Free Xmas Gifts at Ye Smoke Shop.

Miss Jeannette Stouteagle was a Chambersburg shopper one day last week.

Miss Blanche Woodall, Chambersburg was a guest of Miss Ada Horton at Shippensburg Normal over Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Peck of Thompson township spent several days last week visiting among relatives and friends in Ayr township.

Miss Madaline Shimer, daughter of Rev. George Shimer gave an interesting reading at the Parent Teacher meeting last Friday evening.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

A glance into many of the show windows of town reveals the feelings of the merchants towards the school ma'ams, so many of whom are in town this week. The windows are filled with sweets.

All a minister has to do to make himself unpopular with his congregation is tell the people the truth. So long as he goes along diplomatically, pretending that he cannot penetrate their disguises and neglecting to tell them the disagreeable truths, they think he's fine. People don't like to have their masks torn off.

In husking his corn, Edgar C. Hann, near Saluvia found two ears, that for number of grains and size are hard to beat; one measured 1 1/2 inches in length, 8 1/2 inches around the butt of the ear, and contained 22 rows of 50 grains to the row, making a total of 1100 grains. The other ear was smaller, but contained 26 rows of 45 grains each, making a total of 1245 grains.

After an illness of eight weeks with typhoid fever in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Little in this place, Miss Lillian Brewer is spending a month in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sosey, near Millstone, Md. Miss Brewer had been in the Little millinery establishment two years, and expects to return there as soon as she is fully convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Bumgarner, Needmore, R. R. 2, spent last Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Little. While in the NEWS office Mr. Bumgarner called our attention to the account of the killing of the two Prough children in Trough Creek Valley Wednesday of last week. While at play in the kitchen during the time the mother was out getting a turkey ready for the Thanksgiving dinner, little Raymond proposed that they play Cowboy and Indian, and suiting the action to the word he pointed a gun at his sister and pulled the trigger. His younger brother was in line, and when the gun "went off" both the sister and brother were killed. Mr. Bumgarner knew the Prough people well, he having gone to school with the grandfather of these children.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excited; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bown, Bloomfield, N. J.
