McConnellsburg proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

Riley Peck, shoemaker, Pleasant St., McConnellsburg, says: "Some years ago I was troubled with my kidneys and soreness in my back. I was dizzy at times and it affected my eyes. I had to get up often at night on account of the kidney secretions. I was tired out when I got up in the morning and I didn's feel like doing any work. I had a doctor at the time, but he only gave me a little relief. A friend insisted upon me taking Doan's Kidney Pills, as he was cured by them. I I got two boxes at Trout's Drug Store, and found great relief at

When the War Is Over. Great changes are predicted for the Jews after the war is Some time ago, the News called attention to the fifty-one Jewish organizations in America for the advancement of farming. The Jews under these organizations do not pull and haul-each for himself. No; they apply busi ness methods collectively and as efficiently as they do in other business organizations, and they are succeeding individually. The steps have already been taken to bring the oppressed Jews of warring nations to America and set them to farming—something they now understand under the well organized foreign methods of com munity work. To those who have not tried to understand the County Agent movement in Pennyslvania, we wish to say, better start now, for farming must be brought under organized control if those engaged in it have any desire to keep up with the de-mands of the times. One-third of the population of the United States is now engaged in producing food for theother two-thirds and this vast army of farmers can no longer follow a Dutchman's rendition of the old proverb, namely, "Birds mit one fedder flocks by himself."
