Most of the letters are based on sarsay evidence, and so it was with ome surprise that Dr. F. A. Lucas. the director of the museum, read in me of the letters than an actual phoegraph of the sea serpent whose acims were described was being forarded under separate cover. He waited the arrival of the photograph merly. LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 26

OBEDIENCE AND KINGSHIP (RE VIEW).

GOLDEN TEXT-The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord; and in thy salva-tion how greatly shall be rejoice. Ps. 21:1. LESSON TEXT-Pealm 72.

The subject assigned for this review lesson is aptly chosen, for the kingliest quality or virtue passed by any king is to be obedient. The servant who truly serves is obedient. The motto of the king of England is "Ich dien"-I serve.

Gen. R. E. Lee once said that for him the greatest word in the English language is the word "obey." We read of our master that he "learned obedience by the things he suffered" (Heb. 5:8) and he taught that "if ye love me, keep (obey) my commandments" (John 14:15).

The lessons for the past quarter cover an approximate period of about 125 years beginning probably B. C. 1024 (Beecher). In them there are presented nine. rulers; David, Solomon. Rehobcam, Jeroboam, Asa, Ahab and Jezebel from within, and two from without Israel, the Queen of Sheba and Ben-hadad, king of Syria. There are also five prophets mentioned, Nathan, Ahlah, Azarlah, Obed and Elijah, It might be well for teachers to distribute blank pieces of paper and ask the scholars to write a brief outline of the oustanding facts regarding these rulers, also of Nathan and Elljah, though the last will more properly come later as there are yet several lessons about that great prophet. These kings can be classified as good and bad, though the greatest of them all (David) suffered a most terrible fall. From these lessons the great facts of sin, grace, prayer, the word of God, faith, salvation and unbelief are all to be emphasized.

For the older classes a most interesting study can be made of the development of God's people materially and the religious development also, as well as a study of the causes for the division of the kingdom.

The tendency in both kingdoms was downward towards the destruction of the northern one and the captivity and impoverishment of the southern.

A good method of review would be to take up each of the different characters and give a summary of his life and of its effect upon the nation. It will be profitable to answer such questions as: What do the events of the past quarter teach us about the character of God? What great teachings have we had presented on the subject of prayer? What peculiar manifestations have been seen in the develop ment of sin? In this quarter's lessons what emphasis has been made relative to the word of God? What moral duties and obligations have been emphasized? If a good crayon artist is available prepare on the blackboard 12 circles, five above, five below, and one at

A Useful Head.

A Washington man has in his employ a faithful but, at times, stupid servant in the person of an old darky named Zeke.

Recently, when the employer had vainly endeavored to get something done in a certain way, he gave up in despair, exclaiming:

"Zeke! Zeke! Whatever do you think your head is for?"

Zeke, who evidently thought that this was another of the troublecome questions that his employer was always asking, pondered it deeply. Finally he replied:

The photograph arrived in the next lay's mail, however, and Doctor Lutas found it to be not a sea serpent but what is known as a "thrasher" thark, a species which, it is said, is nore afraid of man than man is of it. ts name is derived from the manner a which it thrashes about in the waer with its huge tail.

CANNOT AFFORD TO DRINK.

"In and for the future it will be known that no nation can afford to drink," says Rector Saleeby, distinguished British Scientist, writing in the London Chronicle. "Every molecule of the poison alcohol means a smashed and lost molecule of sugar, the superlative food and fuel for energy, work and warmth. Nations that choose this slow suicide will go down like their predecessors, in the night of Time."

WHY HE KEEPS SOBER. "Why don't you drink?" I asked my friend, the honest saloonkeeper. "Well, you see," he replied, "I'm a business man. I don't indulge, because I want to make money, not to drink it up. I insist on absolute sobriety among my bartenders and porters. It's bad enough for the boys to have to look at my patrons. Besides, a drunken employee is only 15 per cent efficient."-Cincinnati Republican Gazette.

CONDEMN USE OF ALCOHOL.

Forty-one of the physicians of Oshkosh, Wis., have put themselves on record in writing as condemning the use of alcoholic beverages and declaring that "organized medicine should initiate and carry on a systematic, persistent propaganda for the education of the public regarding the deleterious effects of alcohol."

BEER CAUSES ACCIDENTS.

The Western Electric plant of Chicago forbids its employees to bring beer on the grounds. Why? Because it was noticed that a large number of accidents occurred after noon, and in almost every case the victim had taken beer with his lunch.

each end of a rectangle. In this last place the Golden Text for the day and in each of the circles, beginning in the upper left hand corner, either a sketch or some other suggestion of each of the several lessons. A tree for Absalom's death, a queen in the second, a man in prayer in the third, a temple in the fourth and so on. Do not try to be too ornate and leave much to the imagination of the scholars.

Another suggestion for use upon the blackboard would be to draw two panels or columns on either end of the board and connect the tops by an arch. Divide the arch into five divisions and in the top, the keystone of the arch. place the name of good King Asa, to the left Absalom and Adonijah, and to the right Elijah and Ahab. On the left panel write "The Word of God" and on its capstone "David." On the right panel write, "Obedicace," and on the capstone "Solomon." Then underneath the arch and between the panels first the names of the remaining chief characters belonging to Israel, and be low, but separate, those from without whose names have been considered during the past quarter. This arrangement of names might be so made as to call attention to the separated kingdoms of Israel and Judah, using the arch for the names of the characters affecting the kingdom before its division.

Again the board may be ruled into two columns, one to contain the names of the "chief persons," and the other the "chief facts." Divided according to lessons they will be about as follows: Chief persons 1, David, Joab, Abishai, Absalom; 2, David, Bathsheba, Zadok, Nathan, Solomon, Adonijah; 3 and 4. Solomon; 5, Solomon, Queen of Sheba; 6, Rehoboam, old and young men; 7, Jeroboam; 8, Azariah, Asa; 9, Elijah, Ahab and the widow of Zarephath; 10, Elijah and prophets of Baal; 11, Elijah and God; 12, Benhadad, Ahab, young men.

Chief Facts-1, failure; 2, anointing; 3, choice; 4, prayer; 5, wisdom, 6, division; 7, sin; 8, reform; 9, providence; 10, testing; 11, discouragement; 12, defeat. Thus by careful and prayerful preparation a review of each lesson can briefly but profitably be presented.

The material for a successful review along any of the lines suggested will demand careful preparation on the part of the teacher, but will be well, worth while in fixing the chief facts in the pupils' mind while it also will test the sort of work the teacher has been doing.

Assign much work ahead of time; use much variety in the manner of presentation; do not try to cover too much but drive home a few of the outstanding, great central truths of the quarter's lessons.
