A Lucky Fellow.

When it is considered that the papers are full of accounts of accidents whereby men lose their lives—many of the accidents apparently trivial to—the man who passes through three serious ones and comes out alive, must be regarded as a lucky fellow. Harry Duffy, the genial hearted miller at Webster Mills, is just such a man. A few years ago, he became tangled up in the machinery at his mill and escaped by losing only part of the index finger of his right hand. Later he paid $75 for a cow at Aaron Richards' sale, and while taking her home, the rope attached to her and held by his hand became wrapped around the third finger of his left hand, and part of the finger was torn off. Of course it hurt, but it didn't kill him. The other day as his son Herbert was passing the mill with the auto truck, Harry thought to jump onto the running board and ride to the house. The machine was going just a little faster than Harry thought, and he fell beneath the truck, which passed over both legs injuring him severely. While two canes come handy when he walks, he will soon be as good as ever.

A Prized Photograph.

Mrs. B. A. Ross, of Belfast township, received a photo the other day that she prizes highly, and takes this method to thank the giver, Mrs. A. J. Mellott. The photo is of three generations namely, Wm. Mellott, Chicago; Mrs. Katharine Mellott, Irwin, Pa.; McClellan Mellott, Kansas; Rev. Corder Mellott, wife, and daughters Dorothy and Alice, of Philadelphia; A. F. Mellott and wife, of Defiance; S. B. Wills, wife and son Ralph, of Riddlesburg; J. F. Boor and wife, of Monessen, Pa.; A. J. Mellott, wife, and sons Arthur and Paul, and daughter Leah, of Chicago; M. L. Mellott, of Riddlesburg, and Lizzie Himes, of Hopewell.

C. V. S. N. S. Notes.

Thanksgiving was a full day at the Normal. Sermon in the morning by Rev. Snyder, of the Lutheran Church, Shippensburg; noon, big turkey dinner; afternoon, basketball game between our Modelers and Chambersburg Grammar. Modelers won. In the evening, play in the chapel. The only Fultonian on the cast was Mr. Lehman, of Union.

Two Fulton County students took an active part in the program of the Normal Literary Society last Friday evening, namely, Miss Jean Johnston of McConnellsburg, who gave a reading on the Life of Carl Bittern, and Gordon Charlton, of Warfordsburg, who read the Current Events.

The Winter Term.

The winter term of twelve weeks at State College began December 1st. This term is designed for farmers' sons and daughters who cannot spare the summer months for educational purposes. We are sorry that we cannot report a large class from Fulton county, because there is nothing like a term on the Big State Farm that so enthralls the young people to the point of taking hold of the old home place in earnest, instead of longing to get away from it. The cost is small, and farmer young people are attending by thousands. We need a little earthquake in Fulton county.

Tree Fell on Him.

Last Saturday, when Thomas Wink, near Needmore, was cutting down a tree, it started to fall when about half cut off and split up the middle which caused it to swing to one side and knock Mr. Wink down. He was pinned under the tree until his cousin Logue Wink released him. Cuts about the face, body bruises, and several teeth knocked out made up the the extent of his injuries.

W. H. LUDWIG,
JEWELER,
Chambersburg, Pa.

It was not a Fulton county school ma'am's pupil who answered the question in history by stating that "Slavery was introduced into the United States in 1619 by the London Company when they sent a ship load of girls whom the planters gladly married." But some think that the boy was not far wrong, after all.

Jacob Myers and wife, of Lucas, Ohio, came home a few days ago to visit relatives in the County. They returned to Ohio today. An auto party from Thompson township, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Myers, and Jacob Peck wife and daughter, came to town last Tuesday. Mr. Myers has been away fifteen years and is a railroader.

Yesterday W. L. Cowan, tenant on the W. F. Trayer farm 1 1/2 mile west of Mercersburg, finished husking and hauling in his crop of corn that made him 118 loads of 20 barrels to the load or 2360 barrels. He has his fodder all in that made him 46 loads.

What Bill Did.

Bill Turner was a farmer, he labored all his life. He didn't have no schoolin' and neither had his wife. But Bill was built for business and made the wheels go round, and left a healthy fortune when they put him underground. He was always taking chances, paid a hundred for a bull. His neighbors called him crazy, but he left a stable full of cows that broke the record, making butter by the ton, an' Bill had his picture printed in the Squeedunk Weekly Sun. He had newfangled notions of making farming pay. He even bought a fool machine to help him load his hay. The neighbors fairly snorted when they saw the bloomin' thing; said Bill would never make it work. It wasn't worth a ding! Bill didn't say a darn 'bout what they said, fer slick as grease, his hay went in the barn and hour before a thunder storm came sailin' out that way and caught his neighbors in a pinch and spoiled their new mown hay. Bill's neighbors put their milk in cans, and set 'em in a tank. Bill skimmed his milk with a machine and turned it with a crank. Smith chops his firewood with an ax. Bill used some gasoline and saws a hundred cords a day with another blame machine. Today Bill's wife rides in a car and dresses up in silk. Smith's wife rides in a wagon and keeps on skimming milk.

Church Notices.
