Roy M. Sipes met with a painful accident last Saturday evening. He was returning from Mc-Connellsburg with a ton and a half of fertilizer and was walking beside the wagon when an auto approached and ran straight at him. To avoid being struck, Mr. Sipes jumped closer to the wagon and a wheel passed over his foot. He had given the auto driver the right of half the road.

Toll Roads Going.

Last week when Governor Brumbaugh and party of tourists. passed through Chambersburg on their way west through this county, Mr. Brumbaugh tacked up a sign at the Southern end of the Chambersburg and Shippensburg turnpike, announcing that travelers should not pay toll as the State had taken over that road. It caused rejoicing in that section as it did when the pike any such municipality or district in through this county was freed in 1913. Toll roads are going and two per centum upon such assessed val better living conditions in the country are coming. Did you ever close your eyes and try to picture conditions after we get good roads all over the country? When that day comes we will have fast autobuses rurning between every postoffice in the County. They will correspond in our hilly county to electric railroads elsewhere. They will day that the first autobus offered city and county of Philadelphia, and reliable transportation between which shall yield to the city and McConnellsburg and Chambersburg, patronage increased and said debt or debts, and the annual in we can now go comfortably to Franklin county several times cluded in ascertaining the power of during the day if we wish.
