THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the foctid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

TURN OVER TIME When Nature Hints About the Food.

When there's no relish to food and all that one eats doesn't seem to do any good then is the time to make a turn-over in the diet, for that's Nature's way of dropping a hint that the food isn't the kind required.

"For a number of years I followed railroad work, much of it being office work of a trying nature. Meal times were our busiest; and eating too much and too quickly of food such as is commonly served in hotels and restaurants, together with the sedentary habits, were not long in giving me dyspepsia and stomach trouble which reduced my weight from 205 to 160 pounds.

"There was little relish in any food and none of it seemed to do me any good. It seemed the more I ate the poorer I got and was always hungry efore another meal, no matter how much I had eaten. "Then I commenced a trial of Grape-Nuts food, and was surprised how a small saucer of it would carry me along, strong, and with satisfied appetite, until the next meal, with no sensations of hunger, weakness or distreas as before.

"I have been following this diet now for several months and my improvement has been so great all the others in my family have taken up the use of Grape-Nuts with complete satisfaction and much improvement in health. "Most people eat hurriedly, have lots of worry, thus hindering digestion and therefore need a food that is predigested and concentrated in nourishment.' "There's a Reason."

Ever read the shove letter? A new one appears from time to thus. They are grauino, true, and full of human interest.

Here we dara run the deadly parallel, and say that Jesus Christ gives to the highest part of man, the spirit. While all know that well-being is the reward of virtue, yet Jesus Christ does not come to man with a promise of blessing to the body that perishes. He recognizes that man is in the image and likeness of God, and offers him what meets the demands of such a being. The offer may mean that trial and even death shall follow allegiance to Jesus Christ. The fare of the birds of the air and the foxes that have holes may not be his, but Jesus Christ offers to the spirit of man that which will meet every proper demand. As our text brings to our attention the subject of peace, it is sufficient to know that Jesus Christ offers this peace to those that receive him. Jesus Christ really gives. Eternal life is a gift. Wine and milk are without money and without price; the water of life is free. There is nothing that the man of the world is slower to believe than that the salvation of Jesus Christ is a pure gift. The last part of the parallel is, that what Jesus gives is satisfying. Satiety gives way to real satisfaction. There may be or may not be a thrill connected with the experience, but in any case it is permanent. There are no dregs at the bottom of this cup of pleasure. There are no submarines that may send the fatal torpedo into the hull of the vessel of salvation. A beautiful thing about the religion of Jesus Christ is that the satisfaction is not delayed. What the Christian receives here and now, satisfies. As William McKinley lay dying and said: "Thy will be done there was evidence of satisfaction although the highest position in the gift of man was sinking out of sight.

a the early martyrs faced the lions in the arena and lifted up their faces and smiled, there was something more than satisfaction. As the Christian looks forward to the day when he shall rise in Christ's likeness he is now satisfied with the prospect as was David of old when he said: "I shall be satisfied when I awake with thy likeness."

Lamentations Foolish.

Few structures rise upon the sands of regret. It is not by lamentations that we build. It is not by bemoanings over opportunities that will never come again that men climb to heaven. Achievement lies in resolution and the brave will bring it out. The muckraker finds fow diamonds whether he drag the slimy teeth through his own lelinquencies or those of others. loyalty mingled with a sweet reasonableness that always gains its ends. Daniel had sufficient confidence in his

God and faith in his actions to be willing to be submitted to the acid test of experience. His was a religion that could stand without being tied. His wisdom is likewise our privilege (James 3:17).

This age has yet to fully comprehend the reasonableness and efficacy of those ancient Jewish laws of sanitation and diet. Myriads of men are today digging their graves with their teeth. The result of this test was that Daniel and his companions were delivered from transgressing God's laws and the prince of the eunuchs from being punished beause of the physical condition of his charges. Beauty, health, and strength came to Daniel and his friends with the result of preferment, position, and influence at court (v.

19). They "stood before the king," (Rom. 14:10-12; I Cor. 3:10-15; II Cor. 5.9); (a) because of their unswerving loyalty to God and obedience to his Word (John 14-15; 16:26 R. V.); (b) because of their life of prayer, for it is the work of the Holy Spirit to give unto us wisdom (Luke 2:15, Acts 6: 10) even as Daniel was thus blessed (v 17) the spirit bestows diverse gifts (1 Cor. 12:1-4-11); (c) and finally be cause having a special place in the purposes and plans of God their lives were counted precious in his sight (v. 27). Verily, "He that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

Temperance and self-control must begin in the home and be perpetuated in the strength and power of God which alone comes through an intelligent knowledge and obedience of his Word.
