mail Order Houses for your Fall and Winter Underwear and Coat Sweaters when you can see what you are buying from J. K. Johnston? Look his entire line over before buying elsewhere.

Speaking of poultices that candidates are expected to apply to "bleeders," we do not know that candidate Schooley coughed up any; but he applied several to a first class boil on his arm while campaigning.

Somewhere up along the Susquehanna river the farmers have asked the telephone companies to erect higher poles because the corn grew so tall this season that it reached the wires and short circuited the phones.

Our townsman Thomas Johnson returned last week week after having spent several days visiting his brothers Richard James, and Stillwell in the lower end of the County. Mr. Johnson enjoyed his visit very much.

The McConnellsburg Band will hold a festival on the Court House Lawn, Saturday, October 2nd, the proceeds to be used for the purpose of repairing some of the many instruments needing it. Your patronage will be appreciated.

An automobile party consisting of William Hershey and his son Walter, Scott Wolf, Joe Barnett and David S. Strait in Mr. Straits car, came in from Laidig to McConnellsburg in an hour yesterday. The automobile brings all our outlying towns much nearer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wible, of Harrisburg, came to McConnellsburg last Friday to remain until after the primary election, as Mr. Wible retains his citizenship here by reason of his being in the employ of the State. On future visits, after November 2nd, Mrs. Wible may also vote in McConnellsburg. Won't that be nice?

Rev. George A. McAllister resigned the pastorate of the Central Presbyterian church at the close of service last Sunday morning. There seems to be factional trouble in the congregation. Dr. McAllister was on the Arabic when it was sent to the bottom of the ocean by a torpedo from a German submarine a few weeks ago.

The Primary Election.

Owing to the fact that returns from some of the townships were late getting in, we have not been able to give as much information concerning the vote Tuesday as we wish. If everybody that got a vote at the election should be compelled to accept the office, there would be a sledload of commissioners, a wagonload of county treasurers, and more sheriffs than there are rooms in the jail. It was a jolly go-as-you-please election. There were lots of blanks, and there was nothing to hinder a man voting for any of his friends or people that were not his friends. McPherson and Butt will both be on the ticket at the November election, and it will then be decided which shall preside over our courts.

Church Notices.

Members of Pleasant Grove Christian church will meet at 2 o'clock p. m., October 2, 1915, for a roll call meeting for the purpose of revising the church records. All members are requested to be present, or if impossible to be present, to correspond with church clerk. By order of the church. Blanche C. Smith, Clerk, Warfordsburg, Pa.

The Presbyterian Sunday School at Green Hill will hold their annual picnic September 25th. All are invited to come and bring your baskets.—Grace Hann, Asst. Supt.

There will be a Sunday School picnic in the grove at Hustontown on Saturday the 25th of September to which everybody is invited.

There will be a festival and cake walk at Jacob Gordon's, Laurel Ridge, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 1st and 2nd. All are invited.

There will be no services at the Rehoboth M. E. church on Sunday Sept. 26 because of the dedication services at Orchard Ridge M. E. church.

Preaching next Sunday at Asbury, 10:30; Ebenezer, 3 p. m.; Siloam, 7:30.

Services for the Reformed and Presbyterian churches of McConnellsburg for next Sunday as follows: Holy Communion in the morning in the Reformed church, preparatory services Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Services Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church at 7:30. In connection with the services both morning and evening, Harvest Home will be observed. Regular services at Green Hill at 2:30.—Rev. J. Leidy Yearick.

September 14—Mrs. Ellen French, of Trough Creek Valley, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Albert King and wife and their daughter Catharine visited some friends last week.

On Friday evening, at his home David Hershey had the misfortune to fall down the steps in his home and become considerably bruised. No reflections are due Mr. Hershey. The trouble was with the steps, and, besides, it was dark at the time.

September 21—Mrs. Maynard Unger and two children, of Ayr township spent the past week at the home of Mrs. Tager's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price.

There was a pleasant social at Elliott Kirk's last Saturday evening in honor of Margaret Kirk who expects to attend Juniata College during the coming term. Among those not in the immediate vicinity who attended were Fred and Christabel Lamberson, of Hustontown.

ANOTHER BIG DAY. MURRAH!

The Liberty Bell and Governor Brumbaugh and Party to Be in McConnellsburg on Same Day.

Monday, October 4th will be a big day in McConnellsburg. First the Woman's Liberty Bell will be in town between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. This bell is a replica of the Liberty bell that every school boy knows all about, and which is now in San Francisco at the Panama Exposition and attracting millions of sightseers. The Woman's Bell was presented to the Suffragists by Mrs. Katharine Wentworth Ruschenberger, of Strafford. It cost $5,000, and is so heavy that it is hauled on a big auto truck wherever it goes. Four able speakers travel with the bell to explain to the crowds that the bell stands now for the same principles for which Old Liberty Bell stood at the time of the Revolutionary War. That old bell proclaimed liberty to men and the new one is proclaiming liberty to women. It is hoped that owners of autos will take friends to meet the bell at the county line and form a guard of honor to escort it to McConnellsburg, and that all who possibly can will take a few hours off to see the bell and hear the addresses. A second event for that day will be the presence of Governor Brumbaugh and an escort of 100 persons who will make a 1000-mile tour of the State. This party will take dinner in Chambersburg and stop here in the afternoon.

The Chautauqua.

Splendid! Says Everybody. Large Attendance. Auditorium Crowded Last Night. Don't Miss It.

The Chautauqua opened yesterday afternoon to a fairly good house. Everyone who attended came away so enthusiastic that in the evening the house was crowded and every one present felt that McConnellsburg was to be congratulated in being able to land a series of such splendid entertainments at such a small cost. It took some pulling on the part of the Guarantors to get the thing to moving, but after it started it ran on high gear at a 60-mile clip. There will not be a question about having one next year.

Nicholas Purcell.

Nicholas Purcell, who resided at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Hoffman, Lancaster, Pa., died at the general hospital in that city on Monday, September 13, 1915, aged 62 years and 6 months. Mr. Purcell was a native of Paterson, N. J., but lived for many years in Dublin township, this county. He is survived by his wife and the following children, namely, Mrs. Mary Peters, Wrightsville, Pa.; Mrs. Mary Hoffman, Lancaster, Pa.; Mrs. Lucy Harmon, Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. Rose Summers, Minersville, Pa., and two step-sons—J. P. Martz, Hustontown, and B. W. Martz, Tyrone. Interment at Wrightville, Pa.

Sale Register.

Wednesday, October 27, Mrs. Achsah Gienger, executrix of the will of George C. Gienger, deceased, will sell at the late residence of the decedent in Buck Valley, 3 horses, 1 Brood sow, traction engine, saw mill, planer, wood saw, fodder shredder, corn harvester, threshing machine, reaper, mower, manure spreader wagons, surrey, sleigh, farm implements, some household goods, etc. Sale will begin at 9 o'clock, sharp, when terms will be made known.

Howard Kirk, of Taylor township, is nursing a badly crushed finger—received while greasing a wagon. Use the tar stick next time, Howard.

What Do You Read Sunday.

For those who enjoy the best of fiction—for those who are amused by clean humor—for all those who want the news as it really happened for those who take pride in their homes and families—for substantial and worth-while people of that sort—The Philadelphia Sunday 'Press' is the ideal newspaper. It is a complete newspaper, giving you every desirable feature, but none that might be classed as undesirable. A magazine said to be the best in America. A woman's section that is a revelation. A comic section that is clean and funny. A sporting section complete. A news section trustworthy, and an editorial page that is a criterion. Read the Philadelphia Sunday 'Press.'
