Rev. J. L. Yearick took Mack Helman to Chambersburg Monday to consult a specialist on kidney trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reiser and children, of Lancaster, are visiting their uncles, Jacob and G. W. Reiser, in this place.

William Brewer, of Ayr township, raised 350 bushels of buck-wheat on 14 acres this year— an average of 25 bushels to the acre.

This seems to be Scarlet Sage year. Never before have we seen so much of this attractive flower. The borders of many dooryards are ablaze with it.

Thomas F. Slean, Jr., returned home recently after having spent three months in California taking in the sights of that great state, and visiting the Panama Exposition.

Mrs. Annie Benford moved her household goods Tuesday, from north First street to the home of her brother, Albert Stoner where she will make her home for an indefinite period.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Among the many subscribers who called at the NEWS office last Monday was Mr. T. B. Appleby, of Decorum, Huntingdon county. He and his wife, and Misses Anna and Rhoda Peterson, and Mrs. S. D. Peterson, were seeing the sights in town—including the Liberty Bell, of course.

The season for one of man's greatest trials is at hand—putting up stovepipe. As an excuse to swear about it, some men "swear" that somebody mixed up the joints after they had been carefully paired and put away on the garret last fall, when everybody knows that he had nothing to do with putting away the pipe. Strange how mum the women keep at that moment.

Try the Sunday Record.

We know a man who bought four or five lots of cantaloupes early in the season, found them flat and tasteless, and banished cantaloupes from his table on the ground that farmers don't grow the kind of fruit nowadays that they did when he was a boy.

There are men who won't read anything but the news in the Sunday newspaper because they have come to the conclusion, after experience with other newspapers than the Sunday edition of "The Philadelphia Record" that all Sunday newspapers are insipid and unprofitable. But because a man has eaten cantaloupes that were grown in close proximity to a cucumber patch, the cross fertilized with the cucumbers by industrious insects, thus partaking of the qualities of both plants, there is no reason why he should eschew Rocky Fords; and because he has been imposed upon with the common run of Sunday newspaper trash there is no reason why he should not acquaint himself with the contents of "The Sunday Record" and become a constant reader.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life. If your work is tiring; if your nerves are exhausted; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions. It possesses its concentrated form from the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength. Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Do You Want to Sell?

Wealthy city people think nothing of dropping $10,000 to $50,000 for a pretty location for a summer residence along convenient lines of travel such as the Lincoln Highway now presents. Some of these people keep up half a dozen residences in various parts of the country. Each place is in the hands of a keeper who sees to it that the owner's family finds rest and comfort for short periods during each year. Few of these owners try to make the place "pay" as we interpret that term. They have the money to buy comfort and pleasure, and that is the first thing that appeals to them when considering the purchase of a location for fishing, shooting, escape from summer heat, or for a place to sickly members of the family. There are scores of places along Lincoln Highway that offer inducements for all of these things. Hundreds of travelers pass them every day without having their attention attracted simply for the lack of as simple "signs" as a neat fence, a few flowers, a little whitewash or paint, some vines over the front porch, or a score of other little touches that cost little but add greatly to the attractiveness of the home. Many a home has been sold at good prices simply through the attraction of the eye to the possibilities of the location. If the tourist is looking for a site, he can be directed to yours through just such little indications as mentioned.

L. W. FUNK High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg, DEALER IN -- Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me. There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me. Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over. L. W. FUNK.
