Jeweller and Mrs. Shinneman, two Misses Craig, and Miss Rose Fisher—all of Chambersburg motored to Bedford Springs last Sunday, camped at "Buzzard's Glory" for lunch, and returned to McConnellsburg and took supper and spent the evening with ex-postmaster and Mrs. S. B. Woollet, and Rose's mother Mrs. Sadie Fisher.

A few weeks ago, the Borough caused to be erected a row of hitching posts and rails on the Commons at the west end of town for the convenience of people coming to town with teams. Hitching on Lincoln Way is a dangerous proposition since the advent of the auto—hundreds of which some days whirl through the town. That street is too narrow to accommodate buggies and wagons and leave sufficient room for safe passage of so many autos.

DEALER IN

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.

L. W. FUNK.
